This class will be engaged in cooperative learning, small group discussions, whole class discussions, peer feedback, short lectures, student-led micro-teaching simulations, videos, multimedia, and reflection. Two options are offered on the midterm project. Students are encouraged to select a project that has particular relevance to their own respective teaching circumstance. Rubrics are provided for the teaching simulation and midterm and final projects.

Students with Special Needs: Students with disabilities that affect their ability to participate fully in the course or who require special accommodations are encouraged to speak with the instructor so that appropriate accommodations might be arranged.
LEARNER OUTCOMES:
This course is designed to enable students to:
1. Demonstrate ability to teach reading and writing in a foreign/second language using the reading goals and standards for K-12.
2. Analyze recent research on the socio-cultural perspectives of reading/writing processes for students in a foreign/second language.
3. Describe developmental stages of reading/writing and suggest appropriate instructional techniques for each.
4. Use scaffolding approaches to teach pre-reading, during-reading, and post-reading strategies.
5. Create lesson plans and develop assessment activities for use in a foreign/second language reading/writing setting under the direction of an experienced Latin or modern language teacher.
6. Incorporate multimedia and computer assisted reading and writing in foreign/world language classes.

Students will be expected to use a personal computer for preparing course requirements and teaching materials and for engaging in research through the Internet. Students are also encouraged to attend any professional conferences.

Key: ACTFL/NCATE Standards and Domains, INTASC = Standards for Licensing Beginning Teachers, P = principles

1. Knowledge base for teaching in the foreign/second language classroom. Learn the fundamental concepts of the knowledge base pertaining to ESL, English as a second dialect, and the teaching of other second and foreign languages; second language acquisition, psycholinguistics, sociolinguistics, pragmatics, and language pedagogy.

2. Utilization of research. EDRD 620 students should be able to understand and critically evaluate second language learning theories and engage in systematic investigation of the knowledge base to inform their own or others teaching practices.

3. Classroom teaching. EDRD 620 students should be able to plan and manage a second language class effectively and be able to evaluate and selectively apply a range of teaching strategies as appropriate to their student’s needs and characteristics. For this purpose, they will need to be able to assess different teaching situations and changing conditions in culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms, so as to select appropriate teaching procedures and adapt to teaching students with differing learning styles and cultural backgrounds.
4. Curriculum. Students will develop the skills needed to design and implement foreign/second language teaching strategies, specifically to enhance the teaching of reading and writing.

The EDRD 620 relationship to National and State Standards include:
- The American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages Standards for Pre-K-12 Students
- Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC) Standards
- National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS)
- Virginia Foreign Language Standards of Learning (SOLs)

The EDRD 620 relationships to professional organizations include:
EDRD 620 follows the guidelines and recommendations made by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL), the National Association for Bilingual Education (NABE), and the National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME). ACTFL along with NABE and NAME, are the largest professional organizations that specialize in research on working with culturally and linguistically diverse populations. They embrace and celebrate linguistic, cultural and ethnic diversity as a national strength that enriches a society and rejects the view that diversity threatens the fabric of a society. NABE and ACTFL have the more specialized mission of developing the expertise of their members and other educators involved in teaching world languages, to help them foster an effective learning environment while accomplishing the goal of effective communication in diverse settings and oral and written language proficiency while respecting individuals’ rights and needs.

GUIDELINES FOR REFLECTIVE STATEMENTS
10 Points (5 Points Each)
Due 2/20/14 and 4/10/14

Objectives and Tasks: Becoming a Reflective Practitioner
Being able to reflect critically on your own teaching and learning is no easy task. It requires you to delve beyond a simple description of what you’ve read or what we’ve discussed in class in order to analyze and synthesize what you have actually learned. To facilitate the process of becoming a reflective practitioner, you will write two reflective statements for this course. In each statement, you will connect theory to practice as you self-assess and reflect upon your own teaching and learning.

Grading: Each reflective statement must be submitted on or before the due date. Maximum points will be earned by completing the assignment according to the directions. Assignments that are not completed according to the directions will be returned with recommendations for improvement. You will have one week to re-submit the assignment for full credit/points. Late assignments must have prior approval or they will not be considered.

Reflective Statement #1 (1-3 pages in APA Format)
DUE: February 20, 2014
How did you learn to read and write in a foreign/world language? What did you like or dislike about your experiences? Do you believe these methods were effective in helping you to develop your reading and writing skills? Why or why not? Connect your ideas to at least 2 course readings and 1 additional article that you have read on http://nflrc.hawaii.edu/rfl. Write your reflection in APA format. Include a reference page.

Reflective Statement #2 (1-3 pages in APA Format)
DUE: April 10, 2014
How have your thoughts about teaching reading and writing changed during the semester? Had you previously considered the diverse cognitive, linguistic, and cultural needs of today’s world language learners? Did you know about the cognitive and sociocultural processes involved with developing L2 literacy? Did you consider the role of technology and the use of authentic texts/tasks in the teaching of reading and writing? And, how do you plan to incorporate what you have learned into the design of your final project? Connect your ideas to at least 3 course readings and one additional article that you have read on the subject of reading and writing in a FL/WL. Write your reflection in APA format. Include a reference page.

GUIDELINES FOR TEACHING DEMONSTRATION
20 Points

Task:
Each pre- and in-service teacher will do an in-class teaching demonstration of a standards-based lesson that focuses on teaching reading and writing in the target language. We will be your students. You have a maximum of 30 minutes. You may take 5 minutes to set up your demonstration and 5 minutes to provide information about your topic/theme and any information that we will need to be your students (i.e. the age and grade level we will assume any other essential information for the lesson). You must teach in the target language for 15 minutes. At the end of the demonstration, the class will take 5 minutes to discuss your demonstration and provide you with feedback.

The demonstration is to be done in the target language and will focus on the teaching of reading and writing. It must align with the National and State Standards of Learning and provide evidence of the candidate’s understanding of one of the course’s strategies and themes related to the teaching of reading and writing.

Each individual (or pair) will create a standards-based lesson plan and a one-page handout that summarizes the course topic/theme highlighted in the demo (see the demo sign-up sheet for list of topics/themes). You are strongly encouraged to create visuals and other teacher-made instructional materials.

ACTFL/NCATE Standards 1a, 1b, 2c, 3a, 3b, 4a, 4b, 4c, 6b

What to do:
1. You will work individually (or as a pair with the permission of the instructor) on your teaching demo. You will have a total of 30 minutes (45 minutes for a pair). You must teach for 15 minutes in the target language. Please plan your time carefully. If you need more time to set up your demo, you should plan to arrive to class early on the night of your demonstration to do so. The majority of your time should be spent teaching. You will have 5 minutes to provide background information about the topic/theme and any pertinent information that we will need to be your students. The class will take 5 minutes at the end of your demonstration to give you feedback and to ask questions.

2. Prepare a lesson plan (that you will copy and distribute in class) using pages 1-2 of the template provided in the syllabus. After you do your demo, you must complete page 3 of the lesson plan (the reflective phase). Email the reflective phase to Dr. Cabrero within 48 hours of your demo.

3. Your demonstration will most likely include several of the course topics and themes related to the teaching of reading and writing in PK-12 world language classrooms. However, when you choose the date of your demo, you are required to focus on the particular theme listed on the sign-up sheet. In addition to focusing on this theme, you must prepare a handout about your topic/theme. The handout should include:
   • Background information about the topic/theme that is based on theory and research
   • How you will highlight this topic/theme in your demonstration
   • A list of resources (both theoretical and practical) on your topic/theme (journal articles, books, websites, etc.) The resource list should be in APA format.

4. BE CREATIVE! You are strongly encouraged to make/create your own instructional materials and assessments for the lesson.
5. Try to spend less time talking about the theme and more time demonstrating it. You may decide to introduce your lesson by discussing the theme first or you may wish to immerse us in the experience and explain after the demonstration.

6. We will be your students. You may assign us whatever language level and age you wish. Keep in mind that YOUR use of the TL must be appropriate for that age and language level of your students. The use of visuals, gestures, and TPR are encouraged.

