Co-Requisite: 15 hours school-based clinical field experience

Course Description:

EDCI 567 is a face-to-face course designed to help pre-service teachers develop a repertoire of history/social studies teaching methods to meet the changing requirements in today's atmosphere of increasing accountability. Course content will focus on elements of historical thinking, higher-order thinking skills in social studies, standards-based instruction with an emphasis on backwards planning for instructional lessons, authentic assessment, interdisciplinary curriculum, models of instructional strategies including reading and writing strategies, and instruction for diverse populations. The course focuses on research-based instructional strategies in social studies teaching and learning and meeting the diverse needs of learners as called for by the Standards of Learning for Virginia Public Schools and National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies and as outlined by the Commonwealth of Virginia, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), the National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS), and the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC). Course topics will include pedagogical methods for social studies in the 21st century, the development of an effective learning environment and addressing current issues facing the secondary history/social studies teachers.

Course Objectives:

After completing EDCI 567, candidates will be able to:

- Evaluate past and contemporary social studies instructional practice including constructivist and behaviorist methodology, historical thinking tenets and practice to encourage civic-mindedness; COLLABORATION, SOCIAL JUSTICE, RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE, NCSS Themes II, IX, X, INTASC Standard I
- Use backward planning to develop a lesson plan that includes a broad range of instructional strategies focused on National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) Themes: RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE, INNOVATION, SOCIAL JUSTICE; NCSS Theme VII, INTASC Standards I, II, II, IV, VII
- Develop assessments and rubrics linked to national, state and teacher-developed standards: RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE; NCSS Theme VII, INTASC Standards I, II, VIII
- Apply planning and instructional strategies designed to meet the needs of a diverse student population including gender equity, cultural diversity, English language learners, gifted/talented students, and students with learning, physical, social, and emotional challenges: RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE; SOCIAL JUSTICE; ETHICAL LEADERSHIP; NCSS Theme I, INTASC Standards II, III
- Help students access and analyze information from a variety of sources and apply effective instructional models to foster meaningful learning in social studies from that information; COLLABORATION, SOCIAL JUSTICE, RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE; NCSS Theme II, VI, VIII, IX; INTASC Standards I, IV, VI
- Evaluate examples of learning environments and develop a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation; COLLABORATION, SOCIAL JUSTICE, RESEARCH-BASED PRACTICE, ETHICAL LEADERSHIP; INTASC Standard V

The Graduate School of Education (GSE) expects that all students abide by the following:

A. Dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behavior and dispositions. See gse.gmu.edu for a listing of these dispositions. The Virginia Department of Education and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education promote standards of professional competence and dispositions. Dispositions are values, commitments, and professional ethics that influence behaviors toward students, families, colleagues, and all members of the learning community. The Graduate School of Education expects students, faculty, and staff to exhibit professional dispositions through a:

Commitment to the profession

- Promoting exemplary practice
- Excellence in teaching and learning
- Advancing the profession
- Engagement in partnerships

Commitment to honoring professional ethical standards

- Fairness

- Honesty
- Integrity
- Trustworthiness
- Confidentiality
- Respect for colleagues and students

Commitment to key elements of professional practice

- Belief that all individuals have the potential for growth and learning
- Persistence in helping individuals succeed
- High standards
- Safe and supportive learning environments
- Systematic planning
- Intrinsic motivation
- Reciprocal, active learning
- Continuous, integrated assessment
- Critical thinking
- Thoughtful, responsive listening
- Active, supportive interactions
- Technology-supported learning
- Research-based practice
- Respect for diverse talents, abilities, and perspectives

Authentic and relevant learning

Commitment to being a member of a learning community

- Professional dialogue
- Self-improvement
- Collective improvement
- Reflective practice
- Responsibility
- Flexibility
- Collaboration
- Continuous, lifelong learning

Commitment to democratic values and social justice

- Understanding systemic issues that prevent full participation
- Awareness of practices that sustain unequal treatment or unequal voice
- Advocate for practices that promote equity and access
- Respects the opinion and dignity of others
- Sensitive to community and cultural norms
- Appreciates and integrates multiple perspectives

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT STATEMENT OF EXPECTATIONS:

All students must abide by the following:

- Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times. Students are expected to exhibit professional behavior and dispositions. See <http://gse.gmu.edu/facultystaffres/profdisp.htm> for a listing of these dispositions. Students must follow the guidelines of the University Honor Code. See <http://oai.gmu.edu/honor-code/> for the full honor code

