COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines the principles of planning and policy that apply to integrated and sustainable tourism development at the international, national, state, regional, local and site scale. Government, industry, and community perspectives are taken into consideration.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course students should be able to:

1. Understand the concepts of tourism planning and tourism policy;
2. Explain the relationship between policy for, and planning of, tourism;
3. Develop their power of analysis in relation to tourism development planning; and
4. Appreciate tourism policy and planning implementation guidelines and associated challenges within a variety of local, regional, national, and international settings.

COURSE OVERVIEW

The content of this course will be presented through lectures and class discussions. PowerPoint slides will be used to provide a visual guide for the lectures and discussions, and may be made available to students when, and as, deemed necessary by the professor. Students will demonstrate their comprehension of the course material through in-class activities and discussions, take-home assignments, quizzes, and exams. There will be opportunities for students to work in groups to provide avenues for growth in the areas of leadership, communication, and accountability. Students will be expected to adhere to the guidelines listed in the syllabus, as well as all additional course policies provided together with this document, and during the semester. Detailed instructions for assignments will be posted on Blackboard.

NATURE OF COURSE DELIVERY

This course will be offered in a face-to-face or in-class format. Please note, however, that if for any unforeseen circumstances the class is unable to meet, the particular session will be offered online, and students will be expected to follow the additional directions, as provided.

REQUIRED READINGS

Edgell, Sr., D. L., & Swanson, J. R. (2013). Tourism policy and planning: yesterday, today and tomorrow. (2nd ed.). New York, NY: Routledge.

Additional Readings

Additional readings will be made available as needed through the Reserve (or E-Reserve) at the Fenwick (Fairfax campus) and/or Mercer (Prince William campus) Libraries; posted on Blackboard (9.1); or distributed in class.

EVALUATION

This course will be graded on a point system, with a total of 100 possible percentage points.

Assignments	Points
A. Examination
Midterm (A1) --The exam will include information from the text, course slides, class notes, and any other source(s) indicated by the Professor, covered from the beginning of the semester to the date of the review for the midterm exam. Questions will be in the form of Multiple Choice questions, or True-or-False statements, or Short Essay questions, OR a combination of the different formats. The time allotted will depend on the type(s) and/or number of questions.	20%
Final (A2) --The exam will include information from the text, course slides, class notes, and any other source(s) indicated by the Professor, covered from the Midterm Examination to the date of the review for the final exam. However, information from before the Midterm Examination may be included. Questions will be in the form of Multiple Choice questions, or True-or-False statements, or Short Essay questions, OR a combination of the different formats. The time allotted will depend on the type(s) and/or number of questions.	20%
B. Country Tourism Policy Analysis Paper and Presentation -- Students, working in groups, will conduct an analysis of the tourism policy of a country (the USA and all countries covered in the text are excluded). Each group will then present their paper (using PowerPoint slides) to the rest of the class. Both the report and presentation will be due on the applicable date stated on the Tentative Course Schedule. Detailed instructions for the paper and presentation will be provided at a later date, via Blackboard. Students will be expected to present wearing a Business Suit (business professional attire).	25%
C. Quizzes -- Students will be expected to take five (5) unscheduled quizzes based on the text, and other material covered in class and through assignments. Quizzes will be taken on Blackboard and will be timed. Quiz questions will be in the form of Multiple Choice questions, or True-or-False statements, or Short Essay questions, OR a combination of the different formats. The time allotted will depend on the type(s) and/or number of questions. The quiz with the lowest score will be dropped.	20%
D. Attendance/Participation -- Participation points will be scored based on students' active participation in class discussions reflected through written responses in-class, and/or in take-home assignments. These written responses will be submitted individually, or by a group. Students will be informed of how many participation points each activity/assignment is worth. ONLY responses that are submitted, when they are due, will receive the points. There will be no scheduled dates for these participation activities/assignments. Participation points will also be received from the average of group members' evaluations of students' performance in the group.	15%
-- Participation points may also be received from short quizzes completed at the beginning of class based on the assigned reading or other take-home assignments.
-- Students will also receive specific and separate points for Attendance.
TOTAL	100%

*A comprehensive list of course and classroom requirements and policies will be provided with the Syllabus on Blackboard.

Detailed instructions for assignments will be provided at a later date, via Blackboard. *****

Grading Scale

A = 94 – 100	B+ = 87 – 89	C+ = 77 – 79	D = 60 – 69
A- = 90 – 93	B = 84 – 86	C = 74 – 76	F = 0 – 59
	B- = 80 – 83	C- = 70 – 73

Percentage Score Calculation Formula:

- Percentage Score for Each Grade Category = %
- Total Score Student Receives for the Particular Assignment = A
- Highest Possible Percentage Score Assigned for the Particular Assignment = B
- Highest Possible Score for the Particular Assignment = C

$$\% = (A * B) \div C$$
