COURSE DESCRIPTION

Uses cultural inquiry process (CIP) and web site to acquire cultural, social, and language-related perspectives on educational processes; and teaches skills to analyze educational settings and expand strategies to address puzzlements in student's own practice.

Prerequisites: Admission to the ASTL Program; EDUC 612, EDUC 613, and EDUC 614

LEARNER OUTCOMES/OBJECTIVES

By the completion of EDUC 606, ASTL Core participants will be able to:

- A. Understand the application of research approaches to inquiry and inquiry into practice through the systematic monitoring of student learning (ASTL Learning Outcome 4);
- B. Articulate perspectives (assumptions, theories, principles, and findings) and methods useful for understanding cultural influences and diversity in the educational setting (ASTL Learning Outcome 6);
- C. Apply cultural perspectives and culturally responsive methods in educational settings (ASTL Learning Outcome 6 and 7);
- D. Use cultural perspectives and research literature to help construct and evaluate appropriate interventions for classroom use (ASTL Learning Outcomes 4 and 6);
- E. Explain to colleagues the critical importance of considering multiple perspectives and second language learners' needs (ASTL Learning Outcomes 5 and 6); and
- F. Explore and respect differences in teaching and learning as they relate to cultural diversity and social justice in the field of action research (ASTL Learning Outcomes 1, 4, 5, and 6).

RELATIONSHIP TO PROGRAM GOALS & PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATION

EDUC 606 is one of the five courses that comprise the ASTL Education Core. Within the ASTL Core, EDUC 606 is carefully aligned with the learning experiences along the Core continuum EDUC 612, EDUC 613, EDUC 614, and concurrent EDUC 615. EDUC 612 (Inquiry into Practice) helped participants develop critical reflective skills and research knowledge for conducting inquiry related to practice. In EDUC 613 (How Students Learn), Core participants were introduced to various factors that influence the individual learner and conducted a case study research of a learner. In EDUC 614, participants looked at new ways to design and assess teaching and learning in their classrooms and researched their teaching practice via video analysis. In EDUC 606, our focus will turn to looking at students and educational settings from various cultural perspectives. The class will introduce you to cultural perspectives and the Cultural Inquiry Process (CIP), a process that guides practitioners through cultural inquiries. You will use this process and the inquiry and research skills began in EDUC 612 and the preceding coursework to conduct an action research study that focuses on cultural influences and is designed to deepen your knowledge about student learning. The focus of your study may range from a group of students to an entire classroom.

EDUC 606 is aligned with the NBPTS propositions, specifically:

- Proposition 1: Teachers are committed to students and their learning;
- Proposition 4: Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience; and
- Proposition 5: Teachers are members of learning communities.

EDUC 606 is aligned with two of the additional principles that guide the ASTL Core:

- Principle 6: Teachers account for the needs of culturally, linguistically, and cognitively diverse learners; and
- Principle 7: Teachers are change agents, teacher leaders, and partners with colleagues

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practices, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles. EDUC 606 focuses on all five of these core values through promoting culturally based action research that is intentional and committed to social justice, ethical and collaborative research. Through online groups and creative solutions to classroom puzzlements, this course also promotes innovative classroom practices that are data driven and aimed at making a difference for all students and improving instructional decisions.

REQUIRED TEXT

No required text. We will use articles which will be posted for you.

We will use a textbook required for EDU 612:

Falk, B., & Blumenreich, M. (2005). The power of questions: A guide to teacher and student research. Portsmouth, NH: Heinemann.

Additional selected readings to be available via Blackboard or through Mason Libraries

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

Course Delivery

Mini-lectures, videos, and interactive discussions of readings and ongoing critical reflective practice will support learning experiences throughout the course and will complement your experiences and expose you to the major cultural perspectives, as explored through the cultural inquiry process. Discussions may take place in class or via Blackboard. Your instructor will be available for in-person, phone, or virtual consultations to complement the support from your Critical Friends Groups

- To access our course Blackboard site, go to the MyMason portal login page at <https://mymasonportal.gmu.edu>. Your GMU email user name is also your MyMason Portal ID and your GMU email password is also your MyMason Portal password. After logging in, click on the COURSES tab at the top of the page to see your list of courses, then select EDUC 606.

General Requirements

- A. Class attendance is both important and required. If, due to an emergency, you will not be in class, you must contact your instructor prior to class time. Learners with more than two absences may drop a letter grade or lose course credit.
- B. All assignments are due no later than 11:59 PM EDT of the date indicated in each week's assignments published in the COURSE SCHEDULE AND TOPICS section of this Syllabus. Due dates are also posted on our Bb course site.
 - a. Grades for assignments date-stamped in Blackboard after the due date will be reduced by 10%, unless prior approval from instructor has been granted. No late submissions will be accepted after the course end date.
 - b. Assignments earning less than a passing grade may be rewritten and resubmitted so that the assignment is satisfactorily completed. In fact, because learning is the goal, I may require you to redo an assignment that is far below expectations.
- C. Please adhere to the assignment submission instructions listed in this syllabus. Only assignments submitted as indicated will be graded; incorrect submissions will result in a grade of zero for those assignments.
 - a. All assignments submitted should have the filename format LASTNAME-ASSIGNMENT TITLE. Please do not upload written assignments in PDF format. Other editable formats are acceptable (i.e., .doc, .docx, .rtf, .ppt, .pptx, .xlsx, .xlxs). Supporting documents for assignments can be in PDF format.
- D. All written work should be carefully edited for standard grammar and punctuation, as well as clarity of thought. All submitted work should be prepared through word processing and reflect APA style (6th edition), as well as double-spaced, with 1" margins, and 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial).

