COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A. Prerequisites/Corequisites
Admission into the M.Ed. with a concentration in English as a Second Language PK-12 (CISL) or permission of the instructor.

B. University Catalog Course Description:
“Examines language as a system, with particular focus on teaching English as a second language (ESOL) to students in public schools, grades PreK-12. Considers teaching implications of phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics.”

Expanded Course Description:

This graduate course provides an introduction to language as a system, with a particular focus on teaching English as a second language to students in public schools, Grades Pre K-12. Among the topics addressed are: English phonology, morphology, lexicon, syntax, pragmatics and semantics. Using a discourse approach, we will connect the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing) in teaching content-specific language (math, science, and social studies). In addition, ESOL teacher candidates will be introduced to major grammatical structures that pose difficulty for English language learners, including verb formation and verb tenses, modals and auxiliary verbs, phrasal verbs, articles, reference and possession, mass and count nouns, prepositions, conditionals, and relative clause formation. Candidates will employ frameworks, strategies and activities to raise intercultural and critical language awareness and incorporate additive approaches to the teaching of English to build upon home heritage languages of students in multilingual, multicultural schools and communities.

LEARNER OUTCOMES or OBJECTIVES:

This course is designed to enable students to:

1. Describe language and its components (phonology, morphology, lexicon, syntax, pragmatics and semantics);

2. Examine implications of phonology, morphology, and syntax for teaching PreK-12 ESOL students;

3. Use knowledge of linguistics to connect and integrate the teaching of the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing);

4. Identify errors that are developmental, meaningful, and systematic and plan appropriate instructional activities.

4. Use knowledge of how languages are similar and different to analyze linguistic difficulties for ELLs in comprehending written text used in math, science or social studies and to make instructional recommendations;

6. Use knowledge of rhetorical and discourse structures and readability formulas to analyze text structures in textbooks and academic conventions, such as headings, glossary, and tables to assist in reading comprehension, study skills and academic content knowledge;

7. Analyze a content-area reading passage and make specific recommendations for activities and strategies to address specific difficulties that students may encounter in the text;

8. Identify background and culturally-based knowledge needed to comprehend a content-area reading text; and

9. Analyze a content-area reading passage to identify elements of cultural bias or racial or cultural stereotyping.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS: Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages International (TESOL)

This course meets the linguistics requirement for Virginia Licensure in ESL and Standards 1.a. and 2 of the TESOL Professional Standards for Teacher Preparation programs.

Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

National Council of Accreditation for Teacher Education (NCATE)
Professional Standards for ESL PreK-12 Teacher Licensure (2009)

DOMAIN 1: LANGUAGE
Candidates know, understand, and use the major theories and research related to the structure and acquisition of language to help English language learners (ELLs) develop language and literacy and achieve in the content areas.

Standard 1.a. Language as a System
Candidates demonstrate understanding of language as a system, including phonology, morphology, syntax, pragmatics and semantics, and support ELLs as they acquire English language and literacy in order to achieve in the content areas.

This course fulfills the English Linguistics requirement for Virginia Licensure in ESL and NCATE/TESOL Standards for Teacher Preparation programs.

Performance Indicators from the TESOL Standards 1.a include:

1.a.1. Demonstrates knowledge of the components of language and language as an integrative system.
1.a.2. Applies knowledge of phonology (the sound system), morphology (the structure of words), syntax (phrase and sentence structure), semantics (word/sentence meaning) and pragmatics (the effect of context on language) to help ELLs develop oral, reading, and writing skills in English (including mechanics) in English.
1.a.3. Demonstrates knowledge of rhetorical and discourse structures as applied to ESOL learning.
1.a.4. Demonstrates proficiency in English and serves as a good language model for ELLs.

Performance Indicators from the TESOL Standards for Standard 2. include:

2.b. Understands and applies knowledge about the effects of racism, stereotyping, and discrimination to teaching and learning.
2.e. Understands and applies concepts about the interrelationship between language and culture.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND EXAMINATIONS:

Course Requirements

1. Class participation and homework assignments: Read chapters and complete assigned exercises from the text; share resources, participation in discussions based on readings, problem solving activities and responding to student writing

2. Midterm (15%) Final (25%) (40%)

3. Teaching demonstrations: What is the grammar point/topic?
   1) Why is it difficult for ESL/EFL learners? (Provide examples from student writing)
   2) Show us some activities or exercises (realia, multi-media, meaningful and thematic /content based)
   3) Look at the way that various grammar reference books and textbooks handle the topic. Provide an annotated bibliography and critique of what you found

4. Final group project (Textbook analysis)

   Total: (100%)

Assignment Descriptions:

TEACHING DEMONSTRATION

Purpose

To examine implications of English linguistics to the teaching of English as a second or additional language for students in PreK-12 settings.

