COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Study of a topic regarding theory, research, or practice in physical education under the direction of a faculty member. The course can be repeated, but no more than 6 total credits hours may be earned.

COURSE OVERVIEW:

This course is individually designed by the supervising faculty and the student. Specific requirements for the course will be determined by the supervising faculty and student prior to the beginning of the semester. The expectation is that the student will meet with the supervising faculty to determine specific requirements and possible topics of study. It is the responsibility of the student to turn in assignments when due, attend all scheduled meetings, and complete all written work using the format of the American Psychological Association (APA). Students must adhere to the standards of the George Mason University Honor Code.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

At the completion of this course RHT students should be able to:

1. TBD
2. TBD
3. TBD

REQUIRED READING:

To be determined by the supervising faculty member.

EVALUATION:

To be determined prior to the beginning of the semester by the supervising faculty and the student.

Attendance Policy

Mason Catalog: "Students are expected to attend the class periods of the courses for which they register. In-class participation is important to the individual student and to the class as a whole. Because class participation may be a factor in grading, instructors may use absence, tardiness, or early departure as de facto evidence of non-participation. Students who miss an exam with an acceptable excuse may be penalized according to the individual instructor's grading policy, as stated in the course syllabus."

- ❑ All students are held to the standards of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://www.gmu.edu/catalog/policies/#Anchor12>]
- ❑ University policy states that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the professor
- ❑ Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the Office of Disability Services and inform the instructor in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See www.ods.gmu.edu]