Assignments

	Points
Class Participation Class and CFG Engagement: 35 points	40

Portfolio Reflection Point 3: 5 points
Development of Research Study (incremental journal entries and formal drafts) Drafts: 4 points each Journals: 2 points each	20
Cultural Inquiry Study and Report (PBA)	40
Total Points	100

Class Participation

Class and CFG Engagement

You should come prepared to each class to actively participate in whole class and small group discussions. You will participate in various flexible groups for discussion throughout the semester. In whole class and small group discussions (whether conducted face-to-face or online) each person is expected to listen carefully and actively, raise questions, and encourage one another to think more deeply and more broadly. Please remember that your responses to others and the expertise you lend to any discussion are as important as what you share about your own work. You will also be part of a critical friends group that will be comprised of a small group of teachers who are exploring related cultural questions in their major projects. As a critical friend and fellow researcher, you will be expected to provide your own work for review and to provide quality feedback on your group members' work. See Class Participation Rubric in this syllabus for evaluation criteria.

Portfolio Reflection Point 3

As a part of the ASTL Core, participants will continue to build their Professional Portfolio and will add Reflection Point #3 (see the shaded box below) at the conclusion of EDUC 606. For additional detailed information about this Reflection Point, as well as the remainder of the Portfolio, please refer to the Portfolio Guidelines posted in the ASTL Core Cohorts 2013-14 Organization site on Blackboard. You will submit Reflection Point 3 to the ASTL Core Cohorts 2013-14 Org site and also upload it to your Professional Portfolio.

Cultural Inquiry Study and Report (The EDUC 606 Performance-Based Assessment)

The purpose of this culturally based action research study is to provide you the opportunity for a hands-on learning experience using cultural perspectives and methods to understand more about persons, students, yourself, or situations in educational settings. It is designed to hone your inquiry and research skills and to help you develop classroom based expertise in designing and monitoring appropriate educational changes to promote culturally responsive pedagogy. See this syllabus for assignment details and rubric.

Development of Research Study (journal entries and formal section drafts)

To facilitate your action research process, work on your study will be incrementally completed throughout the semester. There will be tasks (with resulting deliverables- either journal entries or formal paper drafts) to complete along the way that will aid you in planning, implementing, and writing the final report of your cultural inquiry. You will engage in these tasks both independently and/or with a group of critical friends who will help you to surface and refine your puzzlements and your resulting plan of action. When you engage in and complete these developmental tasks, you will receive feedback either from your critical friends group or your instructor. It is expected that you use this feedback to further refine your study. You will also give feedback to your critical friends. Evaluation criteria for research study journals and drafts will be based on timely completion.

PROMPT FOR ASTL PORTFOLIO REFLECTION POINT 3

Teacher as Researcher with a Cultural Perspective

In this section, you should focus on how coursework, related readings, and products in EDUC 606 have led you to focus more deeply on teachers as researchers with a cultural perspective toward their educational settings. Please reflect on your own learning and your growth and change at this point in the Core and consider your cultural and linguistic perspectives. In your reflection, please address any of the applicable eight program learning outcomes and the ways in which the performance assessments included in this section provide evidence of your knowledge.

Suggested course products to be used as evidence of knowledge:

- Cultural Inquiry Study and Report (EDUC 606)
- Selections from the Reflective Journal about research or cultural knowledge
- Personal reflection on culture/language and its impact on your classroom inquiry (written as a result of the CIP study)
- Other, as selected by individual (be specific)

Guidelines and suggested format for each of the Reflection Points

Length: Aim to limit your response to two well written pages

Focus: Each Reflection Point should include a short description, but will focus on interpretation and analysis of learning by synthesizing knowledge attained from that learning component of the Core coursework.

Format: Each reflection point describes, interprets, and examines why and how the course product(s) provide evidence of the ASTL principles addressed in that learning module. Here you should also discuss the impact of this course/learning module on your teaching practice and its impact on P-12 student learning.

GRADING SCALE

| 95-100 =A | 90-94 =A- | 86-89=B+ | 83-85=B | 80-82= B- | 70-79=C | Below 70=F |

TASKSTREAM REQUIREMENTS

Every student registered for EDUC 606, Education and Culture, is required to submit the following assessment, the Cultural Inquiry Study, to TaskStream. Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in TaskStream. Failure to submit the assessment to TaskStream will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required TaskStream submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.

