This is an online course.

COURSE POSTINGS
Our class uses Blackboard LMS, Bb Learn 9.1 (Bb 9.1). All course materials will be managed through Blackboard.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course offers an introduction to the planning and management of weddings. The social, political, economic, cultural, religious and historical influences on wedding planning decision-making and business strategies will be explored. Practices relevant to successful wedding planning and consultancy for diverse clients and settings will be reviewed.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
At the completion of this course, students should be able to:

1) analyze the social, cultural, religious and historical contexts of weddings;
2) demonstrate understanding of the political and economic influences on weddings;
3) articulate the business and ethical obligations of wedding planners;
4) design wedding plans for diverse clients;
5) create and maintain realistic wedding budgets; and
6) engage the involvement of businesses in the wedding planning process.

COURSE OVERVIEW
Instructional techniques include video lectures, textbook readings, directed readings, short assignments, blog comments, peer leaders assignments and comments, a project design, a comprehensive final project, a midterm and a final examination.

Grading Scale
TOUR 190 CLASS POLICIES

1. Online Participation and Professionalism – Ongoing, timely and professional online communication skills are essential to your success in TOUR 190. Comments that are posted past the weekly due date will not receive credit. Inappropriate or unprofessional comments will not receive credit.

2. Short Assignments and Directed Readings – Throughout the semester, you will regularly have short assignments and directed readings. None of these assignments will be accepted late, nor can they be made up.

   NOTE: Your lowest short assignment, directed reading or blog post grade will be dropped.

3. Peer Leader Assignment – For one course topic, you will be the peer leader. Your materials should be submitted to your instructor no later than 9:00 a.m. on the Monday prior to the week that your discussion topic will be posted for comment. You will receive up to a 20 point deduction for each day the assignment is late. After five days past your assignment due date, this assignment will not be accepted and you will receive no credit.

4. Vendor Spotlight Assignment – You will be completing an interview with a vendor who provides wedding services. This assignment will receive up to a 20 point deduction for each day the assignment is late. After one week past the due date, the assignment will not be accepted and you will receive no credit.

5. Wedding Team Project Assignments – You will be completing a group project design and group final project. These assignments will receive up to a 20 point deduction for each day the assignment is late. After one week past the due date, wedding project assignments will not be accepted and your group will receive no credit.

6. Midterm and Final Exams – The midterm and final exams must be completed on the scheduled dates. Only documented absences will be considered for make-up exams.

ADDITIONAL RHT AND GMU POLICIES

Student Expectations

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/].
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See http://ods.gmu.edu/].
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/1301gen.html].
• Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.

• Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Campus Resources

• The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students’ personal experience and academic performance [See http://caps.gmu.edu/].

• The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/].
