Guidelines For The Field Experience Report

Each student will write a Field Experience Report based on their field experience in a school. Include the following sections in your report: DUE: 4/21/05

- The Field Experience Report Cover Sheet Log- completed and signed by the field experience supervising teacher. (1 page: See example) 15 points

- A Field Experience Observation Report to Include:
  - Brief description of a lesson(s) observed and/or participated in.
  - Description of the methods and materials used to meet the stated objective(s).
  - Citing the way(s) learning was evaluated. (1-2 pages) 45 points

- A Summary of the Benefits Derived From Your Field Experience (1 page) 45 points

- A Description of Students’ Needs at the Grade Level Observed
  - Describe the physical, emotional, social, and intellectual needs of the students you observed. Identify some of the ways that teachers addressed those needs. (1 page) 45 points

Note: The Field Experience Report is to be typed in a clear (12 point, doubled spaced) and concise manner. Previous experience indicates that the Field Experience Report should be 4-5 pages in length.
Guidelines for the “Marvelous Me” Presentation

• Follow the directions on the work sheet.

• Be extremely creative. Give us your very BEST!

• Use the example of your instructor as a suggestion to the method of presentation.

• Please limit yourself to approximately 3 minutes. You will be timed.

• Remember there are no small parts, just small actors!

DUE: 2/3/05

Guidelines for the Article/Chapter Presentation

• Each group (3) will prepare a presentation based on a topic found in the chapters covered in class.

• Read and explain the article and how it relates to the chapter.

• Outline and speak on a specific reading that relates to a topic within the chapter that will enhance the chapter material; your choice should be based on the impact the topic has on the chapter, as well as the interest it is to your group.

• Prepare the presentation (with a class set of information) and anything else that you may feel necessary to help you make your lesson successful.

• Limit your presentation to 30 minutes; (10 min. each), include a Power Point presentation, an activity, or engaging questions that will provide a basis for class learning and discussion.

• Each group will be assigned a date to present the reading based on the chapter chosen. It will be a performance-based evaluation.

• A copy of your lesson in its full entirety will be given to the instructor for evaluation.

• Power Point is urged, and if you choose to present in this manner, please provide the instructor with a copy of the disk.

• A Schedule will be prepared for the class specifying topics, speakers, and time increments, of each group.

DUE: See Syllabus …/…../…..
Guidelines for Class Journals

- Write four (4) separate entries of no more then one page, and not less then a half page in length. Please do not turn them in all at once.

- Topics can include any and all material covered in class or a personal experience that relates to the content of the course.

- Relate this information in a personal perspective or a reflective manner, as it pertains to the class.

DUE: 4/28/05

Guidelines for Class Attendance

- Each group will be presenting course assignments on their assigned dates, their perspective is unique, and therefore only by being in class can you learn from their effort.

- Interaction and learning in both lectures and presentations can only occur if you are present.

- Any and all class activities / tests grades or credit will be based on class attendance.

- If you are serious about the grade you receive become pro-active in the process through your attendance. Please plan to attend class regularly. Contact me in advance if you can not attend class.

Evaluations

E-mail/Phone  – All students in EDUC 302 should have a GMU e-mail address and should check regularly to see if postings from other students or the instructor have been sent. Please pay particular attention to weather related emails.

Scholarship  - All work that is either handed in to the instructor or distributed to fellow students must be typed and reflect a high level of scholarship. Please take time to proof all work and remember that this effort is a direct reflection on your grade. Late assignments will be reduced by 15 points for each meeting that they are overdue. Finally, please remember that the GMU Honor Code is in effect at all times.

Presentations  - As each group prepares to present their topics please remember that you will be the focus of the class. A high level of professionalism is expected in terms of execution of the topic as well as a suitable and appropriate appearance. I will make every effort to assist any and all groups in the way of meeting time and support material that will enhance your efforts as well as your presentatio

Select any of the following “special features”, find an example, and use it. These are elements that add balance to your life. They are also the things that tell us what you value, reflect upon, look forward to, and are passionate about. While some of these are things that you must do…..they may not necessarily be who you really are. We are all so much more then what meets the eye. Choose from things that help define you as a person. Remember since we will all be presenting that night 3 minutes will be the time limit to all MM’s.
