2. Email your abstract (as a one-page, single-spaced attachment) to Joan Stahle (jstahle@gmu.edu) at least 2 weeks prior to defense.

3. Make an appointment with the Fenwick Library dissertation coordinator, Ms. Sally Evans at (703) 993-2222 or email sevans13@gmu.edu to discuss the formatting of your dissertation. The library website has valuable information: http://thesis.gmu.edu/

4. At your dissertation defense, bring several signature sheets on regular paper with you for your committee to sign in black ink. Please see library submission requirements: http://thesis.gmu.edu/submission.html.

6. You must be registered for at least one (1) credit of EDUC 999 during the semester you defend. Please check your transcript in Patriot Web to confirm that you have registered for at least 1 credit of EDUC 998 and 999 every Fall and Spring semester since you advanced to candidacy. Students need 12 dissertation credits of EDUC 998 and 999 to graduate, with at least 6 credits of 999.

7. At the beginning of the semester you plan to graduate, review the Graduation website at http://registrar.gmu.edu/students/graduation/ for information about deadlines for the Graduation application. • 5 p.m. on the Friday before the last day of the Summer term or Fall semester classes for August or December graduation respectively.

AFTER YOU HAVE DEFENDED. . .

1. After you have successfully defended your dissertation and made any modifications requested by your dissertation committee, please send an electronic copy of the modified dissertation, together with a note from your dissertation committee chairman indicating that you have made all the modifications your committee requested, to Dr. Kitsantas at akitsant@gmu.edu. Please carefully examine your dissertation for APA 6 format, grammatical errors and spelling before sending your final electronic dissertation to the Ph.D. in Education Director.

2. Once your dissertation is approved by Dr. Kitsantas, she will forward the electronic copy to Dean Ginsberg. Please mail or deliver the signature sheets on regular paper to Ms. Joan Stahle in the Ph.D. in Education office. Please bring 2 signature sheets on regular paper and as many additional signature sheets as you would like the Director of the Ph.D. in Education Program and the Dean of the College of Education and Human Development to sign. (Your committee should have signed these sheets at your dissertation defense). In attempting to meet specific dates for graduation requirements, you should allow sufficient time for any changes the Director and the Dean might request before they sign off on your dissertation.

3. When the Director of the Ph.D. in Education Program and the Dean of the College of Education and Human Development have approved your final dissertation and signed the signature sheets, the Ph.D. in Education office will notify you concerning the dissertation submission to the library.

4. Please check the library website regarding library submission requirements: http://thesis.gmu.edu/submission.htm

5. Complete the National Opinion Research Center survey form obtained from the library dissertation coordinator, who will forward it to NORC.

6. The Ph.D. in Education office no longer requires a copy of a professionally bound dissertation. Students may choose to have a copy bound for their own records. Numerous binderies are listed in the yellow pages, or the Ph.D. in Education office will provide the name of a bindery which has provided satisfactory service in the past.
