Professional Standards (CACREP)
This class is a core course within the Counseling & Development Program and specifically addresses the C&D mission statement. It directly addresses the new role of the counselor in community and school settings, as well as to provide skills, techniques, and strategies for counselors to be effective with their clients. The course builds on all the other courses in the program and provides students with advance techniques and strategies in work within institutions and systems.

EDCD 628 fulfills the requirements and standards of the following professional organizations
Virginia Department of Education, Virginia Department of Health Professions, American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP-Section II.K.b: An understanding of the cultural context of relationships, issues and trends in a multicultural and diverse society and CACREP-Section II.K.c: An understanding of the nature and needs of individuals at all developmental levels). Furthermore, the above organizations state that the primary responsibility of counselors is to respect the dignity and to promote the welfare of clients.

Classroom Participation and Attendance Policy:
Classroom participation is a vital part of this course. Due to the limited time frame, class attendance is indispensable. Therefore it is expected that students will attend all classes (which includes arriving on time and staying for the entire class) and participate fully in class discussions and exercises. Grades for this portion will be assigned due to the quality of participation (see blackboard for participation rubric). If students miss more than 1 class without an acceptable reason (e.g., family emergency, illness with a doctor’s certificate) they may not receive a passing grade for the course. If there is a scheduling conflict that interferes with attendance during any portion of the class, students should see the instructor in the first class to discuss continuing in the class this semester or taking the course during another semester. The first day of class is mandatory.

Every student registered for any C&D Program course (i.e., EDCD 628) with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, Assignment 2 to Blackboard (regardless of whether a course is an elective, a onetime course or part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in Blackboard. Failure to submit the assessment to Blackboard will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required Blackboard submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester. Detail information on how to submit Assignment 2 to Blackboard that will be the portal to access the new electronic assessment site, Tk20 will be given in the 1st class. In addition, students are also required to submit Assignment 2 to safeassign on Blackboard to check for plagiarism.

Written Assignments:
All written assignments must be completed on a word processor. Assignments are to be turned in at the beginning of class on the date due. Late assignments will not be accepted without making prior arrangements with the instructor. In addition, all work submitted in this course must be your own or attributed to the proper author using the appropriate research reference format (APA).

- Other Requirements
  First Day of Class and the Saturday Class are Mandatory

  If there is a scheduling conflict that interferes with attendance during any portion of the class students, should see the instructor in the first class to discuss continuing in the class this semester or taking the course during another semester.

  All Assignments must be submitted to Safe assign via Blackboard by 4:30 p.m. the due date to check for plagiarism. Assignments that are not submitted to Safe assign will not receive a grade.

  All hardcopies of the assignments are due at the beginning of class, i.e., 4:30, no late assignments will be accepted.

  C&D Professional Performance Criteria
  The American Counseling Association code of ethics requires counselors and counselor trainees to maintain standards of professional competence and possess good moral character. Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/).

- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).

- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.

- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see http://ods.gmu.edu/).

- Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound emitting devices shall be silenced during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- Support for submission of assignments to Tk20 should be directed to tk20help@gmu.edu or https://cehd.gmu.edu/aero/tk20. Questions or concerns regarding use of Blackboard should be directed to http://coursessupport.gmu.edu/.
• The Writing Center provides a variety of resources and services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, writing guides, handbooks) intended to support students as they work to construct and share knowledge through writing (see http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/).

• The Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff consists of professional counseling and clinical psychologists, social workers, and counselors who offer a wide range of services (e.g., individual and group counseling, workshops and outreach programs) to enhance students’ personal experience and academic performance (see http://caps.gmu.edu/).

• The Student Support & Advocacy Center staff helps students develop and maintain healthy lifestyles through confidential one-on-one support as well as through interactive programs and resources. Some of the topics they address are healthy relationships, stress management, nutrition, sexual assault, drug and alcohol use, and sexual health (see http://ssac.gmu.edu/). Students in need of these services may contact the office by phone at 703-993-3686. Concerned students, faculty and staff may also make a referral to express concern for the safety or well-being of a Mason student or the community by going to http://ssac.gmu.edu/make-a-referral/.