Please note that:

Plagiarism encompasses the following:

- Presenting as one's own the words, the work, or the opinions of someone else without proper acknowledgment
- Borrowing the sequence of ideas, the arrangement of material, or the pattern of thought of someone else without proper acknowledgment." (from Mason Honor Code online at <http://mason.gmu.edu/~montecin/plagiarism.htm>)
- Paraphrasing involves taking someone else's ideas and putting them in your own words. When you paraphrase, you need to cite the source using APA format. When material is copied word for word from a source, it is a direct quotation. You must use quotation marks (or block indent the text) and cite the source.
- Electronic tools (e.g., SafeAssign) may be used to detect plagiarism if necessary.
- Plagiarism and other forms of academic misconduct are treated seriously and may result in disciplinary actions.

George Mason University Policies and Resources for Students

- Academic integrity (honor code, plagiarism) – Students must adhere to guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/>].
- Mason Email – Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, division, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/1301ge.html>].
- Counseling and Psychological Services – The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops, and outreach programs) to enhance students' personal experience and academic performance [See <http://caps.gmu.edu/>].
- Office of Disability Services – Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor in writing at the beginning of the semester <http://ods.gmu.edu/>].
- Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
  - The Writing Center (Optional Resource) – The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>].
- University Libraries (Optional Resource) – The George Mason University Libraries provide numerous services, research tools, and help with using the library resources [See <http://library.gmu.edu/>].

Required Texts and Resources

- ◆ Instructional Strategies for Middle and Secondary Social Studies: Methods, Assessment and Classroom Management, by Bruce E. Larson and Timothy A. Keiper. Routledge Press (2011) (ISBN 978-0-415-87706-0)

*Additional readings will be also given throughout the semester on topics of discussion.

Course Assessments and Requirements:

- Fifteen hours of field experience are required.
- As a person going into a profession with multiple demands and time requirements, it is expected that you will fulfill their classroom responsibilities in a professional and timely manner.
- Late work, late arrival to class, early departure from class, and absences from class will affect your grade significantly.
- All submitted assignments must follow APA (6th edition) formatting. Short of purchasing the current APA Publication Manual, you may also find various online resources to assist you in appropriate formatting (see Perdue University OWL website: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>)
- Assignments are submitted via the course Blackboard website. Please be sure you have login access and an understanding of how to properly submit assignments.
- Blackboard log-in found at <http://mymason.gmu.edu> (user name and password same as GMU email)
  - Once you are logged-in, you can navigate to assignments, mail and so on from the toolbar located on the left side of the page. The homepage includes syllabus, student resources and class notes (uploaded as topics are discussed)

TASKSTREAM REQUIREMENTS

Every student registered for any Secondary Education course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment to TaskStream (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a onetime course or part of an undergraduate minor). In this course, the performance-based assessment is the Lesson Plan. Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

Specific Assignments:

- 30%-Three Reflection Papers (10% each): Each reflection paper should be no more than three (3) pages in length and cover the following topics:
1. Thinking History-Read the monograph by Dr. Stearns, and Chapter one in Larson and Keiper's Instructional Strategies for Middle and Secondary Social Studies synthesize the information presented and write an essay reflecting the impact this work may have on you as a classroom teacher in history/social studies. Be sure to include specific ways that the authors' assertions might affect your instruction.
  2. Review of The Center for History and New Media, TeachingHistory.org and other effective social studies websites (of your choosing) to find artifacts, ideas and strategies you might use in your instruction. In this review, you will include the national (NCSS) and state (SOL) standard(s) and objective(s) that the artifacts from website meets. Describe the specific sections of the website that you would use and how you would incorporate them into your instruction. Be as specific as possible while adhering to the three-page assignment limit (appendices including screen shots are welcome and do not count toward page limit).
  3. Holocaust Memorial Museum workshop: In this paper you will reflect on your experience at the Holocaust Memorial Museum workshop, consider what you learned about teaching controversial issues, emotional events, and the extent to which you believe it is important for secondary students to learn about the Holocaust and the topic of genocide. Also include some activities you learned about or developed as a result of the workshop.

