Enduring Understanding:

English Language Learners will accelerate their academic achievement in content and language acquisition when teachers are aware of and incorporate explicit best practices for these students in lesson planning, implementation, and review.

Essential Question:

What are the critical elements of sheltered instruction that accelerate the academic achievement of English Language Learners?

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Participants will receive training in a research-based model for effective language and content instruction for English Language Learners who are enrolled in ESOL/HILT or mainstream classes. Participants will apply and evaluate these best practices with their students.

COURSE PURPOSE AND INTENDED AUDIENCE:

The purpose of this course is to provide both ESOL/HILT and mainstream teachers with a framework for accelerating the academic achievement of English Language Learners through training that focuses on each component of effective instruction.

COURSE FORMAT:

Class sessions will highlight the various features of the SIOP (Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol) Model through facilitator presentations, class discussions and readings, and review of training videos; as well as, peer collaboration in curriculum development, lesson planning, and reviewing of lesson delivery. Written reflections are required for most sessions. Many assignments will involve reexamining and revisiting existing lesson plans, as well as creating new lessons incorporating the features of the SIOP. Participants will work with a partner to observe lessons and reflect on outcomes. They will also have an opportunity to audiotape and videotape each other for selected reflections.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Participants will know:

- the elements of the SIOP Model for effective instruction;
- the critical factors affecting second language acquisition;
- national, state and local standards for English Language Learners.

Participants will be able to:

- identify features of the SIOP Model in the training videos;
- plan and implement lessons incorporating features of the SIOP Model;
- evaluate the extent to which features of the SIOP Model are evident in their own teaching;
- utilize the SIOP Checklist to observe peer lessons and provide feedback on the extent to which the features were effectively implemented;
- evaluate the extent to which their participation in this training has affected their students' achievement.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS:

National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, Core Propositions

1. Teachers are committed to students and their learning.
2. Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.
3. Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring students' learning.
4. Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.
5. Teachers are members of learning communities.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

- ✓ Attendance and Class Participation: Required at all sessions, as the course relies heavily on peer collaboration and instructor modeling of the course content during each session. The course format emphasizes group work and discussions; therefore regular attendance, active participation and timely completion of all written assignments are expected and required of all participants.
- ✓ Peer Review/Collaboration: Participants will be required to work collaboratively with a colleague outside of class to develop lesson plans, observe live or videotaped lessons, and evaluate the lessons' effectiveness.
- ✓ Written Work:
 - 1) Written reflection prompts are assigned as formative assessments for most class sessions (7 required class reflections -- and 1 optional -- during the course.) Content of the reflections should be directly linked to class discussions, and related to course readings and the participant's teaching practice. These will be guided by a prompt provided by the instructors at each session.
 - Writing must be 1-2 typewritten pages (maximum) in length, 12-point font, and single-spaced with 1-inch margins.
 - Cite your sources. At the end of each reflection, in APA style, please list the source or sources that you used in your writing. Within the body of the writing, please cite internally any quotations that you use.
 - Place a heading on the upper left corner to include your name, the due date, "Written Reflection # ____", and the topic of the reflection. (See Summary of Course Session Topics, Readings, & Assignments below for specific due dates.)
 - 2) Teach It to Us: Participants are to select a teaching practice/activity or technique for activating prior knowledge, or for teaching or reinforcing oral language development, that you are already using (or have observed).

Written Component - In a 1- to 2-page paper include the following:

 - a summary of the technique
 - a brief description of the students
 - an explanation of how you differentiated for different levels of language proficiency and/or abilities
 - any other information you would like to include, such as how you learned about the strategy

Come prepared to explain your activity, and demonstrate if possible, to a small group. (Handouts for the class are optional.) Due: October 15, 2012
 - 3) Case Study: A case study is an in-depth study of something or someone. Your assignment is to choose two ELLs from your classes that you would like to know more about in order to better meet their needs. Carefully review their ESL information in their ESL files. Assess their progress in English language development, making specific reference to Cummins' model and "contextual factors" (factors that affect students' learning) as discussed in class and in the readings. Your paper should be a minimum of two pages and a maximum of four pages. Due: October 29, 2012

4) Article Review (in place of Reflection #8): Participants select an article (or one of the assigned/suggested supplemental readings) related to course content and write a 1- to 2-page review briefly summarizing the key content of the article and indicating:

- what you learned
- what information from the article validates your current instructional practices
- what surprises or is new to you
- how you can use the information in your teaching situation.

(Undergraduates: see criteria below.) Due: February 25, 2013

5) Group Lesson Plan Design and Presentation: (completed as an in-class assignment)

Participants will work in small grade-level groups to collaboratively design a lesson plan in the SIOP format. (Instructors will provide the template.) You will not be expected to teach this lesson. Each group will have up to 10 minutes to present highlights of the lesson to the class. (Only 1 copy of each plan will be submitted to the instructors. Handouts for the class are optional.) Due: February 4, 2013

6) Final Lesson Plan and Reflection:

- Write a lesson plan in the SIOP format incorporating all eight components.
- Teach the lesson. (If the lesson is a multi-session lesson, then teach one session. In your reflection, you'll need to include what came before and what will come after this session—i.e., tell how this session fits within the complete lesson.) Have a peer observe you, using the SIOP checklist, for 45 minutes or longer. The observer should include his/her annotated notes on the checklist.
- Write a 2-3 page reflection of the lesson. Include in your reflection: an analysis of the lesson's implementation, comments from the observer, and a self-assessment as evidence of learning in this course. That is to say, what are some things you did in this final lesson which demonstrates your growth as an educator? What affect has the SIOP training in this course had on your thinking and teaching?
- Your partner's annotated SIOP checklist of your lesson must be included in this final packet. Due: March 11, 2013

*Undergraduate Requirements (with permission of course instructors):

- Written reflection prompts (10 in total) -- 1 page in length
- Article review -- 1 page in length
- Case Study, Teach It to Us lesson, Group Lesson Plan, and Final Lesson Plan & Reflection:
See description/criteria above.

Grade Break Down:

- Class participation to include regular attendance and active engagement in cooperative activities: 15%
- Reflections/Article Review (8 total): 25%
- Case Study: 15%
- Teach It to Us Lesson: 5%
- Group Lesson Plan Design/Presentation: 15%
- Final Lesson Plan, SIOP Checklist and Reflection: 25%

GMU GRADING SCALE:

A = 94-100

A- = 90-93

B+ = 84-89

B = 80-83

C = 70-79

F = <70

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT STATEMENT OF EXPECTATIONS:

The Graduate School of Education (GSE) expects that all students abide by the following:

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/>].
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See <http://ods.gmu.edu/>].
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/1301gen.html>].
- Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
- Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to attend all class periods of courses for which they register. In-class participation is important not only to the individual student, but to the class as a whole. Class participation is a factor in grading; instructors may use absence, tardiness, or early departure as de facto evidence of non-participation and as a result lower the grade as stated in the course syllabus. (Mason catalog)

Honor Code:

To promote a stronger sense of mutual responsibility, respect, trust, and fairness among all members of the George Mason University community and with the desire for greater academic and personal achievement, we, the student members of the university community, have set forth this honor code: Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, or lie in matters related to academic work. (Mason catalog)

Course Withdrawal with Dean Approval:

For graduate and non-degree students, withdrawal after the last day for dropping a course requires approval by the student's academic dean, and is permitted only for nonacademic reasons that prevent course completion. (Mason catalog)

~ GMU Course Withdrawal Deadline: Inform GMU through your course instructors of course withdrawal before Monday, October 29. ~
