COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Provides experience using research skills to foster systematic and thoughtful inquiry into classroom practice. Explores relevant classroom practice issues through critical writing, action, and research. Emphasizes cultural diversity, language, and gender issues in research.

LEARNER OUTCOMES/OBJECTIVES:

As a result of EDUC 612, ASTL participants will be able to:

- identify and understand different approaches to educational inquiry (ASTL Outcomes 3 & 4),
- reflect systematically and critically about their teaching practice, individually and as members of learning communities (ASTL Outcomes 4 & 5),
- examine the relationship between their own pedagogical actions and who they are as learner and individual, who they are as teacher, and who they are as teacher inquirer (ASTL Outcome 4),
- demonstrate an understanding of their role as teacher leaders and action researchers in their educational settings (ASTL Outcome 4),
- engage in critical reflection as a key element of their professional learning and educational practice (ASTL Outcome 4),
- explain the critical importance of incorporating multiple perspectives in their educational practice to meet the needs of all learners, including culturally, linguistically and ability

- diverse learners (ASTL Outcomes 3 & 6),
- develop research questions relevant to their classroom practice (ASTL Outcome 4),
- provide a rationale for researching their own practice and explore how action research informs the management and monitoring of student learning (ASTL Outcomes 3 & 4),
- identify, comprehend, and express the ethical and moral issues connected to classroom-based research (ASTL Outcomes 3, 4, and 7).

RELATIONSHIP TO PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS:

The purpose of this course is to provide participants with: a) a foundation for implementing critically reflective, systematic, and thoughtful inquiry into classroom practice, b) a developing perspective on the cultural, linguistic, and ability diverse learner variables in 21st century classrooms, c) opportunities to understand and augment research skills, and d) emergent knowledge on how critical reflection and teacher professional knowledge and dispositions frame their classroom practice. Practitioners explore relevant classroom practice issues through writing, reflections, exploring and experimenting with action research approaches, and sharing their work in a collaborative setting. Through the critical examination of action research and experimentation with action research strategies and approaches, teachers come to recognize the value of classroom inquiry as a way to make more informed decisions about their educational practice. Participants give special attention to cultural and linguistic diversity and their own cultural backgrounds as they inform their approaches to teaching and learning, begin to explore other cultural dimensions in the consideration of research questions, puzzlements, and the conduct of research.

EDUC 612 is aligned with the NBPTS propositions, specifically:

- Proposition 3: Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning;
- Proposition 4: Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience; and
- Proposition 5: Teachers are members of learning communities.

EDUC 612 is also aligned the three additional principles that guide the ASTL Core:

- Principle 6: Teachers account for the needs of culturally, linguistically, and cognitively diverse learners; and
- Principle 7: Teachers are change agents, teacher leaders, and partners with colleagues
- Principle 8: Teachers use technology effectively to facilitate student learning and their own professional development.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

Course Delivery

To meet course objectives, the delivery of EDUC 612 is accomplished through a combination of experiential learning activities, in-class collaborative work groups, dialogic discussions, interactive online discussion strands, and mini-lectures designed to help meet the needs of all learners and learning preferences. These include:

- Presentations (i.e., mini-lectures/lecturettes, often assisted by Power Point and other visuals);
- Discussions (i.e., active involvement of students in learning by asking questions that provoke critical thinking and verbal interaction);
- Cooperative learning (i.e., small group structure emphasizing learning from and with others);
- Collaborative learning (i.e., heterogeneous groups in an interdisciplinary context);
- Guest lectures;
- Student sharing and mini-presentations;
- Online learning tools;
- Blackboard web-based course management and portal system.

Assignments

1. Critical Reflections (30 points)- the following reflections will serve as a scaffold for the larger Autobiographical Study, a course performance-based assessment (PBA).
 - A. Teacher Beliefs Statement (10 points) concerning your beliefs regarding instructional practices, student learning, and use of inquiry and action research to inform educational decisions. This is a course performance-based assessment (PBA). Rubric p. 14

Due: Draft July 15; Final July 17 to Taskstream

- B. Reflective Journal Entries (20 points). Participants in the Core will maintain a reflective journal throughout EDUC 612, as explained at the orientation. This journal process is designed to help participants develop a habit of mind of putting thoughts to paper and will scaffold course learning leading to the final course project. Systematic and regular journaling will be used to provide evidence of growth as a reflective educator and will provide experience in reflection as a data collection source for the Autobiographical Study and forthcoming research in the Core. Each class period will involve reflective writing. Rubric p. 13

Due: See class schedule. Refer to the class schedule for submission dates for the individual Reflective Journal Entries, completed in Blackboard. Excerpts and representations of all of these various forms of critical reflection will be incorporated into the Autobiographical Study.

