COURSE DESCRIPTION

Principles and techniques of planning and operating sport facilities. Emphasizes principles and concepts of organization and administration including communication, personnel management, management of physical resources, and risk management. Examines variety of sport operations such as indoor stadiums, athletic field complexes, and managing recreation and intramural activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be able to demonstrate a working knowledge and understanding of athletic and recreation facility management concepts such as:

- The operational structure and management concepts associated within the operation of sport and recreation facilities;
- How risk management is an integral part of the ongoing process of planning and operation of sport and recreation facilities;
- How current and past global events have influenced how sports operation facility management is conducted today; and
- The use of assessment tools such as a SWOT analysis (SWOT analysis — a structured planning method used to evaluate the Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats); AARs (After Action Reviews), feasibility studies; focus groups; and surveys in facility planning and operations.

In addition, students will gain working knowledge, skills and ability to:

- Understand and critique what elements are vital to produce a successful event at different facilities involved in a project or in a business venture;
- Utilize the case analysis process to compare the management and operations of different sport and recreation facilities; and
- Learn how to function as a leader and productive member of a management team and to identify and internalize the factors involved in successful team leadership and management.

STUDENT / COURSE EXPECTATIONS

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the George Mason University Honor Code. [See <http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/>]
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS) and inform their instructor, in writing, at the beginning of the semester. [See <http://ods.gmu.edu/>].
- Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times.
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing. [See <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/1301gen.html>].

In addition, I expect you:

- To be responsible for your own learning.
- To attend ALL classes for the entire term. If you miss a class (or expect to):
  - You must notify me by e-mail before missing any class — or you will be marked absent.
  - It is your responsibility to find out what happened during any missed class(es), including completing any homework (HW) assigned on time.
- To read and familiarize yourself with the assigned textbook reading(s) and / or related articles to enable you to participate fully and actively in class dialogue.
- To submit all HW by e-mail to me NLT 6p the Tuesday night b4 class unless otherwise specified. NO credit will be given 4 late assignments (unless you have my prior approval).
  - Submit format HW and Special Projects in Arial font, 12-point.
  - Include your name, date, and “SPMT-405 Sp 2016” in the upper left corner of all submissions.
- To use your MasonLIVE e-mail account to receive important University information. See <http://masonlive.gmu.edu> for more information.
- Puh-leeze... NO cell phone use or messaging during actual class time; use during breaks is OK.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT OF ME?

- Concomitant with my expectation of you, I will come prepared 4 every class.
- To start every class promptly at 4:30p + to conclude NLT 7:10p — and to have at least a 10-minute break mid-stream (if the class so chooses).
- To provide you a written single-page agenda b4 the start of each respective class.
- To assign clear, concise + unambiguous HW assignments + Special Projects (2).
- To provide you (1+1) a current progress reporting of your performance + projected course grade (@ sustained current performance levels) during class time (TBD ~April 6)