7. Provide copies of your handout, your lesson plan, and any other lesson materials that you have made that you feel would be useful to your classmates and your instructor.

EVALUATION of your teaching demonstration will be based upon the following criteria that are also listed on the grading checklist (in the syllabus):

- Quality of the Lesson Plan
- Quality of the Handout on the Strategy/Theme
- Target Language Proficiency/Use
- Evidence of Preparation
- Use of Teacher Developed Materials
- Flexibility in Response to Students
- Efficient Use of Time
- Class Rapport, Warmth, and Enthusiasm
- Creativity of Design and Presentation of Lesson
- Quality and Usefulness of Lesson Handouts

Recommendations:
Resources for Teaching Reading and Writing in Foreign/World Languages

Option A: Reading Library

Objectives:
1. To identify and evaluate materials and resources from --print, software, and the Internet-- for teaching reading and writing in foreign/world language classrooms.
2. To search for materials of particular interest to you in the areas of teaching reading and writing in order to gain a greater appreciation for the breadth and depth of available resources and how they reflect current practices and research.

Task:
To create a library of materials for increasing the reading comprehension and writing proficiency of a particular student population, specific to age, grade, and level of language being studied. Latin teachers are required to select literary masterpieces in order to make connections to their historical and social context of the society.

1. Choose one of the following grade/language levels that interests you:
   - Elementary FLES or Immersion (Grades 3-6)
   - Middle School Level 1 or Immersion (Grades 6-8)
   - High School Levels 1-5, AP, IB (Grades 9-12)

2. Identify five (5) resources for your library. You may consider both fiction and non-fiction print and electronic materials. Make sure you have a balanced distribution across print materials (books, articles, etc…), computer software, and Internet web sites. These may include (but not be limited to) the field of education or foreign language education. Look for resources that represent various target language cultures. For example, you may use fables or traditional short stories as well as pop culture in authentic texts in magazines or electronic publications that are intended for native speakers. The goal is to find materials that can help you increase the reading and writing abilities of the students in the grade and language level you selected.

3. Examine the resources as to their effectiveness and appropriateness in terms of content, language, language level, culture(s), and student interest potential.

4. Prepare a written report that is 6-page minimum/10-page maximum, double-spaced, 12pt font, in APA format. Begin with an introductory section that describes the specific purpose of your resource search. For example:
   - For which grade or level was the library intended?
   - What were the primary goals and/or objectives for assembling this library?
   - How does your library consider the various cultures where the target language is spoken?

   In the body of your paper, include the title of the reading resource as a subheading for your review. In your review, include:
   - How each reading resource will appeal to the age, language level, and potential interest of the students
   - How it will contribute to a student’s understanding of target language culture(s)
   - How it will help students to develop their reading and writing skills in the target language

   The final section of your paper should be a reflective summary that synthesizes what you have learned from this assignment. In your summary, discuss the impact that this project has had on how you plan to teach reading and writing in your own classroom.
5. Using APA format, cite at least 5 assigned readings from the syllabus to support your evaluation of the resources.
6. Attach sample pages from the resources that provide evidence for your evaluation.
7. Include a reference page in APA format of assigned readings to which you referred in your report as well as a complete list of materials reviewed.
8. Submit your project on BB no later than 4:20 pm on March 20, 2014.

Option B: Technology Project
Using Technology to Enhance the Teaching of Reading and Writing in the Foreign/World Language Classroom

Task: Create a never-before-used multimedia, interactive technology project that facilitates the teaching of reading and/or writing in the foreign/world language classroom setting. PowerPoint, Flash, WebQuest, Blog, Wiki or other technology-based project for teaching reading and writing in foreign/world languages.

1. Design and create an original, never-before-used WebQuest, Blog, Wiki, or other type of technology-based project on a course outline topic of your choice and apply it to a teaching reading and/or writing in the foreign/world language classroom setting. The purpose of the project is to highlight course topics/themes and inform teachers about their implications for teaching reading and writing. For example, you may create a WebQuest and then show how the use of performance-based assessments and/or technology can enhance the teaching of reading and writing in the target language.

