- Assignments and/or Examinations

Language & Literacy-Rich Classroom Environmental Design (15 points)

Students will design a language and literacy-rich environment for a prekindergarten or kindergarten classroom. Students will do the following:

- Make a sketch of a classroom, identifying environmental features that promote language and literacy development.
- Describe how YOUR classroom environmental design promotes language and literacy development in young children.
• Cite class readings, handouts, resources, and discussions to support description and include a reference list formatted in APA style.

Family Communication on Developing Linguistic Competence (20 points)

Students will develop a communication (e.g., newsletter, brochure, webpage, blog, etc.) focused on developing prekindergarten and kindergarten children’s linguistic competence in one or more of the following areas: phonetics, semantics, syntax, morphology, phonology, and pragmatics. Students will include the following:

• Background information, including family-friendly definitions and examples, supported by class readings, handouts, resources, and discussions;
• Two recommended, family-friendly, and culturally responsive activities families can do at home or in the community that develop their child’s linguistic competence;
• A description of one resource families can access to support their child’s language development; and
• A reference list of the sources cited formatted in APA style.

The communication will be created in an engaging and family-friendly format and will be no longer than two single-spaced pages.

Interactive Reading and Writing Experiences Plans (50 points)

Students will plan an interactive reading experience and an interactive writing experience for prekindergarten or kindergarten children. They will do the following for each lesson:

• Part 1: Plan a Reading Experience. Plan a read aloud experience and several extension activities.
  o Evaluate three books to use during a read aloud, using the evaluation form provided in class.
  o Select one book to read to a group of prekindergarten or kindergarten children and write a rationale for the selection of this book.
  o Write a read aloud lesson plan using the lesson plan format provided by the instructor.
  o Describe at least two extension activities that extend the read aloud, including at least one that involves a play-based learning activity.
  o Support instructional decisions (i.e., rationale for the book selection, the lesson plan activities, and the extension activities) by citing class readings, handouts, resources, and discussions and including a reference list of the sources cited in APA style.

• Part 2: Plan a Writing Experience. Plan a writing experience and extension activities.
  o Write a lesson plan using the lesson plan format provided by the instructor.
  o Describe at least two extension activities that extend the writing experience, including at least one that involves a play-based learning activity.
  o Support instructional decisions (i.e., rationale for the book selection, the lesson plan activities, and the extension activities) by citing class readings, handouts, resources, and discussions and including a reference list of the sources cited in APA style.
• Other Requirements

Attendance and Participation (15 points)
Because active participation and engagement are imperative for optimal learning, preparation for and participation in in-class activities will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Students attend class, arrive on time, and stay for the entire class period.
- Students complete readings and prepare for class activities prior to class as is evidenced by their ability to discuss and write about the concepts presented and examined in the texts as well as participate fully in related activities.
- Students are actively involved in in-class and online learning experiences as is evidenced by (1) participating in all activities, (2) engaging in small- and large-group discussions, (3) completing written work related to the activities, and (4) supporting the participation and learning of classmates.
- Students show evidence of critical reflective thinking through in-class and online discussions, activities, and written reflections.
- Students will complete all on-line modules on Blackboard as assigned.

Written Assignments
All formal written assignments will be evaluated for content and presentation. The American Psychological Association, Sixth Edition (APA) style will be followed for all written work. All written work unless otherwise noted must be completed on a word processor and should be proofread carefully. (Use spell check!) If students are not confident of their own ability to catch errors, they should have another person proofread their work. When in doubt, they should check the APA manual. Portions of the APA manual appear at the Style Manuals link on the Mason library web at http://infoguides.gmu.edu/content.php?pid=39979. Students may consult the Writing Center for additional writing support.

Students will do the following:
1. Present ideas in a clear, concise, and organized manner. (Avoid wordiness and redundancy.)
2. Develop points coherently, definitively, and thoroughly.
3. Refer to appropriate authorities, studies, and examples to document where appropriate. (Avoid meaningless generalizations, unwarranted assumptions, and unsupported opinions.)
4. Use correct capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.

Type the paper with double spacing, indented paragraphs, 1-inch margins all around, and 12-point Times New Roman font.