- 10% Jig Saw Presentation Activity: For this assignment, you will be assigned one of the four books listed above. You, and those also assigned that particular book, will form a(n) (expert) group to discuss the content of the book and share your findings to the rest of the class. Beginning about week five, each of the four groups will have up to one hour (45 minutes minimum) to present the theme(s), author's thesis and implications for practice to your course-mates. You have much leeway in terms of how you choose to present your findings, and are encouraged to find creative ways to do so. You will be assessed on your group's ability to synthesize the author's assertions (themes and thesis), present authentic classroom implications for the ideas presented therein, and the general cohesiveness, creativity and potency of your presentation. The rubric for this presentation can be found on our course Blackboard website.
- 10% Instructional Strategies Group Project/Debate: For this assignment, you will work with a group to research and support one basic instructional strategy. On the due date of this assignment, your group will present its findings and advocate for your instructional strategy as viable and effective for use in secondary social studies classrooms. Additionally, focus on assessment strategies most common with this type of instructional style and any special pedagogical and content-related skills needed to teach in this way. The following instructional strategies will be topics for investigation:
  - Direct Instruction
  - Cooperative Learning
  - Inquiry-Based Instruction
- 35%–Lesson Plan (Lesson Plan (20%), Presentation (5%) /Lesson Plan Reflection Paper (10%) This one class period (90 minute) lesson will focus on NCSS Theme VII, Production, Consumption and Distribution. The lesson must include the format reviewed in class and must address the elements of the lesson plan rubric. This lesson must include classroom activities described in detail with fully developed assessments and rubrics. In addition to adhering to all of the elements found within the lesson plan rubric found on the Blackboard course website, the candidate should also be prepared to:
  - ◆ share with the class a 10 minute summary presentation/sample activity of your lesson (5%)
  - ◆ distribute a brief summary handout of your lesson to each class member
  - ◆ complete the Lesson Plan Reflection Paper: (no more than two (2) pages). Your task is to reflect upon your lesson plan after you have developed and reviewed it with your course-mates. In your reflection, consider the effectiveness of your lesson in terms of your content knowledge, active learning strategies and assessment strategies. Identify elements of instruction and planning you have learned and areas you feel are in need of further development. (10%)

Please review the Lesson Plan Rubric found on the Blackboard course website for assessment details.

- 10%-Field experience documentation—For this class, you are required to spend at least fifteen hours observing classroom teachers. You should focus your observations on classroom management and presentation of content. (Schedule your observations early!). The expectation is that you will observe several different teachers during your experience if at all possible. For this assignment, you will submit the appropriate documentation related to your experience. See appendices to this syllabus for details

- 5%-Effective Learning Environment/Classroom management plan – Your effective learning environment/classroom management plan is an activity to foster consideration about how you intend to handle rules and procedures in your classroom. As such, your management plan should include the following information:
  - ◆ the physical layout of the room
  - ◆ what a person will see when he or she walks into your room
  - ◆ how you will handle absences, late work, and make-up work
  - ◆ what your grading policy is and how you will manage it
  - ◆ what your discipline policy is (complete with classroom rules intended for display)
  - ◆ how you will handle student communication
  - ◆ how you will handle parent communication

Grading Scale:

A = 94-100 points

A- = 90-93 points

B+ = 87-89 points

B = 83-86 points

B- = 80-82 points

<80 points: unsatisfactory

Field Experience Hours/Activities Log

Deliver this log to your mentor teacher on the 1st day of your field experience. Your mentor will keep the log and daily track dates, activities, and hours. You must complete a minimum of 15 hours of field experience, all of which must involve classroom observations and may involve interactions with individual students and small and large groups of students. Hours will ideally begin prior to mid-semester, and observations should be spread across approximately 5 sessions, with no single session lasting longer than 4 hours. Submit this signed log at the end of the course to Dr. Pellegrino.

Field Experience Guidelines

The following suggested field experience activities are designed to help you prepare for completing your Critical Incidents Reflection Form where you will be expected to analyze teaching styles and classroom management preferences.