Tasks

Do a teaching demonstration that shows implications of linguistics for teaching English phonology, morphology, or syntax to students at a beginning or intermediate level of English proficiency in Grades PreK-3, 4-6, 7-9, or 10-12.

1. Each candidate will do one teaching demonstration. Prepare a 2-3-page handout for the class. Each presentation should answer the following questions:

   (A) What is the syllabus topic you are demonstrating? Address the appropriateness of your selected topic for your target population.

   (B) What are the implications for teaching English language learners? Describe level of challenge, learning difficulty.

   (C) How can we contextualize the teaching of language using grade-level textbooks and/or literature?

Demonstrate either (a) a simulation of one or more teaching activities for your topic, using us as your class or (b) a description of one or more teaching activities that address the learning difficulty. Use LCD projector, transparencies or charts and hands-on materials.
Provide an annotated bibliography of at least 3 references (teacher reference, online resources, grammar books for students) that address your topic. Individual presenters will have 15 minutes to present your demonstration to the class if you are the sole presenter, 20-25 minutes total for multiple presenters.

TEXT ANALYSIS PROJECT

Purpose: To show that you can apply principles of English linguistics to analysis of a grade-level textbook required for use in Grades 3-5, 6-9, or 10-12.

Objectives
This assessment task requires that graduate students:

1. Conduct a field experience in an elementary or secondary ESL classroom. Make contact with an ESL or grade-level teacher and arrange to meet with her in order to identify a textbook for review. Spend a minimum of 3 hours in the classroom interviewing the teacher and reviewing the content-area textbooks she presents as being challenging to ESL students.

2. Select a content-area textbook currently used in grade-level classrooms by observing ESL students in these classrooms and interviewing teachers to help identify challenging textbooks used to teach math, science or social studies.

3. Identify a reading passage in the selected content area textbook (such as Social Studies) and analyze it using the Fry Readability Formula and other readability formulas and apply knowledge of rhetorical and discourse structures to support ESOL learning and to help students increase their comprehension of the text.

4. Demonstrate knowledge of language as a system by analyzing the reading passage with respect to multiple components of the language system that may cause difficulty for English Language Learners including: phonology (the sound system), morphology (the structure of words), syntax (phrase and sentence structure), semantics (word/sentence meaning), and pragmatics (the effect of context on language) to help ELLs develop oral, reading, and writing skills (including mechanics) in English.

5. Recommend specific instructional activities to help students meet the linguistic demands in the categories of phonology, morphology, syntax and rhetorical or discourse structures to help students increase their comprehension of the text.

6. Identify background knowledge that is necessary to comprehend the text and cross-cultural issues that may make the textbook challenging to English Language Learners and develop instructional activities that activate prior knowledge and support students’ home language and culture.

7. Examine textbook bias, stereotyping and discrimination with respect to gender, race and ethnicity and make suggestions so that instruction can be more culturally inclusive of learners from diverse linguistic, cultural and educational backgrounds.

Task: Review a mathematics, science, or social studies textbook or historical fiction used in a specific grade level. Determine patterns of linguistic difficulty of selected pages from the textbook for students learning English as a second language. For teachers of Grades PreK-3, use a story or content text appropriate to the grade. Recommend specific instructional activities to help students meet the linguistic demands in the categories of phonology, morphology, syntax and rhetorical and discourse structures. Use the Text Analysis Form and submit it as part of your paper:

Part 1: Phonology (sound/symbol correspondence)

- A. Orthography
- C. Varied pronunciation of same letter or letter combination
- D. Phonological differences between L1 & L2
- E. Dialect issues and varieties of English, including World Englishes

Part 2: Morphology and Lexicon

- A. Cognates, false cognates
- B. Homonyms
- C. Affixes and roots
- D. Word analysis skills needed
- E. Denotations & connotations & cultural assumptions
- F. Content Specific Vocabulary
- G. Idiomatic Expressions

Part 4: Rhetorical and discourse structures

- A. Discourse connectors
- B. Cohesive devices
- C. Interpreting pro-forms
- D. Reference (between sentences)
- E. Recognizing elliptical expressions
- F. Discourse markers signaling sequence of events
- G. Discourse markers signaling discourse organization (sequencing, re-expressing, specifying, referring, restating, exemplifying, summarizing, focusing)
- H. Textbook conventions (i.e. tables of contents, subtitles, headings, figures, tables, diagrams, bibliographical references, notes, appendices, lists of symbols, glossaries)

