University Catalog Course Description

Introduces basic body mechanics of throwing, sweeping, grappling, and submission skills used in Judo and for self-defense. Presents the history of judo, rules of the sport, and proper safety and falling techniques.

Course Overview

1. Students with injuries or pre-existing conditions that may affect performance must inform the instructor.
2. All communication will be through GMU e-mail.
3. Those with Judo uniforms are encouraged to wear them. Long sweat pants or “Gi” pants are recommended; however, shorts may also be worn. Students may wear a short or long sleeved t-shirt.
4. Students will NOT wear shoes, tank tops, jeans or “cut offs” of any kind. All jewelry and accessories MUST be removed before class and stored properly.
5. Consistent attendance is necessary to develop minimum acceptable performance. Attendance will be taken during each class. To earn full credit for class participation/attendance students shall adhere to the following five areas.

Each class will include a brief warm-up period, stretching to increase range-of-motion and prevent injury, strengthening exercises to improve upper and lower body strength and a cool-down period. Students will be expected to maintain a minimal level of physical fitness involving cardiovascular conditioning and torso, back and abdominal strength.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered using a face-to-face format.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives
