COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A. Prerequisite: Admission into the MEd Curriculum and Instruction concentration in Transformative Teaching program; completion of the EDUC 647 Critical Reflective Practice course.

B. Explores critical theories and pedagogies experientially, including alternative assessments that address educational equity and access, power, and approaches for deepening our practice as citizens in a democracy.

DELIVERY METHOD:

This course will be delivered online using synchronous and asynchronous formats via the Blackboard learning management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS:

To participate in this course, students will need the following resources:

- High-speed Internet access with a standard up-to-date browser, either Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox. Opera and Safari are not compatible with Blackboard;
- Consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of the course requirements.
- A headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool
- The following software plug-ins for Pcs and Macs respectively, available for free downloading by clicking on the link next to each plug-in:
  - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>
  - Windows Media Player: <http://windows.microsoft.com/en-US/windows/downloads/windows-media-player>
  - Apple QuickTime Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download/

EXPECTATIONS:

- Course Participation: Active and consistent participation in the course as described in the individual course syllabus is extremely important for online courses. Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which include viewing of all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions. The completion of all readings assigned for the course is assumed. Online courses will, at a minimum, have weekly requirements for student participation that can be documented by any or all of the following methods:

- Submission/completion of assignments as specified by the professors
- Communication with the professors
- Active, meaningful, and respectful communication with peers

Expect to log in to this course at least 3 times a week to read announcements, participate in the discussions, and work on course materials. Students must also regularly check their GMU email for communications from the instructors. Remember, this course is not self-paced. There are specific deadlines and due dates listed in the CLASS SCHEDULE section of this syllabus to which you are expected to adhere. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.

- Written Assignments: All formal written assignments will be evaluated for content and presentation. (Formal assignments do not include Blackboard discussions, class/course feedback, in-class reflections or journaling) The American Psychological Association, Sixth Edition (APA) style guide should be followed for formal written assignments. All written work unless otherwise noted must be completed on a word processor and should be proofread carefully. (Use spell check!) If students are not confident of their own ability to catch errors, they should have another person proofread their work. When in doubt, they should check the APA manual. Portions of the APA manual appear at the Style Manuals link on the Mason library web guide at <http://library.gmu.edu/resources/edu/>. Students may consult the Writing Center for additional writing support. Students will do the following:

- Present ideas in a clear, concise, and organized manner. (Avoid wordiness and redundancy.)
- Develop points coherently, definitively, and thoroughly.
- Refer to appropriate authorities, studies, and examples to document where appropriate. (Avoid meaningless generalizations, unwarranted assumptions, and unsupported opinions.)
- Use correct capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

- Sessions: Because our online courses do not have a "fixed" meeting day, our session will generally start on Wednesday and finish on Tuesday. Synchronous meetings will be arranged as needed.
- Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students are expected to seek assistance if they are struggling with technical components of the course.
- Technical Issues: Students should expect that they could experience some technical difficulties at some point in the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly.
- Mentoring/Advising: If you would like to schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues, and you are unable to come to the Mason campus, we can meet via telephone or web conference. Send an email to your instructors to schedule your one-on-one session and include your preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

- Netiquette: Our goal is to be collaborative, not combative. Experience shows that even an innocent remark in the online environment can be misconstrued. We suggest that you always re-read your responses carefully before you post them to encourage others from taking them as personal attacks. Be positive in your approach to others and diplomatic with your words. We will do the same. Remember, you are not competing with each other but sharing information and learning from one another as well as from the instructors.

LEARNER OBJECTIVES:

This course is designed to enable students to:

1. Explore and practice the language and perspectives of critical theory and pedagogy and to consider their implications.
2. Examine roles and responsibilities of being a critical educator.
3. Review and re-frame their professional practice in the language and action of critical theory and critical pedagogy.
4. Use a critical stance to engage in:
  - Teacher action research
  - Reflection
  - Dialogue in a community of learners

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS:

This course fits with the core values of the College of Education and Human Development, which include collaboration, research based practice, innovation, ethical leadership, and social justice.

This course is designed to meet the following professional teaching standards:

- GMU Dispositions for a Career Educator V
  - Commitment to Democratic Values and Social Justice
- Teachers College Columbia Teacher Expectation IV
  - Advocates of Social Justice and Diversity
- NBPTS Propositions 1
  - Teachers are Committed to Students and Their Learning

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Apple, M. (2002). Power, meaning, and identity: Essays in critical educational studies. Vol. 109 Counterpoints. NY: Peter Lang. [chapters 2 & 5]. These chapters will be provided on Bb.

Freire, P. (1970/1998). Pedagogy of the oppressed. New York: Continuum Publishing. [chapter 2]. This chapter will be provided on Bb.

Wink, J. (2005). Critical pedagogy: Notes from the real world (3rd ed.). New York: Addison Wesley Longman (chapters 3, 4 & 5).

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS: (aligned with outcomes/objectives)

1. Assignment descriptions

- Class Participation (Assesses objectives 1, 2, 3 & 4)
- Equity Audit (Assesses objectives 1, 2, 3 & 4) Guidelines will be distributed.
- The Student Case Study Project (Assesses objectives 1, 2, 3 & 4)
This project is designed to expand your understanding of multicultural and critical issues in the classroom through a case study. The process will enable you to examine a situation from multiple perspectives and expand your understanding of the context in which the situation has developed. The project will engage you in the process of critical pedagogy as you name, reflect critically and prepare to act in a moral and responsive way. In order to fully and systematically explore the cultural and critical issues, you will engage in a process of data collection through observations and conversations with students and parents. You will organize and analyze the data you collect to present evidence needed to construct and support your claims and conclusions. (Detailed guidelines will be distributed).

Your grade for the Student Case Study Project will be determined as follows:

First reflective research report	10 points
Notes from the observations	10 points
Notes from the conversations	10 points
Second reflective research report	15 points
Total:	45 points

2. Assignment weighting (points)

Class Participation
Session 1	5 points
Session 2	5 points
Session 5	5 points
Session 8	5 points
Equity Audit	35 points
The Student Case Study Project	45 points

3. Grading policies – grade distribution:

95-100	A
90-94	A-
87-89	B+
83-86	B
80-82	B-
75-79	C
74 and below	F

GMU POLICIES AND RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

- a. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code (See <http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/>).
- b. Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>).
- c. Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their George Mason University email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