GMU POLICIES AND RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

- a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code [See <http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code-2/>]
- b. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>]
- c. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- d. The George Mason University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students' personal experiences and academic performance [See <http://caps.gmu.edu/>]
- e. Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester [See <http://ods.gmu.edu/>]
- f. Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during the class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
- g. The George Mason University Writing Center staff provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing [See <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>]

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Professional dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.

Core values commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to Social justice, Innovation, Research-based practice, Ethical leadership, and Collaboration. Students are expected to adhere to these principles. [See <http://cehd.gmu.edu/values>]

Cultural Inquiry Study and Report (PBA)

Timeline for implementation of the Cultural Inquiry Process, including “deliverables”

Weeks	Tasks to be Accomplished
1-3	Observe your class: What questions are raised for you?; During Week 3, work with CFG to develop a puzzlement to investigate deeply (CIP steps 1 and 2)
4	Consider areas of potential cultural intersection; Select 1-2 cultural questions that will guide your inquiry (CIP step 3) DUE to instructor (Journal entry): Detailing what you will study (your puzzlement), why (rationale), and where (your setting). Journal entry will also identify the potential literature areas relevant to your study (culture and/language AND at least one other content related area).
5	Gather and read articles related to your puzzlement. Use these articles for your literature review chart due Week 6.
6	DUE to instructor (Journal entry): “Working” table of literature informing your study (at least 5 articles at this point, including 3 external to the course and 3 research articles) and list of emergent themes. Include a list of your references in APA 6th edition format.
7	DUE to instructor (Journal entry): plan for informational data collection and analysis (to be used to inform action plan) (CIP step 4)
8	Collect and analyze informational data
9	DUE to instructor (Journal entry): Plan your action(s) based on your informational data AND outline data collection and analysis methods that will be used to monitor your action(s) (CIP step 5)
10-13	Implement your action and collect data Weeks 10-13 (beginning CIP step 6) (while implementing and monitoring you’ll be putting together your report sections; See below for draft due dates)
10	Implement first step(s) of action; AND Write your Introducing the Study section (Puzzlement, Setting, Cultural Questions/Dimensions)
11	Continue implementing first step(s) of action; AND DUE to instructor (Section drafts): Submit your Introducing the Study (Puzzlement, Setting, Cultural Questions/Dimensions) AND Literature Review Drafts

12	Continue implementing action(s); AND DUE to CFG (Section drafts): Action, Data Collection, Data Analysis Methods Draft <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Action Details: Your action ▪ Data Collection: Information concerning how you are collecting data that will serve you in answering your question. A data table is helpful! ▪ Analysis of Data: Information concerning how you interpreted your initial and ongoing data and determined what action(s) to put in place and what next steps to take *Note: If your Spring Break is next week, this week you will need to continue implementing your action(s) and collecting your ‘final’ preliminary data.
13	Continue implementing action(s) and collecting ‘final’ preliminary data; AND Analyze data
14	DUE to CFG (Section drafts): All sections of paper REVISED plus Emerging Findings AND Conclusions/Implications Drafts for workshop
15	Oral Presentations/Sharing with One-Page Executive Summary (5/1)
16	Submit FINAL version of CIP paper to Taskstream on May 4 (with ALL sections revised AND final reflection)

Cultural Inquiry Process Steps (Jacob, 1999)

1. Select as your focus one or more students and identify your puzzlement(s) about the student(s).
2. Summarize what is already known about the focus individual(s) and the context.
3. Consider alternative cultural influences and select one or more of them to explore.
4. Gather and analyze relevant information as needed.
5. Develop and implement action(s) as needed.
6. Monitor the process and results of action(s).
7. Write a report of your CIP study.

*Reference handouts for details regarding the CIP steps.

Special Reminders for Writing the Report of Your Cultural Inquiry Study following the Cultural Inquiry Process (CIP) (Jacob, 1999)

- Your paper should follow APA 6th edition format and include correctly formatted references.
- To protect the anonymity of the people involved, use only pseudonyms for participants and proper names in your discussions and in the report.
- Write your report with your educational colleagues as the audience. Your written report should incorporate the CIP questions.
- Comprehensive evaluation criteria is provided in the rubric and will be discussed in class. We are here to support your work and help whenever we can. For your planning purposes, general criteria include the selection of appropriate topic, use of cultural perspectives, thorough data collection and analysis, connections to at least 8 references (at least 3 of which come from sources outside course readings, at least 3 of which are research studies), clear presentation of findings, thorough discussion, thoughtful reflections, clear organization and writing. This Cultural Inquiry Study builds on the research and data collection plans you followed in completing your 613 Case Study of a Learner.
- The final section is a 1-1.5 pages reflective narrative to be included at the end of the inquiry report-- you and your instructor are the primary audience. In this section, you should relate your project to EDUC 606 course outcomes and discuss what you personally learned from your inquiry. To do this, please respond to the following two prompts:
 - What was your most significant learning with regard to the interrelationship between culture and education?
 - What is the potential impact of this study on your teaching, your learning, and on the learning of the students in your classroom? Explain why.

Criteria for Evaluation: Refer to the PBA rubric.
