University Catalog Course Description

Provides supervised practice in a counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work with an emphasis on the counseling process.

Course Overview

This course provides supervised practice for a minimum of 200 hours (for school counseling students) and 300 hours (for community agency students) in a counseling setting similar to the setting in which the student may work. This is a weekly graduate class with an emphasis on the counseling process.

The internship course is an arranged, supervised experience in counseling. The course aims to provide skills in working towards social justice, developing advanced multicultural counseling intervention skills, developing skills in leadership and advocacy to effectively design and implement community prevention programs, and developing ways to improve theoretical conceptualizations of applied interventions. Thus, the focus of the course will be on providing professional counseling within the parameters of the George Mason University Counseling and Development Program mission, e.g., multiculturalism, advocacy, leadership, and social justice.

During the semester, students will present, discuss, and conceptualize their counseling work, explore culturally specific interventions, explore applications of social justice to their counseling work, examine countertransference as it relates to the counseling process, and plan and develop required activities which include an evaluation of their practicum site. Students will be required to see at least two (2) clients for a minimum of four (4) sessions each during the semester. Clients should consist of individual, family, and group cases. Class seminars will consist of role-plays, case processing; and discussion of professional issues, personal reactions to clients, and program evaluation and development. Because of the serious nature of this work, it is essential that students discuss their reactions and feelings. Such discussions, however, cannot take place outside the context of a supervised class or appropriate site circumstance. You may not discuss cases in other classes, with friends or relatives, or in social situations since it is essential to maintain confidentiality. Violations of this principle in any form will be treated as a serious ethical/legal infraction. It is also imperative that you discuss cases with your on-site supervisor. If you have questions or concerns that need immediate attention, please call, or email the instructor.

Course Delivery Method

This course will incorporate lectures, full class and small group discussions, cooperative learning groups, student presentations, personal reflection, and hands-on learning activities.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

1. Provide an opportunity for practicing competencies developed throughout the graduate training program.
2. Provide an orientation to the organizational structure, protocol, relationships, and working conditions in community agency counseling settings.
3. Explore counseling strategies for individuals, groups, and families within a culturally diverse framework.
4. Stimulate the formulation of, and identification with, a professional role.
5. Provide an awareness and skills in facilitating the process of community and school integration and intervention in meeting the needs of clients.
6. Implement practices conducive to social justice and human rights.
7. Inculcate high standards of professional ethics; to give experience involving ethical decision-making and practice related to counseling.
8. More effectively understand the nature of the changing role of the professional counselor that includes advocacy, leadership, and social justice.
9. Develop prevention programs within a community context.
10. Work collaboratively with colleagues from other disciplines in order to more effectively meet organizational goals.

Professional Standards (Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs-CACREP)

EDCD 791 is the culminating course for C&D graduate students. The internship experience is designed to enhance those skills acquired in the graduate program. The course will provide opportunities to refine advanced skills and reflect on ways to improve understanding and conceptual ability. Additional emphasis will be on C&D's basic mission statement, stressing the need for counselors to demonstrate Social Justice, Advocacy, Leadership, and Multicultural Competencies. The class fulfills the requirements for the following professional organizations:

- Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) requirements that counselor education programs include the study of helping relationships.
 - o CACREP-Section II.K.a: An understanding of all aspects of professional functioning; and
 - o CACREP-Section SCP.D: Clinical Instruction.
- American Counseling Association (ACA) Code of Ethics requirement that counselors establish counselor education and training programs that integrate academic study and supervised practice.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

Each student will:

1. Attend each class and complete all assignments and readings. Per C&D Program Attendance Policy, more than one unexcused absence will result in course failure.
2. Participate and contribute to class discussions and activities.

All written assignments must be typed and must follow APA format unless indicated by instructor. Grading on written work will consider the following factors: quality of written work and adherence to requirements of assignment. As a graduate student, it is expected that all your work will be turned in on the assigned dates. A late assignment will be subject to a grade penalty.

Assignments and/or Examinations

- A minimum of 300 hours in the field placement. One hundred and twenty (120) of your field placement hours must be face-to-face counseling hours that include work with individuals, groups, and families. For PCLC students, one hundred and fifty (150) hours of face-to-face hours are required. Achieving the hours required to pass this class is the sole responsibility of the student. It is encouraged that you work with at least one group and/or family during the practicum. Final site hours log must be signed by student and on-site supervisor, and submitted no later than May ____, 2018.
- Class Participation (20 points). Class participation and attendance are of critical importance for internship. Students are expected to fully participate in all classes and take the initiative for presenting their work for evaluation, as well as engaging in critical analysis and providing feedback of classmates' work. As part of your participation grade, you are required to give a case presentation as noted below.
- Presentation. You will make at least two case presentations in which you provide a brief background and conceptualization of your client, therapy goals, work to date with the client, and questions you have for the class. An outline with the format for the presentation will be provided. Although not formally graded, this presentation is included as part of your class participation and will allow you the opportunity to receive feedback and assistance from your peers and instructor for both personal and professional growth. Presentation dates will be assigned during the first night of class. A transcript of a brief section of the session can be very helpful to the presentation, particularly if audio quality is not good.
- Readings. Students are expected to read the assigned chapters from the assigned book and other readings, and be prepared for class discussions about the material. We will practice skill building exercises in class to reinforce the therapeutic techniques discussed in the readings.
- Recordings and Transcripts (20 points).* Students should have two recordings and transcripts notes to be handed in during the semester (these should be two different clients; please see Dr. Andrews if this poses a challenge for you). Each recording should be no more than 20 minute in length.
- Please provide a brief description (one paragraph) of your client and his or her presenting issue. In addition, state the primary focus that you are working on with. Format your transcript as follows: a) transcript in the first column; b) in a second column note the main counseling themes and interventions you are using; c) in a third column discuss whether the interventions were effective or ineffective and any reactions you are having to your client (e.g., countertransference). Note case-relevant ethical and diversity considerations. If you choose, the tapes you use for your transcripts can be used for case presentation. You must include a signed “permission to tape” form [See P&I Bb]. The instructor may request additional recordings from students based on overall assessments by the instructor and the Site Supervisor.

