PREREQUISITES

The course PRLS 310 is the prerequisite for HEAL 323 and not a co-requisite. If you have registered for both PRLS 310 and HEAL 323 for the current semester, you must take PRLS 310 first, and take HEAL 323 the following semester as it will be offered next semester. The two courses are meant to build upon each other. The School of Recreation, Health, and Tourism strictly adheres to this policy.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Covers leadership and evaluation of health, fitness, and recreation programs. Uses computer technology to study evaluative aspects of program planning and administration.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course students should be able to:

1. Complete a plan and design for a health, fitness or recreation program
2. Determine schedules for health, fitness or recreation programs
3. Create promotional materials for programs
4. Set up and analyze a budget and determine pricing for programs
5. Implement programs, including appropriate qualitative and quantitative evaluation
6. Critically analyze your own and other programs
7. Demonstrate effective leadership and group processing skills

COURSE OVERVIEW

This course will focus on leadership, implementation, and evaluation techniques among health education, fitness, sport management, tourism, and recreation programs. Course will cover various program evaluation and leadership topics. Students will learn basic program evaluation skills as well as have the opportunity to exercise learned leadership skills.

Students are held to the standards of the George Mason University Honor Code. Students are expected to attend all class sections, actively participate in class discussions, and fulfill all assignments. Participation is 10% of grade. Assignments must be turned in at the beginning of class on the specified date due or no credit will be given. Students must take all four exams. In order to have examination rescheduled, students must provide appropriate documentation i.e. GMU athletic competition, illness, etc.

Assess Yourself

Go to <http://careers.gmu.edu/movingon/document.pdf> to find the Moving On – A Guide to Career Planning and Job Search PDF file. Go to page 6 – 8 of the PDF file, to find the “Know Yourself Exercises, Exercise 3: Skills.” Complete the exercise for yourself. Then create a Word document to answer these questions:

1. Using each of the three CATEGORIES OF SKILLS displayed below (Functional, Content, Self-management), make a list of the skills you have now.
2. Using each of the three CATEGORIES OF SKILLS, make a list of the skills you hope to develop before searching for a job in your chosen field.
3. Then finish the assignment on page 8 of the PDF, under the section, NOW WHAT? Write your paragraph, as described in that section.
4. Then answer this question, “What skills do I possess which would help me in a group work situation?” Submit a paper copy and an electronic copy of your two lists of skills, your paragraph from question 3 and your reply to question #4.

Leadership Project

This project allow for an opportunity to practice decision making as well as applying knowledge to real world situations. In teams of no more than 4 members, students will be asked to evaluate a program chosen from previous PRLS 310 course and present it to the class as the leader of that project or organization. This will complete the management portion of the project from PRLS 310. In your presentation, please provide the class with an overview of the case assigned and answer the following questions:

- What are the directions for leader(s) of this activity program when implementing it to the real world? Meaning, present the script the leader(s) should follow when implementing this activity program in the real world. In your script, you have to include time, location, equipment and supplies requirements.
- What is the leadership style that will be used in your proposal?
- What is the purpose of the activity program? What is its goal? What is at least one objective?
- Who is the intended target group? What is the minimum and maximum number of intended participants for this activity?
- What is the description of the activity within the program? In your description please indicate if it is: self directed/noncompetitive; clubs/groups; drop-in; competition/leagues and tournaments; special events; skill development; instructional, risk assessment/reduction, travel, or other. What is the theory upon which the activity is based?

- What decisions need to be made? What are the decision maker's objectives? What are the considerations for communication, diversity, values and ethics? How will the program be implemented?
- What are the key issues at stake? What must be resolved? What would I do? Why?
- How is formative/process evaluation performed on this activity program? How is summative (impact and outcome) evaluation performed on this activity program? Please either insert or attach your evaluation form.

In addition to the report, student must create a 4 - 5 question evaluation for the program or activity. Evaluations must be completed by program participants; data collected from survey will be used for the Evaluation Project.

To complete this assignment the team of students must: 1) Implement the activity program to class. During or after implementation, the team has to use its evaluation form to evaluate the how well the program was implemented (formative) and its outcomes (summative). That means each member of the team has to play an active role in the implementation/evaluation of the activity program to class. 2) Submit one report (representing the entire team) containing responses to the above guidelines. The report must also include the evaluative results of the implemented activity program. Meaning, the team has to collect evaluative data using the evaluation form, calculate results and include the results in their report (this will be included in the evaluation portion of the project at the end of the semester). 3) Present the project in class through a 20-30 minute presentation.

Groups should submit their presentation to the instructor at the beginning of class. Each students is expected to turn in a one page paper describing their experience working in the group and outlining any challenges faced and how the group overcame those challenges.

Evaluation Project

Based on the evaluations collected from your Leadership Project, students are asked to analyze and tabulate data from surveys. You will answer the question: What are the evaluative results of your implemented activity program? Students will provide totals, averages and analyze non numerical data. Students will use tables for quantitative analysis. In a separate document, students will provide written recommendations based on their analysis of survey responses. The paper should be 2 pages, typed, double-spaced, using a Times New Roman 12 font.

Case Study

You need to perform 8 hours of observation/assistance to an on/off-campus organization that provides a program service related to leisure/recreation, health/fitness, sports/athletics, or tourism/special events. You will observe and assist in the leadership and/or evaluation of the program/event offered by the organization. Your observation/assistance involves 8 hours during the semester and includes some element of leadership such as researching, planning, implementing, and evaluating a program/event. Your observation/assistance hours will be verified by the on-campus or off-campus organization. The paper should include the following:

- What is the name of the sponsoring organization and where is it located? Also, include the name of your supervisor and his/her email address.
- Please provide a description of the program/event in which you assisted.
- Who was the target audience of the program/event?
- How was the program/event evaluated?
- Was the program/event successful in meeting its objectives?
- What suggestions do you have for improving the program/event?

The paper should be 3 pages, typed, double-spaced, using a Times New Roman 12 font.

Class Participation and quizzes

You are expected to come to each class well prepared and ready to contribute to the topic of the day! All reading should be completed by the start of class on the day for which an assignment is due. Class participation constitutes 10 points of your final grade. Text readings, guest speakers throughout the semester, and in-class assignments will serve as the basis for class discussion and participation. Your responses, comments, and general contributions will be the primary criteria for evaluation, but attentiveness in class will also be taken into consideration. Instructor reserves the right to administer pop quizzes during the semester.
