Course Requirements

1. Class Participation- Based on attendance, arriving on time, and active participation in the class discussions and exercises. Please note that you must attend both classes in their entirety. [50 points]

2. Final Paper- Students may choose one of the following four options. Final papers should be written according to APA-format. Due Wednesday 10/14/15-upload to Blackboard by 11:59 pm [50 points]
   A. Attend a GLBTQ community event that takes place between 9/12/15 and 10/14/15 and write a 3-4 page (double-spaced) paper reflecting on the experience. Possible points of reflection include:
      • Why you chose the event you attended
      • How did you feel in anticipation of attending the event?
• What did you learn about the GLBTQ community as a result of attending the event?
• What observations did you make at the event?
• Discuss any interactions you had at the event
• How did you feel while at the event?
• Any other thoughts, feelings, or reactions

The paper should also provide a brief description of the event and include the date, time, and location of the event. Good resources for learning about events in the GLBTQ community are Metro Weekly (www.metroweekly.com) and the Washington Blade (www.washblade.com).

B. Interview a member of the LGBTQ community and write a 3-4 page (double-spaced) paper discussing the content of the interview and what you learned from the interview about the experience of being GLBT. Be sure that your paper is a discussion of the interview and not simply a transcript of the interview. Possible interview questions include:
• How do you identify (i.e., gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, queer, etc)?
• What does this identification mean to you?
• Discuss the journey that led to the realization of your identity
• At what age did you discover this identity?
• Who was the first person you shared this with?
• How did that person respond to you?
• What is your favorite aspect of being part of the GLBTQ community?
• What challenges have you encountered as a result of your identity?
• What advice would you give to a future counselor who will be working with members of the GLBT community?
• Any other questions you would like to ask

C. Select an article that was published within the past three years from a peer-reviewed journal in the fields of counseling, psychology, social work, or education that discusses an issue related to the LGBTQ population. Read the article and write a 3-4 page (double-spaced) paper reflecting on the article. Include a brief summary of the article, reactions you experienced in response to the content of the article, and implications for counseling, social justice, and advocacy with this population. When uploading your paper to Blackboard, also include a link or pdf of your article, so that it can be accessed by the instructor.

D. Select a current events article written in the past one year from a mainstream media source (i.e., newspaper, magazine, etc) that addresses an issue within the LGBTQ community (accessing the article online is fine). Read the article and write a 3-4 page (double-spaced) paper reflecting on the article. Include a brief summary of the article, reactions you experienced in response to the content of the article, and implications for counseling, social justice, and advocacy with this population. When uploading your paper to Blackboard, also include a link or pdf of your article, so that it can be accessed by the instructor.