Part 5: Prior Knowledge, Meaning & Context

- A. Concepts requiring pre-teaching
B. Genre and text structures specific to content area (i.e. math word problems; science lab reports)
C. Discourse Markers that signal writer’s point of view, argumentation
D. Recognizing pre-suppositions of the text
E. Culturally based assumptions/cultural bias
F. Students’ home languages and cultures

Part 6: Cultural diversity, critical thinking and academic achievement

A. Critical discourse analysis: identifying racism, stereotypes, bias and discrimination

B. Inclusion of home languages and cultures of students in learning

C. Identification of multilingual multicultural resources (i.e. anti-bias curriculum, gender fair)

1. Identify an in-service teacher in this course or in a public school (ideally, Grades 3, 6 or 10). Spend a minimum of 3 hours in her/his classroom asking her/him about content-area textbooks that pose linguistic challenges for ELLs and reviewing these textbooks in the classroom or in the school. This assessment requires that pre-service teachers work with in-service teachers or colleagues to identify textbooks actually in use in grade-level classrooms and the challenges that ESL students face in meeting content based standards.

2. Describe the institutional context of the school including a description of the language backgrounds of the students in the classroom and countries of origin and description of the challenges that ESL students face in literacy achievement, including poverty and interrupted schooling.

3. Select a mathematics, science, or social studies textbook used in the classroom identified. For example, teachers of Grades PreK-3 may use a story or content text appropriate to the age and grade level. From within the textbook selected, identify a short reading passage of approximately 500 words. Using the reading passage selected, determine readability levels using one or more readability formulas at the links below. The Fry Readability Formula must be one of the formulas you apply, and you are encouraged to use 2 or more readability formulas: http://school.discovery.com/schrockguide/fry/fry.html (Fry Readability Formula) http://www.readabilityformulas.com/fry-graph-readability-formula.php (Fry and others) http://www.readabilityformulas.com/free-readability-formula-assessment.php

4. From the textbook selected, identify patterns of linguistic difficulty posed in phonology, morphology, syntax (grammar) and at the discourse level (rhetorical and discourse structures) and provide examples of learning challenges in each of the four categories (phonology, morphology, syntax and discourse). Use the Text Analysis Form (available on Blackboard) to begin your analysis, and attach your filled out form to your final paper when you turn it in. Give examples from the page analyzed of learning challenge in each category (phonology, morphology (or lexicon), syntax, discourse). Always put examples of words, phrases, or sentences from the text in italics. How many examples? Three to five per category.
Explain why these examples pose challenges to ELLs in terms of second language acquisition and native languages and cultures of the learners. Identify the patterns in the text by color coding them by using highlighters using other codes such as underlining, putting phrases in parentheses, and so on.

Explain in your narrative the reasons why the examples may be problematic for ESL students. Attach a copy of the reading passages you selected showing your notations. You will want to identify the following as posing potential reading problems for the target ELL students.

5. Propose teaching strategies and activities for ESL students that will help address the patterns of linguistic difficulty, text structure, and cultural bias identified in the categories listed above. REMEMBER: Propose teaching activities for dealing with the textbook in the classroom, not for rewriting the textbook itself.

6. Make references to textbooks and other readings used in this graduate course (EDCI 510) in order to support the analysis (but do not use quotations or copy directly from our course textbooks) and synthesize the points raised with respect to common grammatical trouble spots for English Language Learners.

Scoring Performance on the Text Analysis
The Text Analysis will be scored with an analytic scoring rubric. (See the end of the syllabus) Categories selected for assessment include knowledge of:

- Language as a system and of its components
- Phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics
- Rhetorical and discourse (text) structures
- Effects of racism, stereotyping, and discrimination
- Interrelationship between language and culture

Scoring Range – Four (4) levels of achievement for accomplishing this assessment task have been defined on the scoring rubric:

- 4 - Exceeds Standard
- 3 - Meets Standard
- 2 - Approaches Standard
- 1 - Does Not Meet Standard

Four levels have been selected to allow for clear discrimination between those who go above and beyond the standard, those who meet the standard, and those who are close to or do not meet the standard.

Guidelines
1. Put your name on the cover sheet only, not on every page. This helps maintain anonymity and fairness in the rating process.
2. See our Style Sheet (at end of this syllabus) for details on citation format and writing style.
3. Your Text Analysis will be assessed using a criterion-referenced scoring rubric.

