Participation and Attendance:

Attendance at class sessions is critical for a thorough understanding of course material. Class participation is based on engagement in class discussions, preparation with readings and assignments, and questions. Exams encompass readings, assignments, and discussions.

Critical Thinking Papers:

Please prepare three critical thinking papers for published articles on drug- or alcohol-related topics; papers may be on the same or different topics. The three papers should be from different sources, one for each paper: a professional journal (print version in the library), a newspaper/magazine, and a government or trade publication. Each paper should be one-page, single-spaced and include five sections, clearly identified with headings: (1) Title and Reference; (2) Summary Abstract; (3) Messages and Audiences; (4) Critique; and (5) Personal Reaction.

Alcohol 101 Plus Paper:

Using “Alcohol 101 Plus” [alcohol101plus.org], prepare a 3- to 4-page single-spaced paper that follows the general outline of the Critical Thinking Paper, yes focuses primarily on the critique. Also, add a section to identify clearly recommendations for improvement.

Community Support/Self-Help Group Meetings:

Attend two open support or self-help group meetings (e.g., AA, NA, ACOA, AlAnon or similar meetings) that you have not attended previously. Prepare a 4-6 page single-spaced paper that summarizes the following items, with particular attention to (c) and (d): (a) themes, attendees, location, publicity; (b) observations; (c) thoughts about what happened; (d) ways in which the meetings affected your feelings, and (e) questions or other observations.

Future Strategies Paper or Controversy Paper:

Prepare a 5-10 page single-spaced paper focused on future strategies or a current controversy with drugs/alcohol.

** Future Strategies Paper: Identify an area of need and prepare a paper that describes specific strategies that could be implemented to better address this need. Include the following elements in your paper: (a) The need – why this is a need or gap; clearly define the audience/group; (b) Current approach(es), and why they are not sufficient; (c) Recommended strategy/strategies – be creative and innovative; (d) Resources to implement the strategy; and (e) Challenges, obstacles and other considerations. Include references and sources.

** Controversy Paper: Address an issue/topic for which ‘sides’ clearly exist; it is recommended the topic chosen be reviewed prior to proceeding. The paper should include references and include the following sections: (a) Brief statement of the controversy; (b) Summary of why the issue is a controversy; (c) Discussion (elaboration of the sides of the controversy); (d) Implications (how decisions for each side will result in different outcomes); and (e) Recommendations (your resolution of the controversy).

Note: Papers are due on the scheduled date; those received late are subject to point reduction
