PREREQUISITE

Admission to the Education Leadership program

UNIVERSITY CATALOGUE COURSE DESCRIPTION

EDLE 634 – Contemporary Issues in Education Leadership examines current and emerging issues and trends impacting education. Includes demographic shifts; globalization; technology; data-based decision making; inclusion of diverse learners in American schools; and recent research on student achievement when influenced by race, gender, and poverty.

COURSE DELIVERY METHOD

Class sessions will consist of lectures, discussions, debate, scenarios and student presentations. Students should see themselves as partners in creating a valuable and memorable educational experience. Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- 1. Analyze contemporary issues and major trends in education and their implications for society at large and schools and districts.
- 2. Synthesize recent research relative to student achievement in diverse school settings with attention to relationships between student achievement, gender, race, poverty, and ability.

3. Identify various strategies to maximize the effective use of data to improve student achievement and effective ways to communicate results to diverse community stakeholders

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

- 1. Identify, define, and articulate competing and contested views on a contemporary issue in education leadership using relevant education research and policy literature.
- 2. Access, analyze, and summarize publicly available data on a given education research topic in written form.
- 3. Present orally and visually a research-based synthesis of a contemporary issue in education leadership for diverse stakeholder audiences using relevant education research and policy literature.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

Participants in this course will demonstrate proficiency in appropriate Virginia Department of Education (VA DOE) competencies and ISLLC standards. VA DOE: 1-d, 1-e, 2-c, 2-d, 3-g, 4-a, 5-c, 6-e, 6-f. ISLLC: 1-K1, 1-K4, 1-K5, 2-K7, 2-K10, 2-P5, 2-P6, 2-P9, 2-P16, 2-P18, 3-K8, 3-P3, 3-P16, 3-P17, 4-K1, 4-K2, 4-P11, 5-K3, 5-P12, 6-K6, 6-K8, 6-P2, 6-P4, 6-P5. This course also fulfills NCATE Curriculum Guidelines by helping students demonstrate understanding in the areas of education leadership; strategic leadership (1.3, 1.6, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, and 2.4); instructional leadership (3.3, 3.4); and organizational leadership (7.2, 7.4, and 9.3).

REQUIRED TEXT

Frey, William H. (2015). Diversity explosion: How new racial demographics are Transforming America. Washington, D.C.: Brookings Institution Press.

Suggested readings may be added and provided throughout the semester based on student needs and interests.

COURSE PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time as outlined in this syllabus. All papers must be typed (12 pt. font, 1-inch margins, double-spaced in APA format - 6th edition) and submitted electronically to Blackboard. It is expected that student work will be submitted at or before 11:59 p.m. on each due date.

If you miss class the day an assignment is due, it is your responsibility to ensure the assignment is turned in before the deadline. If you anticipate needing an extension (except, of course, in the case of a true emergency), please ask for one prior to the deadline.

Students can earn a total of 100 points in this course. Graded assignments account for 80 points while class participation account for 20 points as follows:

1.	Class Discussion and Participation	20 points
2.	Issue Brief	20 points
3.	Research Advocacy Paper	40 points
4.	Research Presentation	20 points
	Total Possible Points	100 points

Graded Assignments and Participation Expectations

This section briefly describes assignment and class participation expectations. Detailed instructions and grading rubrics are provided at the end of the syllabus. Please review these items carefully before you begin your work.

- Class Discussion and Participation. Students are expected to actively participate in class by completing readings prior to class discussions. Weekly readings should be completed prior to the class meeting for which they are assigned. Students are also encouraged to share relevant materials and resources to stimulate discussion, learning, and improved practice in the field. (20 points)
- Issue Brief. Students will select a contemporary issue in education that is of great interest to them and holds important implications for the study and practice of education leadership. Once selected, the student will write an issue brief that: (a) clearly describes the underlying assumptions and arguments informing multiple perspectives on the issue; (b) integrates current research/policy literature and popular media coverage of the issue; (c) analyzes competing perspectives on the prevailing issue and their implications for education leaders, and (d) presents at least three recommendations for policy and/or leadership practice as possible solutions. (20 points) DUE: March 1, 2017 at 11:59 p.m.
- 3. Research Advocacy Paper. In this culminating research paper, students will synthesize what they have learned about the education issue of their choice, highlighting related research, publicly available data, newly collected data (i.e., stakeholder interview responses) and ways in which their thinking has developed since the initial issue brief. In order to demonstrate the student's mastery of the course learning objectives, the paper should draw upon relevant course materials and class discussions, findings from at least six research publications/data sources, and stakeholder interviews that expand the student's knowledge of the issue. The paper should conclude with at least two or more policy recommendations and their rationale for implementation. (40 points) DUE: April 12, 2017 at 11:59 p.m.
- Research Presentation. The accompanying presentation should succinctly review the research advocacy paper, not to exceed 20 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of Q & A with the audience. (20 points) DUE: April 19, 2017 by the beginning of class.

Written Assignments

All written assignments should be typed, formatted, and free from grammatical, spelling, and typographical errors. They should also be clear, concise, and well organized; incorporating literature and research from and beyond the course to support discussion and debate. Students should use the APA Publication Manual, 6th edition as a guide. I maintain high standards and expectations for quality writing so make sure to consult APA guidelines, colleagues, and/or the GMU Writing Center [http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/] to review and edit your work before turning it in to me. If you have any questions or concerns about your writing, please feel free to contact me before assignments are due.

Grading

The grading scale for the final course grade is as follows:

A+	=	100 points
А	=	95-99 points
A-	=	90-94 points
B+	=	87-89 points
В	=	83-86 points
B-	=	80-82 points
С	=	75-79 points
F	=	below 75 points

Professional Dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- 1. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/).
- 2. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).
- 3. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- 4. Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see http://ods.gmu.edu/).
- 5. Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- 1. Support for submission of assignments to Tk20 should be directed to tk20help@gmu.edu or https://cehd.gmu.edu/api/tk20. Questions or concerns regarding use of Blackboard should be directed to http://coursessupport.gmu.edu/.
- 2. The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing (see http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/).
- 3. The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students' personal experience and academic performance (see http://caps.gmu.edu/).
- 4. The Office of Student Support staff helps students negotiate life situations by connecting them with appropriate campus and off-campus resources. Students in need of these services may contact the office by phone (703-993-5376). Concerned students, faculty and staff may also make a referral to express concern for the safety or well-being of a Mason student or the community by going to http://studentsupport.gmu.edu/, and the OSS staff will follow up with the student.
