

DEPARTMENTAL FORM

Graduate School of Education Counseling and Development Program (MUST ACCOMPANY THE GRADUATE APPLICATION)

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

G Number: _____

G numbers are automatically generated when you complete the online application and sent electronically to you using the email address you confirmed in your online application. If you do not receive an email verifying your G number, send email to the Admissions Office (admissions@gmu.edu). You can also call them directly at 703-993-2400 to retrieve your G number.

AREA OF SPECIALIZATION:

School Counseling _____ Community Agency Counseling _____
PCLC-School _____ PCLC-Community Agency _____

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND:

List 12 credits of undergraduate and graduate course work in the behavioral sciences (cultural anthropology, psychology, sociology, etc.) and counseling courses you have taken along with the grade which you received in each course.

Course Description	Grade

GOALS STATEMENT:

Submit a Goals Statement with this form or online with your application of at least two pages and no more than four which describes:

- Academic and occupational background
- The development of your interest in counseling
- Reasons for wishing to enter this program
- Qualities you possess which will enhance functioning as a counselor
- Career objective

EXPERIENCE:

List and briefly describe all counseling-related experiences, providing specific information on nature, dates, and hours of experience. Information provided should document at least 1000 hours of counseling-related experience such as:

- Teaching
- Hotline services
- Volunteering at schools
- Teen shelters
- Volunteer or paid work in counseling
- Mentoring
- Social science research
- Women's shelters
- Substance abuse work
- Outward bound
- Homeless shelters
- Other volunteer or work experience in helping situations