Relationships to Program Goals and Professional Organizations: The importance of strengthening and guiding instruction in educational settings is a leadership theme of academic and professional organizations alike. The purpose of the course is to strengthen the knowledge, skills and dispositions of EDLE candidates as instructional leaders and managers. The course provides models for (1) designing and managing curriculum; (2) relating to school board policy, professional development, and budget to effective instructional leadership; (3) constructing effective teacher-friendly curriculum guides; and (4) collecting and using demographic data to create a plan for improved student performance.

This course meets applicable competencies, standards, and guidelines set forth by the Virginia Department of Education (VA DOE), Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium (ISSLC), National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and Educational Leadership Constituent Council (ELCC), as shown below.

VA DOE Competencies (a 1,3,4,5 and 6; c1; e1; f 4,5)

NCATE Guidelines (Strategic Leadership: 1.3, 1.6, 2.4; Instructional Leadership: 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6, 3.9; Organizational Leadership: 9.1)

ELCC Standards (2.1a; 2.2a,b,c; 2.3 a,b,c ;2.4a,b,c; 6.1f)

Learner Outcomes: Students who successfully complete the requirements for EDLE 616 will be able to:

[i] demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of curriculum design, development and evaluation and connect all parts to ELCC standards in the design [and presentation] of a mini curriculum framework

[ii] demonstrate the ability to analyze school demographic and assessment data and use the same to create a professional development plan [PDP] to improve student performance in two critical areas

[iii] identify an emerging/controversial issue in curriculum development/evaluation and create a plan to serve as a guide for educators to fully understand it [the plan should connect best thinking/practices on the issue to 2 or 3 essential questions]

[iv] investigate the components of a well-formed BOE policy on curriculum development/evaluation and apply that knowledge to solve a problem either at a specific grade level or content area.

Internship [EDLE 791]: For questions relating to the connections between the Internship and coursework, please talk with either [i] the Instructor, or [ii] your Internship Advisor.

Nature of Course Delivery: A variety of instructional methods are used to cover the subject matter and create a dynamic, interactive learning environment. These methods may include large and small group discussions, case studies, media, Internet assignments, lecture, guest practitioners, group presentations, interviews, collaborative learning and reflection. There is some out-of-class work expected. The challenge is to become a community of learners.

Course Requirements: You are expected to attend each class because discussion, presentations and hands-on activities are critical parts of the course. The completion of and reflection on assigned readings, constructive participation in discussions and group work as well as on-line communication with group members are routine expectations. Access to a computer and a GMU email account are essential because you will receive important information from the university only on your GMU account and only GMU email accounts may be used to communicate with the instructor. You must also have an account in Taskstream.

If missing a class is unavoidable, you are responsible for notifying the instructor (preferably in advance). It is your responsibility to check with class colleagues for notes and assignments and complete any missed assignments and readings, etc. before the start of the next class. All absences may affect your final grade because of the heavy emphasis on class participation. All written assignments must be completed on a word processor (unless otherwise indicated) and turned in on or before the due date.

Assignments # 1 and 2 are program performance-based assessments and are to submitted on Taskstream.

Late assignments will lower your grade on the project, and will not be accepted or given credit if received 48 hours late. Specific course requirements and assigned due dates may be altered as the instructor receives input from you and your classmates about your school calendars. To plan and complete group projects, you may need to meet with other group members at times other than during scheduled class sessions.

Evaluation and Grading:

Because EDLE 616 is a graduate level course, high quality work is expected in class and on all assignments. Assignments 1, 2, 3 & 4 are graded by a rubric. In this way, the rubric can both inform the completion of the assignments and serve as an instrument to assess your grade for the activity.

This course is designed to further develop and expand your managerial and ethical skills in the area of instructional leadership and management. You will be assessed on your ability to analyze situations from the broad perspective of a school administrator, and be expected to view the impact of the decisions from a systematic perspective and from the benefit to student learning.

The grading assessment scales and assigned percentages shown below are guidelines only. Your final grade for the semester will reflect the instructor's judgment of your classroom performance as you attempt to demonstrate leadership behaviors, perspectives and attitudes.

Students may rewrite an assignment [other than the final group project] for re-grading within one week of receipt. The original assignment should be clipped/stapled to the re-write.

Students should abide by the University Honor Code...see link at:

Identify, Investigate and Create a Professional Development Plan for a Selected Curriculum Issue
(Group or Individual Project –IN CLASS)

Purpose:

As educational leaders, we are frequently faced with instructional issues directly related to the written curriculum. The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate the ability to synthesize information that is reflective of current [or future] issues surrounding curriculum implementation in our schools. Candidates will demonstrate their ability to identify and ascertain specific concerns related to their selected issue, and will present their plan in professional development format utilizing the tenets of the taught curriculum to class colleagues.

Assignment:

You [singular or plural] will identify a current/future curriculum issue and create a PD plan that serves as a guide for educators. Candidates may use a variety of information gathering methods including interviews with peers, administrators and/or central office personnel; you may also wish to obtain information from the text as well as curriculum guides. Prepare a 10 to 15 minute PD presentation that is designed to assist educators in their understanding of the curriculum issue and which utilizes the format of the Taught Curriculum.

Assignment #4: Design of Curriculum Framework
[Mini-Curriculum Group Project]
REQUIRED PERFORMANCE [Taskstream]

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this assignment is to demonstrate knowledge of program design in curriculum as evidenced in the creation of a model for emerging leaders in the field.

ASSIGNMENT:

In small groups design and construct the framework of a curriculum guide for aspiring educational leaders. The document is not to exceed 20 pages, including references that are written in APA style. Components to be included in the curriculum framework are listed in the directions below.

Group presentations of the curriculum framework will be scheduled for the last 2 class sessions and are limited to 20 minutes, including questions from your classmates. The presentation must include technology and provide a handout for the audience. A sample UBD mini-lesson should also be included.

DIRECTIONS:

- Come to a consensus on a philosophy and/or vision for your aspiring leader's program.
- Conduct Internet searches of other leadership programs across the nation (and world).
- Interview both seasoned and new administrators about what they believe beginning administrators needed for educational leaders.
- Be creative in your ideas about the different teaching methods that could help aspiring leaders learn, how they will be assessed, activities for learning, and locations where leadership development could occur.
- Check the web sites of educational organizations, the State Departments of Education, accrediting agencies to discover the requirements and suggested content and activities for leading-edge programs.
- Collect information and ideas about leadership development from other sources selected by your group.
- Synthesize those data that your group collects from various sources and make content and format decisions for your curriculum document. Select the essential knowledge, skills, and dispositions that your group members believe should be included in a curriculum for aspiring leaders. Then, construct a matrix to validate and support what your group considers "the right curriculum." Select one of the items on your matrix and use a modified "backward design" mini lesson plan to teach the item to aspiring leaders.

Your curriculum framework should include the following components:

1. a philosophy and/or vision for the aspiring leaders' program (group consensus)
2. a validation matrix with at least 4 to 6 sources (include ISLLC, NCATE, ELCC, VA DOE components)
3. a list of the critical knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed by aspiring leaders
4. a list of essential questions to guide the content of your curriculum framework
5. one mini lesson using the simplified backward design model

6. a reference page to document the sources used when collecting data and constructing the framework.