2. Class Participation and Professionalism (30 points)

Class participation and professionalism include multiple aspects of engagement in our course content, including: the in-class experiences incorporating reflective practice, critical inquiry, posing potential research questions, and action research procedures; critical discussion of scholarly research studies from required readings with a focus on developing critical reflective capacity. In addition to being present in each class, this part of your grade also includes quality participation in class discussions and professionalism in all communication with your professor and your peers. Rubric p. 12

Due: Ongoing

3. Autobiographical Study (40 points)

Core participants will draw from their narratives, teaching, and research experiences, course materials, and focused reflections to provide the rationale and foundation for their autobiographical study. Participants are encouraged to incorporate a variety of genres (e.g. narratives, poems, images, videos, etc.) within their Autobiographical Study that capture their experiences as individuals, learners, and teachers. The purpose of this study is to provide an avenue to examine one's own learning experiences and teaching practices and focus on how these and their growing understanding of new dimensions, such as culture, language, and critical reflection, relate to the practices they adhere to in their teaching. The Autobiographical study emphasizes and incorporates critical reflective practice. Examples will be provided in class. Rubric p. 15

Due: No later than Thursday, July 24th. Electronic submission should be posted to TaskStream. Your Autobiographical Study will be created using a Web 2.0 tool, Prezi, or web site. [Note: If your product is created online, please copy the URL to a Word document before uploading to TaskStream and remember to include the password if using a protected site.]

ASTL PROFESSIONAL PORTFOLIO

The ASTL Professional Portfolio is a program level performance-based document that provides concrete evidence of teacher learning and knowledge development throughout the Advanced Studies in Teaching and Learning Program while linking the ASTL program requirements with national, state, and institutional professional standards. Program participants begin the portfolio in EDUC 612 and develop its content across the Core and remaining Concentration coursework. In EDUC 612, the portfolio structure is created. At the conclusion of EDUC 612, Reflection Point 1, connecting knowledge attained through the Core course content and course products to the program learning outcomes, is written in response to the reflection prompt, which is described in detail below. This reflection point is due on Friday, July 25, 2014 and should be submitted to the ASTL Core Organization site on Blackboard.

PROMPT FOR ASTL PORTFOLIO REFLECTION POINT 1

Teacher as Researcher with a Cultural Perspective

In this section, you will focus on how coursework, related readings, and products in EDUC 612 have led you to think more deeply about critical reflective practice and who you are as a learner and educator. Please reflect on your own learning and your perceived growth and change at this point in the Core. In your reflection, please address any of the applicable eight program learning outcomes and the ways in which the performance assessments included thus far in the Core provide evidence of your knowledge.

Required course products to be used as evidence of knowledge:

- Autobiographical Study (EDUC 612)
- Teacher Beliefs Statement (EDUC 612)

Other suggested products for inclusion:

- Personal reflection on cultural understanding (Cultural Understanding reflection prompt for 612)
- Other reflections, as selected by individual (such as excerpts from reflective journal)

Guidelines and suggested format for each of the Reflection Points

Length: Aim to limit your response to two well written pages (may be single spaced)

Focus: Each Reflection Point should include a short description, but will focus on interpretation and analysis of learning by synthesizing knowledge attained from that learning component of the Core coursework.

Format: Each reflection point describes, interprets, and examines why and how the course product(s) provide evidence of the ASTL principles addressed in that learning module. Here you should also discuss the impact of this course/learning module on your teaching practice and its impact on P-12 student learning.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Criteria for evaluation: Expectations for EDUC 612 include regular attendance in class, active participation in all in-class and online discussions and in small group activities, completion of all readings, exercises, and papers, active and ongoing engagement with journaling as a growth of reflective practice.

In addition, all written work should be carefully edited for standard grammar and punctuation, as well as clarity of thought. All submitted work should be prepared through word processing and reflect APA-style (6th edition).

TASKSTREAM REQUIREMENTS

Every student registered for EDUC 612, in the Advanced Studies in Teaching and Learning Program, is required to submit to TaskStream the following two performance-based assessments: 1) the Teacher Beliefs Statement and 2) the ASTL Autobiographical Study. Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete(IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

GMU POLICIES AND RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

- a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://oai.gmu.edu/honor-code/>]
- b. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>]
- c. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- d. The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students' personal experiences and academic performance [See <http://caps.gmu.edu/>]
- e. Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See <http://ods.gmu.edu/>]
- f. Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during the class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
- g. The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>]

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT PROFESSIONAL DISPOSITIONS

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times. ASTL will distribute the program's Statement of Dispositions at the outset of the program, which all participants are expected to sign as an indication of their commitment to them as professionals.

CORE VALUES COMMITMENT

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to Social justice, Innovation, Research-based practice, Ethical leadership, and Collaboration. Students are expected to adhere to these principles. [See <http://cehd.gmu.edu/values>]
