COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND EXAMINATIONS:

Class Participation: Active participation in whole-group and small-group interactions is a crucial element of this class. Your class participation grade will reflect the quality as well as quantity of your participation. Such participation can only occur when you are present and engaged. In this regard, in class assignments/reflections will be used to engage your thinking on the day's topic. (150 points: 15 points for each for 10 class reflections and participation in class)

Read and Respond: The assignment will be given during class and on Blackboard. Students are to place their responses on Blackboard as directed in class. There will be 10 assignments (150 points = 10 responses at 15 points each)

Be a Teacher for 15 Minutes: You want to be a teacher...here's your chance! Create and present information to our class on a topic under one of the approved topics related to student diversity. Approval and sign-up required. (100 points: see values under Assignments on Blackboard)

Multicultural Research: Read three current professional journal articles on multiculturalism and/or multicultural education and be ready to discuss them in class. Provide the following information for each source including proper references: 3 key concepts, 1 paragraph showing connections and applications, and 1 quotes from each source worthy of class discussion. (100 points: 45 points for 3 key concepts per article; 39 points for making connections/applications of the articles, 15 points for a quote from each source worthy of class discussion, 1points for proper references)

Professional Conversation with a Current Public School Teacher aka: Teacher Interview: Engage in a dialogue with a teacher to learn how this educator addresses the needs of diverse children. More details related to the topics will be given in class. Take notes or record the interview. A class discussion will be held on the topics. You will be required to share insights you have gained through your conversation which reinforces or negates (from the teacher's perspective) concepts learned in the course. Please probe for examples to illustrate the teacher' comments. Respond in writing. Give the grade level and demographics of the students with whom this teacher works, and the number of years this teacher has taught and scope of his/her experience. Use the following format for each of 5 topic of discussion. A. Write the question and the teacher’s answer. (4 points) B. State the follow up question you asked and further knowledge you gained. (4 points) C. Tell about the connection that you made related to what we have studied this semester in EDUC 301. (4 points) D. What questions do you now have about what you learned about this diverse population? (4 points) E. In a summary paragraph, for this topic, explain, in detail, what you think teachers must do for diverse students. (4 points) Total 100 points

Field Experience: Observe in a public school setting for a minimum of 10 hours to include: at least 45 minutes in a Professional Learning Community meeting; and at least 45 minutes in a Special Education or IEP meeting or 504 screening meeting or 504 Plan meeting; and at least 7 hours in a special education or regular education classroom. A reflection paper is worth 100 points. See Blackboard for the requirements.

Examinations: There will be no formal tests or quizzes.
