COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Analyzes drug use, with emphasis on positive aspects, and presents alternatives to drug misuse and abuse.

WRITING INTENSIVE (WI) STATEMENT:

This course fulfills the writing-intensive requirement for the Bachelor of Science in Education in Physical Education major. It does so through the following written assignments: three Critical Thinking Papers and one Future Strategies or Controversy Paper. See details below regarding criteria and timelines for these papers.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

At the completion of this course students should be able to:

1. Understand how drugs and alcohol work on the human body, including an appreciation of the addiction process.
2. Identify the nature and extent of drug and alcohol problems in the American culture.
3. Understand a variety of alternatives to drug use.
4. Assess social problems resulting from inappropriate drug use.
5. Specify positive approaches by a variety of societal groups for addressing drug abuse.
6. Provide insight regarding causes for individual and societal abuse of drugs and alcohol.
7. Describe the variety of components included in the continuum of care.
8. Critically evaluate misconceptions, beliefs and information on drugs in order to establish a sound basis for personal action.

COURSE OVERVIEW:

The breadth of content for this course is complemented by the range of approaches incorporated. Classes will be held with a variety of methodologies, including lecture, discussion, small group work, reading reactions, and large group interaction. The assignments include a range of approaches, including reading current resources, attending group meetings, and preparing critical thinking and reflection papers. Examinations address reading assignments and class content. Participation in all aspects of the course – attendance, active participation in class discussions, and completion of all assignments - is expected to gain the breadth of content and achieve course objectives. Readings and assignments are due on the specified date in the syllabus.

NATURE OF COURSE DELIVERY: Face to face

REQUIREMENTS:

Critical Thinking Papers (3)	30 points
Alcohol 101 Plus Paper	15 points
Community Support/Self-Help Group Meetings & Paper	35 points
Future Strategies Paper	35 points
Reflection Summaries (4)	20 points
Additional Assignments / Quizzes (as needed)	35 points
Class Participation and Class Activities	35 points
Mid-Term Exam	65 points
Final Exam	80 points

Participation and Attendance: Class attendance is critical for a thorough understanding of course material.

Grading is based on engagement in discussions, preparation with readings and assignments, and questions.

Examinations: Exams encompass readings, assignments, and discussions, and include a blend of multiple-choice, true-false, short answer, and essay; the final exam incorporates a take-home portion that complements an in-classroom examination.

Critical Thinking Papers: (3 papers) Prepare three critical thinking papers for published articles on drug- or alcohol-related topics; papers may be on the same or different topics. The three papers should be from different sources, one for each paper: a professional journal (print version in the library), a newspaper / magazine, and a government or trade publication. Each paper should be one-page, single-spaced and include five sections, clearly identified with headings: (1) Title and Reference; (2) Summary Abstract; (3) Messages and Audiences; (4) Critique; and (5) Personal Reaction. For each paper, an initial draft is required, with revisions required in fulfillment of WI requirements, within one class period following return of the paper.

Alcohol 101 Plus Paper: Using “Alcohol 101 Plus” [alcohol101plus.org], prepare a 3- to 4-page single-spaced paper that follows the general outline of the Critical Thinking Paper, yes focuses primarily on the critique. Also, add a section to identify clearly recommendations for improvement.

Community Support/Self-Help Group Meetings: Attend two open support or self-help group meetings (e.g., AA, NA, ACOA, AlAnon or similar meetings) that you have not attended previously. Prepare a 4-6 page single-spaced paper that summarizes the following items, with particular attention to (c) and (d): (a) themes, attendees, location, publicity; (b) observations; (c) thoughts about what happened; (d) ways in which the meetings affected your feelings, and (e) questions or other observations.

Future Strategies Paper: Identify an area of need within the drug/alcohol field, and prepare a 5-10 page, single-spaced paper describing future strategies that could be implemented to better address this need. Include the following elements in your paper: (a) The need – why this is a need or gap; clearly define the audience/group; (b) Current approach(es), and why they are not sufficient; (c) Recommended strategy/strategies – be specific, grounded, and creative; (d) Resources to implement the strategy; and (e) Challenges, obstacles and other considerations. Include references and sources. An initial draft of this paper is required, with revisions required in fulfillment of WI requirements, by the date specified in the Schedule of Topics and Assignments.

Note: Papers are due on the scheduled date; those received late are subject to point reduction