2. Look to include authentic texts from target language cultures as you design your project. You may decide to use a fable, short story or current topic(s) in pop culture found in magazines or electronic publications.

3. Write a short introduction (2-3 pages in APA format) for your project that describes the student population and their needs (age, grade, and language level) and how your project will meet the needs of this specific population of language learners as well as to show how what you have created will help them improve their reading and writing skills in the target language. Make reference to at least (3) of the course readings to support what you have created. Provide a reference list (in APA format) at the end of your introduction.

4. Prepare an informative user-guide that will help a novice teacher use your project. Your guide may be a PowerPoint, a detailed list of steps, or it may be in the form of a lesson/unit plan (following the lesson/unit plan template in the syllabus).

5. Submit your project on BB no later than 4:20 pm on March 20, 2014.

Performance-Based Assessment for ACTFL NCATE Assessment # 2
Assessment Project: Content Knowledge in the Target Language

Description of Assessment (Critical Analysis in the Target Language of Literary and Cultural Sources) and Its Use in the Program

Critical Analysis of Literary and Cultural Sources is the culminating project for the methods course, EDRD 620, Teaching Reading and Writing in Foreign/World Languages. It is a graduate level three-credit course. The Critical Analysis in the Target Language of Literary and Cultural Sources is an assessment of the candidate’s ability to successfully write in the target language with demonstrated proficiency as well as an understanding of integrating the SFLL and SOLs into language instruction; demonstrate that they understand the connections among the perspectives of a culture and its practices and products; recognize the value and role of literary and cultural texts and use them in planning instruction; and integrate knowledge of other disciplines into foreign language instruction. Candidates develop in the target language an annotated list of websites and authentic sources such as videos, literary texts, cultural, or multimedia resources.

This assessment connects theory to practice in the application of course topics that address Pre-reading/writing strategies (K-W-L, Anticipation Guide, SQ3R, Graphic Organizers); During-reading strategies (Predicting, Drawing pictures, Skipping unknown words); and Post-reading/writing Strategies (Reading Response Logs, Anticipation Guides, Semantic Mapping, Think Aloud, Read Aloud, Echo Reading, Guided Reading, Silent Sustained Reading).

Create two standards-based (VA SOLs and 5Cs) lesson plans in the target language (one elementary and one secondary) incorporating these authentic resources. Lesson plans must follow the required GMU elementary and secondary lesson plan templates with no fewer than three tasks (activities) for each level. Plans must demonstrate the integration of culture and content from one other content discipline. Samples of Interpretive, Presentational, and Interpersonal modes of communication must be included. Candidate-made tasks (activities), worksheets, and at least one technology-based application are required.

Objectives of Critical Analysis in the Target Language of Literary and Cultural Sources
This signature performance assessment’s objectives require Foreign Language licensure candidates to:

PROCEDURE FOR CANDIDATES

1. In the target language create an annotated critical analysis of no fewer than five websites or authentic sources such as videos, literary texts, books, games, cultural topics, or multimedia/digital resources that can be adapted for teaching today’s foreign/world language learners.
2. Use these resources along with the lesson plan templates provided in the syllabus to create two lesson plans in the target language - for one day at an elementary and one day at a secondary school setting.

3. Provide a written text scenario in the target language of the setting for which this plan is intended. This should include geographic location (urban, rural, suburban), approximate time during school year, brief description of student population, and where these lesson plans fit in with the school district’s curriculum or within a larger standards-based unit plan.

4. The plans must include national (5Cs) and state standards (SOLs).

5. Choose one theme or topic for each grade level. Include this in the title.

6. Define the program model, i.e., Advanced Placement, Immersion, Foreign Language in the Elementary School, etc.

7. Plans must demonstrate the integration of culture and content from one other content discipline.

8. Activities must include samples of Interpretive, Presentational, and Interpersonal modes of communication and include evidence of pre-reading/writing; during-reading/writing, and post-reading/writing strategies.

9. Candidate-made tasks (activities), worksheets, and at least one technology-based application per lesson plan (total of at least two) in the target language are required.