Be sure to save all of your projects from this course, including the instructor’s comments on your papers and other work. You may need these papers for a portfolio later in your graduate program. For the ESL TEACHING INTERNSHIP Portfolio in this M.Ed. program, you will be expected to show evidence of having met each of the standards listed in the box above by your performance in this course.

Therefore, be sure to keep all of your projects from this course, including the instructor’s comments on your papers and other work.

In addition, send each of your projects in this course to your instructor by depositing in Task Stream or on a flash drive or a CD-Rom for documentation purposes.

Instructional approaches include: Whole class lectures and demonstrations, small group and peer feedback sessions, field projects, videos, and homework assignments for applying principles discussed in texts and class. Interacting in meaningful ways with other grad students/teachers during each class session is essential for success in this course. Student projects will be evaluated using performance-based, criterion-referenced scoring rubrics.

Blackboard Requirement
Each student must access the course web site using his/her GMU email login name and password. Go to http://mymasonportal.gmu.edu/, click on the COURSES tab across the top, then click on the link to this course. Check for pop-up blockers that may not allow you to access Blackboard.

Assessment of Course Projects

In assessing your work, my goals are: to provide you with feedback for improvement, to determine the extent to which you have met the standards and criteria for performance, and to be as fair and objective as possible.

1. I will provide each of you with individual feedback on your projects. This feedback will not only reflect to what extent you have met the standards for performance but also how you can do better on your next project. The criteria for each project are quite similar. The feedback may include suggestions for improving critical thinking, linking assigned readings to your project, elaborating on implications, or improving writing skills for graduate level work.

2. Each teacher’s project will be assessed using the criteria specified in the Scoring Rubric for each project. I will post samples of required projects on our class web site. To assess each project, I conduct a blind, criterion-referenced assessment; I do not know the identity of the author of the project I am rating. I assign a rating on the merits of the project itself as it compares to the criteria specified in the scoring rubric.
3. To ensure fairness, I will cover your name on the cover page and assign your project a numerical code. This helps maintain anonymity and fairness in the rating process. You can help me achieve my fairness goal by putting your name on the cover sheet only and not on any other page of your project (appendices, teacher letters, forms, etc.). I use blind assessments to eliminate potential bias on my part and to be as fair to you as I can. To protect your identity, do not make your paper look distinctive in any way (fancy fonts, colorful cover pages, etc.) Papers with one staple in the upper left-hand corner are preferred to folders, covers, or book-like stapling. If you have any suggestions as to how I can make the assessment process fairer, please let me know.

Other Assessment Issues

Absences: PLEASE EMAIL ME OR CALL ME AT MY OFFICE BEFORE CLASS and ask a classmate to take notes for you if you know that you will be late to or absent from class. Students absent 3 or more times may have their final grade reduced by one letter grade.

Late assignments: Complete assignments on a timely basis. Points will be taken off for late assignments.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is using an author’s exact words as they appear in print without using quotation marks and/or without citing the author in your paper. Plagiarism is unethical and goes against the GMU Honor Code.*

*Wong: We will take a cross-cultural and a developmental view of plagiarism with respect to teaching ESOL students in PreK-12 contexts. See: Pennycook, A (1996) Borrowing others’ words: text, ownership, memory and plagiarism. TESOL Quarterly, 30 (2), 201-230.

Double dipping: Projects or papers submitted for credit in one course cannot also be used for a grade in a different course.

Grade Incompletes (IN): Are not automatically assigned and are discouraged.

TASKSTREAM REQUIREMENTS

Every student registered for any MME course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, Textbook Analysis to TaskStream (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a onetime course or part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

GMU POLICIES AND RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS
a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code (See http://oai.gmu.edu/honor-code/).

b. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (See http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).

c. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.

d. The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students’ personal experience and academic performance (See http://caps.gmu.edu/).

e. Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester (See http://ods.gmu.edu/).

f. Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

g. The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing (See http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/).

PROFESSIONAL DISPOSITIONS

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

CORE VALUES COMMITMENT

The College of Education & Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/.
For additional information on the College of Education and Human Development, Graduate School of Education, please visit our website http://gse.gmu.edu/.

Emergency Procedures:

You are encouraged to sign up for emergency alerts by visiting the website https://alert.gmu.edu. There are emergency posters in each classroom explaining what to do in the event of crises. Further information about emergency procedures exists on http://www.gmu.edu/service/cert.
