COURSE DESCRIPTION: A comprehensive course addressing the day-to-day problems in the operation and management of recreation, health and tourism organizations. Discussion will include: management and leadership theories and techniques; problem solving and decision making; motivation; design and organizational structures; communications; and budgeting.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: At the completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Discuss management practices and principles developed and successfully used in business, industry and public agencies.
2. Discuss and be able to apply a behavioral approach to facilitating individual development within recreation, health, and tourism (RHT) organizations.
3. Identify problems affecting the management and operation of organizations and the delivery of recreation, health and tourism services.
4. Discuss the principles of organizing, allocating and managing organizational resources in order to provide equitable delivery of recreation, health, and tourism services.
5. Apply budgeting principles of organizing, allocating and managing operational budgets of RHT organizations.
6. Describe barriers to effective communications and strategies for communicating in a multicultural society.

REQUIRED TEXT: All notes and handouts will be provided by the instructor through the use of the Blackboard (CE6) Classroom.

1. Recommended Reading -
EVALUATION:

Requirements -
1. Assignments (10 @ 20 points each - 6 to be submitted online via blackboard or email, and 4 to be submitted in class)
2. Professional Dress/Conduct (up to 20 points)
3. Binder (5 points) - Description below
4. Midterm Exam (125 points) [Scheduled for Thursday, March 4th, 2010 (1:30—2:45 p.m.)]
5. Final Exam (150 points) [Scheduled for Thursday, May 6th, 2010 (1:30 p.m.—4:15 p.m.)]
6. Attendance (more than 2 unexcused absences will result in an F grade [regardless of evaluation points earned])

Exams and assignment deadlines are scheduled well in advance and should be given appropriate priority in your work plan. Exams will not be rescheduled for individuals and assignments will not be accepted after the announced due date.

NO CLASS DATES/CHANGE IN REGULAR CLASS SCHEDULE:
- Spring Break — Monday, March 8th thru Sunday, March 14th
- Group Work Days — Tuesday, March 16th and Thursday, March 18th
  * Group work to be announced in class prior to Spring Break

ASSIGNMENT BINDER: All assignments must be stored in a 1/2 inch, hard, "clear view", 3-ring binder. The binder should have an attractive cover and spine that clearly identifies its owner and the nature of its contents. The use of subject dividers is encouraged. Page protectors may be used, but only with work that has been evaluated and returned. Assignments will be posted on blackboard by the professor, and will be submitted by the student on blackboard. Once graded, it is the responsibility of the student to print out a “hard copy” of the assignment and place it in the required binder. Binders will be collected and reviewed by the professor twice over the semester - (1) October 15th, and (2) December 17th. (Binders will be returned during class/exam time)

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUATION ARE REQUIRED. Extreme or habitual tardiness will also be counted as absence or result in an 'F' Grade.

GRADING SCALE: The following semester point accumulation scale will be used by the instructor as a guide for determining the final grade:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:
1. Turn off all sound emitting devices before entering the classroom. This is an absolute requirement!
2. Make-up exams, assignments, other learning activities, or tutoring necessitated by absence from class will only be provided if the absence is excused. When tardiness or an absence is anticipated, it is the responsibility of the student to advise Ms. McLaughlin at a professionally appropriate time (preferably before, but no later than the scheduled end of the class period). However, notification alone does not necessarily excuse the absence. Further documentation should be offered and may be required.
3. The use of laptop computers during class time is to be restricted to PRLS 410 class activities (taking notes, etc.)
4. All students are held to the standards of the George Mason University Honor Code.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students having documentation on file with the Disability Support Services Office should bring this to the attention of the professor at the beginning of the semester.

STUDENT ATHLETES: Student athletes whose competition schedule requires absence from class must submit a copy of the schedule (provided by the Athletic Department) at the beginning of the semester.
