Course Description
This course examines current and emerging issues and trends impacting education. Inquiring into demographic shifts; globalization; technology, data-based decision-making; inclusion of diverse learners in American schools; and recent research on student achievement when influenced by race, gender, and poverty.

CANDIDATE OUTCOMES
Participants will:

1. Be able to explain several of the seismic shifts and major trends and their implications for society at large and schools and school districts in particular.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the history of diverse groups in the United States and review education in the United States in reference to diverse groups as well as the privileges or inequities that members of these groups have encountered on the basis of race, ethnicity, and social class.
3. Articulate how student diversity can help teachers and administrators develop curriculum that includes global literacy with a significant effect on economic, cultural, and political matters, with particular attention on how culture influences learning.
4. Be able to explain the definitions and characteristics of children with special learning needs, i.e., learning disabilities, behavioral disorders, visual and hearing impairment, ADHD, and giftedness.
5. Describe the educational rights of individuals with disabilities including the legal foundations, models of service delivery, and the concepts of mainstreaming and inclusion.

6. Describe ways in which special educators and regular educators can partner with regard to shared goals, collaboration, referrals, and placements.

7. Be able to articulate effective knowledge management strategies that use technology to enhance administration, teaching, and learning at the school and district levels.

8. Apply principles of legal, ethical, social, and equity issues related to technology (such as copyright, fair use, equitable access, free speech) along with effective techniques for evaluating technology effectiveness.

9. Be able to synthesize recent research relative to student achievement in diverse school settings, with particular attention to the relationships between student achievement and gender, race, and poverty.

10. Identify various strategies to maximize the effective use of data to improve student achievement and effective ways to communicate results to various community groups.

11. Demonstrate the ability to make educational decisions which are supported by data rather than only on personal opinions.

RELATIONSHIP TO PROGRAM GOALS AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION

This course is intended as one of two culminating courses in the Masters in Education Leadership Program. Course content focuses on key contemporary issues in public education, both current and emerging. At the conclusion of the course, participants are expected to demonstrate knowledge and skills that increase their effectiveness when working in diverse school settings; an expected hallmark of education in the 21st century.

In relationship to professional organization competencies, participants in this course will demonstrate proficiency in appropriate VA DOE competencies and ISLLC standards. VA DOE: 1-d, 1-e, 2-c, 2-d, 3-g, 4-a, 5-c, 6-e, 6-f. ISLLC: 1-K1, 1-K4, 1-K5, 2-K7, 2-K10, 2-P5, 2-P6, 2-P9, 2-P16, 2-P18, 3-K8, 3-P3, 3-P16, 3-P17, 4-K1, 4-K2, 4-P11, 5-K3, 5-P12, 6-K6, 6-K8, 6-P2, 6-P4, 6-P5. With regard to NCATE Curriculum Guidelines, candidates in this course will demonstrate an understanding of, and capabilities in, all four areas of education leadership; strategic leadership (1.3, 1.6, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, and 2.4); instructional leadership (3.3, 3.4); and organizational leadership (7.2, 7.4, and 9.3).

NATURE OF COURSE DELIVERY

A variety of instructional methods are used in this course to cover the course content and create a dynamic, interactive learning environment. These methods include large- and small-group instruction, cooperative learning, media, Internet assignments, lecture, guest practitioners, group presentations and individual research.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Access to a computer, the World Wide Web, and email are essential for this course. Candidates will be given access to Blackboard.com for communication and resource purposes. Candidates are expected to competently use standard computer office tools such as word processing, spreadsheet, database, and presentation software.

Candidates are expected to attend each class for its entirety. Candidates who must be absent from class are expected to notify the instructor in advance by telephone or email. Candidates who miss more than one class, or who arrive late or leave early, will lose participation points.

Assignments are to be completed by the due date outlined. Assignments submitted late will have points deducted. Assignments submitted more than one week late may not receive full credit. All written assignments are to be completed using standard word processing or presentation tools and may be submitted in advance electronically.

GMU HONOR CODE

Candidates are expected to abide by the George Mason University Honor code. Violations (cheating, attempted cheating, plagiarizing, lying, stealing) will be reported to the Honor Committee. Please refer to the University Catalog or www.gmu.edu for the full Honor Code.

GMU Policies and Resources for students

a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/].
b. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/].
c. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
d. The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students’ personal experience and academic performance [See http://caps.gmu.edu/].
e. Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See http://ods.gmu.edu/].
f. Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/].

Professional Dispositions
Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Core Values Commitment
The College of Education & Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles. http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/

STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

This syllabus is subject to change based on the needs of the class. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities in the series, programs, or activities of all state and local governments. Under ADA, a disability is defined as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity such as learning, working, walking, speaking, hearing, breathing and/or taking care of oneself. If a student has a disability and needs course adaptations or accommodations because of that disability, it must be established with the faculty, in writing, at the beginning of the semester so arrangements can be made. Please call the Disability Resource Center for required documentation (703-993-2474).

EVALUATION AND GRADING

Since this is a graduate-level class, high quality work on all assignments and meaningful class participation is expected. Rubrics will be used in the evaluation of required course work.

Assignment #1

Students will select an issue that is of high interest to them and write an essay [3 to 5 pages] which [a] shows evidence of reading and thought on the topic; [b] connects to research/thought/examples in practice; and [c] which analyses the prevailing issue[s] and presents at least 3 recommendations as possible solutions.

Assignment #2

The school board has created a planning group to advise it on issues which may impact the district in the future. Students will work with a partner as Futurist Consultants. They will present information to the School Board Planning Group (the rest of the class) on an assigned topic decided upon by the class. In order to prepare the Planning Group for the presentation each pair will locate and assign readings to be completed by the class prior to the presentation. Remember- the school district is paying big bucks for your consulting services. The presentation should be worth it.

25% of Final Grade

(Course outcomes numbers 4, 5, 6, and 9 are met by this activity when successfully completed.)

Assignment #3

Students will present in small groups of the major trends effecting education in the immediate future. Topics will be based on Noll’s work and will be chosen in class May 2, 2012. Presentations are of the students design and should incorporate the use of technology. A power point is not required! Utilization of outside sources is expected and at least one journal article for each member of the class will be handed out the class meeting before the presentation so everyone has some background knowledge. 20 to 30 minutes will be allocated in class for presentations.
Assignment #4

Class participation and attendance, including participation in Socratic Seminars and other presentations.

The grading scale is:

A+=100 percent
A=95-99 percent
A-=90-94 percent
B+=87-89 percent
B=83-86 percent
B-=80-82 percent
C=75-79 percent
F=0-74 percent
