Student Expectations

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/].
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See http://ods.gmu.edu/].
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/1301gen.html].
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
- Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Campus Resources

- The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students' personal experience and academic performance [See http://caps.gmu.edu/].
- The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/].
- For additional information on the College of Education and Human Development, School of Recreation, Health, and Tourism, please visit our website [See http://rht.gmu.edu].

CORE VALUES COMMITMENT: The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles.
TOUR 200 Class Policies

Attendance - Regular online attendance is essential to your success in TOUR 200.

Site Visit Analysis - The class will be completing a site analysis which requires a written submission. Please note that any assignment that is late will receive a deduction of one letter grade for every day it is late.

Weekly Assignments and Discussion: Almost every week we will have a discussion element. Some may be an open discussion, others a case study or article review and some research assignments. These are important elements of the course and will aid in your understanding of the material. You must complete the weekly assignments and post a minimum of two comments to classmates per assignment to receive full credit. Responses and feedback are due within the assigned week, anything posted after that will not receive credit.

Final Presentation - The final presentation is meant to assist you in learning to research, review, interpret and present your information. You will be required to post a draft and a final presentation, and will need to access either video or an online service such as Jing to properly present your findings.