- Supervision (30 points; on-site supervisor evaluation). Weekly supervisory sessions with your individual supervisor at your placement site are required. Site supervisors will complete mid-semester (due March 14) and final (due by May 9) evaluations of each student. Students must pass these evaluations (receive a B or better) to pass the internship course. Final supervisor evaluations must be uploaded to Blackboard.
- Short-term Prevention Program (30 points). In collaboration with the site and university supervisor, students should develop a Short-term Prevention Program addressing one problem facing their community agency site. This assignment is designed to encourage in- depth exploration of a special interest or area needing special attention at your training site. This program should be developed in conjunction with your university and site supervisors and address a need in the surrounding community. Programs should target a specific issue of concern. A 4-5 page final prevention program summary will be required, including the following sections: 1) description of the problem; 2) a brief literature review; 3) a description of the project; and 4) a description of the outcome. For most students this assignment will build on the project you developed during practicum. Often this will involve implementing the project (e.g., running a group). The student will then write a project summary discussing the outcome, extending or building upon the proposal submitted during practicum.
- Counseling Surveys. Students are required to complete three Counseling Surveys with their clients during the semester. The Counseling Survey can be accessed on Blackboard in the Community Agency Required Forms folder. The paper copies of these surveys will be submitted to Dr. Andrews.
- Counseling Survey. Students must turn in a minimum of 3 counseling surveys completed with clients by the end of the semester. Surveys can be found on the course blackboard site, and the C&D blackboard site. The paper copies of these surveys will be submitted to Dr. Stone; students will complete a client feedback report averaging scores from all survey and upload this to Blackboard by December 4.

Other Requirements

Included in the assignments is the requirement that the following must also be met to receive a passing grade:

- Completion of all assignments of acceptable quality, turned in by date due.
- Attendance at all classes and at internship site. More than one unexcused absence will result in not receiving credit for the course. Late arrivals to class count toward an unexcused absence.
- Active classroom participation, including providing constructive feedback and suggestions for classmates.
- Satisfactory mid-term and final evaluation from on-site supervisor. Supervisors will submit a formal evaluation midway through the semester and a final formal evaluation at the end of the semester. Students who receive unsatisfactory supervisory evaluations (below average scores) may not pass the course.
- Completion of the required field placement hours. There are no exceptions to this rule. Students must complete all required hours to pass this course.

Grading

EDCD 791 is a pass or fail course. Students must achieve a passing grade in order to successfully complete/pass the requirements of the Internship. Students will be evaluated on the course requirements as listed above. It is expected that all students will demonstrate skills through class participation, presentations, evaluations, and assigned projects and papers. Consultation with university and on-site supervisors regarding the intern's performance will occur during the semester and scores lower than a three on your final evaluation from your on-site supervisor could result in course failure.

Internship verification form reminders:

All students who are planning to pursue licensure should have their internship instructor fill out their verification of internship forms by the end of the semester. Failure to do so could result in delaying your LPC application process, since you must have your internship professor and site supervisor complete these forms. Verification of internship forms can be downloaded from the VA Board of Counseling website (www.dhp.state.va.us/counseling).

Graduation/exit interview survey reminders:

Students who plan to graduate in December 2017 should apply online for graduation by should visit the Registrar's office at <http://registrar.gmu.edu/graduation/index.html> for additional information regarding graduation procedures. You must file the graduation intent form online. Check the due date. In addition, all graduating students should complete a C&D exit interview online survey. A link for this online survey will be emailed to you by the C&D faculty/staff towards the end of the semester. All exit interviews will be anonymous

Selected performance-based assessment

The performance-based assessments for this course are the on-site supervisor final evaluation, and client satisfactions surveys. These must be uploaded to Blackboard as part of the final grade. See rubrics at the end of the syllabus.

TK20 PERFORMANCE-BASED ASSESSMENT SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

Every student registered for any Counseling & Development course with a required performance-based assessment is required to submit this assessment, On-Site Supervisor Final Evaluation; and Client Feedback Report, to Tk20 through Blackboard (regardless of whether the student is taking the course as an elective, a onetime course or as part of an undergraduate minor). Evaluation of the performance-based assessment by the course instructor will also be completed in Tk20 through Blackboard. Failure to submit the assessment to Tk20 (through Blackboard) will result in the course instructor reporting the course grade as Incomplete (IN). Unless the IN grade is changed upon completion of the required Tk20 submission, the IN will convert to an F nine weeks into the following semester.
