Understanding and Integrating Developmental Pathways Case Studies Analysis (75 points)

This is Key Assessment 2 Content Knowledge: Understanding Development and Learning Case Studies Analysis that shows evidence of meeting CEC and NAEYC Standards. Students will submit the case studies analysis in three parts: (a) infant/toddler, (b) preschool, and (c) early elementary. Students will consolidate the three case study analyses into one document and will submit the consolidated document to Tk20 through Blackboard. Final course grades will not be released until the consolidated document is uploaded. The assessment description and scoring rubric are attached. Each case study analysis is worth 25 points and requires the following parts:

- Part 1: Identifying Children’s Unique Characteristics and Needs (12 points)
- Part 2: Describing Developmental Theories (6 points)
- Part 3: Multiple Influences on Young Children’s Development (7 points)

Revised Case Study Analyses (10 points)

Upon completion of Case Study 1 Infant and Toddlers and Case Study 2 Preschool, students will receive feedback from the course instructor with suggestions for strengthening their discussion of each case study analysis. Instructor feedback is provided to ensure candidates meet expectations as defined in the assessment rubric. Students will use the feedback to revise the case study analyses. Accordingly, students will resubmit each revised Case Study to Blackboard by the specified due date. All three Case Studies (e.g. revised infant/toddler, revised preschool, and early elementary) will be consolidated into one document and submitted to Tk20 by the due date indicated on the syllabus.

- Other Requirements
Attendance and Participation (15 points)
Because active participation and engagement are imperative for optimal learning, preparation for and participation in in-class activities will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Students attend class, arrive on time, and stay for the entire class period.
- Students complete readings and prepare for class activities prior to class as evidenced by their ability to discuss and write about the concepts presented and examined in the texts as well as participate fully in related activities.
- Students are actively involved in in-class and online learning experiences as evidenced by (a) participating in all activities, (b) engaging in small- and large-group discussions, (c) completing written work related to the activities, and (d) supporting the participation and learning of classmates.
- Students show evidence of critical reflective thinking through in-class and online discussions, activities, and written reflections.
- Professional dispositions are to be displayed at all times while interacting with the instructor and other students. Cell phones are not to be used during class. Laptops are to be used for instructional purposes only.

Written Assignments
All formal written assignments will be evaluated for content and presentation. The American Psychological Association, Sixth Edition (APA) style will be followed for all written work. All written work unless otherwise noted must be completed on a word processor and should be proofread carefully. (Use spell check!) If students are not confident of their own ability to catch errors, they should have another person proofread their work. When in doubt, they should check the APA manual. Portions of the APA manual appear at the Style Manuals link on the Mason library website at http://infoguides.gmu.edu/content.php?pid=39979. Students may consult the Writing Center for additional writing support.

Students will do the following:
1. Present ideas in a clear, concise, and organized manner. (Avoid wordiness and redundancy.)
2. Develop points coherently, definitively, and thoroughly.
3. Refer to appropriate authorities, studies, and examples to document where appropriate. (Avoid meaningless generalizations, unwarranted assumptions, and unsupported opinions.)
4. Use correct capitalization, punctuation, spelling, and grammar.
5. Type the paper with double spacing, indented paragraphs, 1-inch margins all around, and 12-point Times New Roman font.