- 1) Observe a discussion session for the kinds of student participation that occur. How often are students asked to participate in divergent thinking? How often are students asked to participate in convergent thinking?
- 2) Observe teaching techniques to determine which ones involve students in convergent thinking and which ones involve students in divergent thinking activities.
- 3) Observe a lesson and determine how many academic disciplines the teacher has decided to use in that lesson. How are these various disciplines integrated?
- 4) Observe a “discovery” lesson to determine the nature of the investigation and its outcome.
- 5) Observe an “inquiry” lesson to determine the nature of the investigation and its outcome.
- 6) Observe a lesson in which individualization of instruction is a major focus. How does the instructor plan for helping students at different skill levels improve their expertise?
- 7) Talk with the cooperating teacher about the kinds of controversial issues which his/her students may be studying. Ask permission to observe a session in which a controversial issue is being examined so that you can determine what the issue is and its resolution(s).
- 8) Talk with the cooperating teacher to find out which method(s) he/she prefers to use and why: “discovery,” “inquiry,” problem-solving discussion, simulations, lectures, directed reading of primary sources, directed reading of secondary sources, “practice” exercises, learning centers, cooperative learning, individual research, group research/labs, activities using software and/or the internet, etc.
- 9) Observe rules and procedures to determine potential preferences for relationship/listening, confronting/contracting, or rules/consequences approaches to classroom management.

Notes: Please be sure to speak with your mentor teacher before you engage with individual or small groups of students in particular activities related to our class. All proper names should be omitted from your reflections and other documentation shared with our class.

Dear educator:

My name is Linda Mann, I am an adjunct professor at George Mason University, and I write as the instructor for EDCI 567, "Teaching History/ Social Studies in Secondary Schools." This course is taken by future secondary (grades 6-12) teachers, and as a part of the course students are required to complete 15 hours of field experience in grades 6-12. Specifically, students are required to work with you and students in a school setting at a grade level/subject area of their choice. You have been identified as a teacher in a school where the Mason student bearing this letter might complete these 15 hours of field experience. With this letter I hope to provide some information about the expectations for you and this Mason student, and invite you to work with this future teacher.

EDCI 567 focuses on the philosophical assumptions, curriculum issues, learning theories, current educational trends/issues, and history associated with the teaching of history/ social studies in secondary schools. For most of the Mason students in this course, this is one of their first education courses and their first focusing on methods instruction. Thus, they will likely have widely varying levels of experience working with adolescents and young adults. Our expectations for this field experience includes the following:

- Mason students will complete a minimum of 15 hours of tutoring, observation, and general interaction with students in your classroom
- These 15 hours will ideally involve interaction with adolescents and young adults, with direct and indirect supervision by you or another licensed teacher
- The goal of this experience is for the Mason student to become familiar with the general day-to-day efforts of youth and teachers in secondary settings, including learning styles, curricula, teaching strategies, teaching and learning challenges, management strategies related to history/social studies instruction.
- In addition, the Mason student might observe your classroom instruction, work with an individual or small group of students, work with an individual student or small groups on assignments or projects, check papers or tests, and so on. The level of interaction is left up to you, the classroom teacher.

Please contact me with any questions you might have about this experience and also complete the agreement page attached to this letter. And thank you for your support of this Mason student and her/his development as a future teacher.

Sincerely,
Linda J. Mann, PhD candidate Education Policy,

Complete Lesson Plan

Student Name: _____ Grade Level: _____

Title of Class: _____ Class Level: _____

I. Objectives

- State what students will know and be able to do as a result of this lesson.
  - Include cognitive and affective objectives

II. Standards

- List national theme(s) covered in the lesson
  - NCSS Theme 7: Production, Distribution, and Consumption
- List state standards covered in the lesson

III. Resources and Materials

- List the texts, equipment, resources, and other materials to be used by the students, including primary source materials and artifacts.
- List the materials, including equipment or tools, used by the teacher in presenting the lesson. Notes about assembling materials, contacting outside guests, or locating additional resources are included.
- Include all relevant supporting materials and student handouts.

IV. Learning Activities

- Activities include introduction, strategies/procedures and closure.
  - Introduction – Procedures for activating prior knowledge and student interest.
  - Instructional strategies/Procedures – What the teachers and students will do.
  - Closure – Describe how the lesson will close.
- Give estimated time for each phase of the experience (introduction, instruction, closure).

V. Assessment

- The procedures and criteria that will be used to assess each of the stated objectives.
- Attach copies of any written assessments (tests, quizzes, homework, rubrics).

VI. Rationale for the Lesson: Describe how you have done the following:

- Technology integration
- Inherent interdisciplinary nature of the plan
- Describe extensions or connections to other lessons.
- Differentiation
  - List adaptations that will be made for individual learners (gifted and students with special needs).
  - Include multiple learning modes and accessible to students with different learning strengths.
- Developmentally Appropriate
  - Objectives and activities are appropriate for the intended grade level.
