- The Writing Center (Optional Resource) – The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>].
- University Libraries (Optional Resource) – The George Mason University Libraries provide numerous services, research tools, and help with using the library resources [See <http://library.gmu.edu/>].
- Core Values Commitment: The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles.

The instructor reserves the right to adjust the syllabus and assignments as deemed necessary

General Information and Course Requirements:

1. The completion of all readings assigned for EDRD 619 is assumed. Because the class will be structured around discussion and small group activities pertaining to literacy in middle and high school classrooms, it is important that you keep up with the readings in order to participate in class.

Nature of Course Delivery: Class time will consist of lecture, discussion, reflection, investigation of literacy strategies and strategic activities, and video clips.

2. Class attendance is important. If, due to an emergency, you will not be in class, please contact the instructor in advance via email. Specific accommodations may be negotiated.

3. It is expected that assignments will be turned in on time. However, it is recognized that students may occasionally have serious circumstances arise that prevent the completion of work by the assigned due date. If such a dilemma arises, please speak to the instructor in advance. Points may be deducted for work that is turned in late.

Guidelines for Written Assignments

All written assignments prepared outside of class will be evaluated for content and presentation as Graduate-level writing. The American Psychological Association (APA) style will be followed for all written work. All written work unless otherwise noted must be completed on a word processor and should be proofread carefully. Please submit work in Times-New Roman, 12 pt. font.

When in doubt, check the APA manual 6th edition.

The University Writing Center (Robinson A114) 703-993-1200 is a free writing resource open to everyone involved in the George Mason community, including graduate students. The Writing Center offers individual, group, and online tutoring sessions in a comfortable, supportive atmosphere. GMU students may register for the On-Line Writing Lab (OWL), the distance arm of the Writing Center that allows students to submit papers electronically. Access to a writing tutor, plus assistance with writing, editing, and composition are available at <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu>.

Course Requirements for EDRD 619

Assignments	Percentage Value
Class Attendance and Participation	10
Position Paper	20
Weekly Responses	30
Strategy Lesson Project	40
TOTAL	100

- 1. Attendance and Participation (10 points): Attendance is critical and class time will provide opportunities to ask questions, hear others ideas, and deepen your understanding of the material.

Absences and tardies will impact a student's grade. Two tardies/early departures are equal to one absence. Each student is allowed one absence, no explanation required. For each session a student is absent beyond this one session, one point will be deducted up to a total of 15.

Class Participation Rubric

Excellent (9-10)	Competent (7-8)	Minimal (5-6)
Student regularly attends class and asks questions or makes observations that indicate reflections and analysis appropriate to the topic. Participates actively in small group activities and class discussions.	Regularly attends class and occasionally asks questions or makes observations that indicated reflections and analysis appropriate to the topic. Participates in small group activities and class discussions.	Misses more than three classes and rarely asks questions or makes comments that indicate familiarity with the topic. Does not actively participate in small groups and class discussions.

In class activities will build upon readings. Occasionally student products will be generated and used to document participation. There will be no opportunity to make up points awarded for student products generated during class time

- 2. Position Statement on Content-Specific Literacy (20 Points): Student will demonstrate an ability to synthesize theory, research and best practice from course readings, activities and assignments into a coherent philosophy of adolescent literacy as it relates to a specific content area. The final product should be a well- organized presentation of key points, support from theory and research and specific recommendations for the integration of literacy strategies into instruction. Students may use references from class readings but must also include at least one peer reviewed journal article specific to the content area. The following outline should be used in organizing the paper. More specific detail will be covered in class.
 - Status of Adolescent Literacy (Review statistics on adolescent literacy crises)
 - The importance of being Literate in _____ (Connect content literacy skills to real life literacy needs)

- Literacy and _____ (Identify specific literacy challenges your content presents.
 - Discussion: Reflect on the discipline challenges of your content and provide thoughtful suggestions on how you would address each. Reach enhancement decisions.
- 3. Weekly Responses: The class will be split into two groups. Each week, one half will produce and post questions generated from the weekly readings. These questions should be thoughtful and will be used to generate class discussion. The other half of the class will write a two-page single spaced reflection on the readings, which can lead from posted questions, from teaching experiences, or other readings you have encountered. The connection to the readings must be clear. For both questions and written responses you may choose to respond to one idea that runs across the readings, or to a series of ideas represented across the readings. These responses will be shared in small groups in the class and then used to facilitate whole class discussion. Responses should be emailed to the instructor by 6PM the day before class (Wednesday).

On week 8 of class your weekly response will be replaced by a strategy sharing. This assignment is generated from the 50 strategies book. Your small groups will split up the strategies in the book and each person will be responsible for reviewing 5 strategies and coming to class prepared to brief his/her group on those strategies. Further information on this assignment will be available on Blackboard as the date approaches.

- 4. Strategy Lessons: This assignment has three parts.

Part 1: You will work with a small group to generate two strategy lessons to use in your internship. Strategies selected must be research-based. You will develop a concrete lesson plan and execute that lesson. The lesson plan must include a literary element (i.e. newspaper article, textbook, book chapter). Students must be engaged in reading and using a designated strategy. You will collect student work samples.

Part 2: After discussion and sharing in your small group, write a 4-6 page double-spaced paper with the following sections: What I did (explains the strategy and your thoughts on the lesson development), How I did it (describes the lesson execution in the classroom), and What I learned (reflection on the lesson goals and what you would change or not change about this lesson).

Part 3: Your small group will present your work to the class. Please provide a one page summary of each strategy used to distribute to the class. (Bring enough copies for each class member!).

Grading Scale based on points earned for each assignment

A 95 - 100
 A- 90 - 94
 B+ 86 - 89
 B 80 - 85
 C 70 - 79
 F below 70%
