UNIVERSITY CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION

Develops personal and professional rationale for differentiating instruction in mixed-ability classrooms, as well as skills and knowledge of strategies to utilize pre-assessment data and plan for and implement differentiated instruction.

COURSE OVERVIEW

EDCI 622 is the second in a series of four courses required to obtain the Gifted Child Education licensure endorsement from the Commonwealth of Virginia. In addition to learning about varied ways to differentiate instruction for diverse populations of students, participants will also learn how to apply their knowledge of differentiation strategies to the design of a unit plan for their specific classroom context. By the end of the course, participants should be able to recognize and address the myriad academic and socioemotional needs of all students with consideration of the diversity and heterogeneity present in all classrooms.

COURSE DELIVERY METHOD

This course will be delivered in a lecture format. Course delivery will be through lecture, videos, structured collaborative reflective groups, discussion, critical reflective practice, and journals based on topics aligned with national standards and program/learner outcomes.

To access the Blackboard course site, go to the MyMason portal login page at <http://mymason.gmu.edu/> and click “Mason BB Login.” Your GMU email username (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) is also your MyMason Portal ID; your GMU email password is also your MyMason Portal password. After logging in, click on the COURSES tab at the top of the page to see your list of courses, then select EDCI 622.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

General Requirements

- A. Class attendance is both important and required. If, due to an emergency, you will not be in class, please contact your instructor as soon as possible. Note that learners with more than two absences risk a letter grade drop or can lose course credit.
- B. Please follow the assignment submission instructions listed in this syllabus. Only assignments submitted as indicated will be graded; incorrect submissions may result in a grade of zero for those assignments.
- C. All assignments are due no later than 11:59 PM EST of the date indicated in the COURSE SCHEDULE section of this Syllabus. Due dates are also posted on the Blackboard course site.
 - a. Grades for assignments date-stamped in Blackboard after the due date will be reduced by 10% unless prior approval from instructor has been granted. Late submissions cannot be accepted after the course end date.
 - b. Assignments earning less than a passing grade may be rewritten and resubmitted so that the assignment is satisfactorily completed. In fact, because mastery learning is our program's goal, I may ask (or require) you to redo an assignment that is far below expectations.
- D. All assignments submitted should have the filename format as follows: Last name - Assignment Title. Please do not upload written assignments in PDF format. Other editable formats are acceptable (i.e., .doc, .docx, .rtf, .ppt, .pptx, .xlsx,.xlsx). Supporting documents for assignments can be in PDF format.
- E. All written work should be carefully edited for standard grammar and punctuation, as well as clarity of thought. All submitted work should be prepared through word processing and reflect APA-style (6th edition), as well as be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and 12-point font (Times New Roman).

Assignments and Assessments

Detailed assignment rubrics are included at the end of the syllabus.

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

Assignment	Percent of final grade	Outcomes addressed	Due date
A. Differentiated Unit Implementation Case Study (PBA)	40%	a, c, d, e	Drafts posted December 8 Final submissions December 16
B. Critical Reading Responses	20% (10% per response)	b, c, d	Response #1: October 20 Response #2: December 1

C. Differentiated Lessons	20% (10% per lesson)	a, d	Lesson #1: November 3 Lesson #2: November 24
D. Class Participation	20%	b, c, d	Weekly

A. Performance-Based Assessment: Differentiated Unit Implementation Case Study (40%)

This project will serve as the performance-based assessment (PBA) for this course. Each student will plan, implement, and reflect on a differentiated unit of study that utilizes strategies discussed in the course. This case study will consist of a detailed unit plan (see specific components of plan in the project description at the end of this syllabus) and a reflection on its current and future implementation.

A complete description of this project is included at the end of the syllabus, along with the rubric on which it will be assessed. This project will be worth 40% of your final grade.

B. Critical Reading Responses (20%)

Each student will write two critical reading responses (2-3 pp. each) addressing a prompt posted to the course Blackboard site. Responses should reflect the use of a critical lens to evaluate the topic and be supported with evidence from a broad representation of course readings and additional literature from the field of gifted education. Additionally, responses should include a reflection that discusses how these course readings have helped to advance your thinking and that of the field, as well as how they apply to your professional context within gifted education. Responses should be written in APA-style (6th ed.) format.

A detailed rubric on how these responses will be assessed is included at the end of the syllabus. Each response will be worth 10% (for a total of 20%) of your final grade.

C. Differentiated Lessons (20%)

Each student will design two differentiated lessons that show evidence of differentiation by content, process, product, affect and/or learning environment. The lessons should be part of the larger differentiated curriculum unit (Assignment A) being designed for the course. After submission, the student will receive feedback from the instructor that should lead to lesson revisions. These revised lessons will be turned in as part of the final differentiated curriculum unit implementation case study (PBA).

Lessons should include:

- a. Standard lesson components, such as hook/link, focus lesson, activity, reflection, and closure
- b. Clear learning objectives tied to grade level and/or content standards
- c. Placement of lesson within the broader sequence of lessons within the unit (Assignment A)
- d. Evidence that pre-assessment data, class demographics, and student readiness, interests, and learning profiles have been utilized in lesson design
- e. Use of at least one of the following in each lesson: differentiation of content, process, product, affect, and/or learning environment (the two lessons combined should show evidence of differentiation for at least two different instructional components; e.g., Lesson #1 might focus on differentiated content while Lesson #2 focuses on differentiated products) through a specific differentiated instructional strategy with a rationale for

- selection of this component and strategy to address the needs of your students*
- f. Any materials/handouts used in conjunction with the lesson

A detailed rubric on how these lessons will be assessed is included at the end of the syllabus. Each lesson will be worth 10% (for a total of 20%) of your final grade.

D. Class Participation (20%)

EDCI 622 operates under the assumption that the most meaningful learning opportunities include those where learners can offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers. To do this, it is expected that you will regularly contribute to and engage in discussions, as well as to genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. While agreement is not mandatory, consideration and respect for others are. All students are expected to be prepared to actively engage in class activities.

Detailed guidelines for course engagement are included at the end of this syllabus. Course engagement will represent 20% of your final grade.

GRADING

Grading policies specific to this course follow the University-wide system for grading graduate courses, as follows:

Grade	Grading	Grade Points	Interpretation
A	94-100	4.00	Represents mastery of the subject through effort beyond basic requirements
A-	90-93	3.67
B+	85-89	3.33	Reflects an understanding of and the ability to apply theories and principles at a basic level
B	80-84	3.00
C*	70-79	2.00	Denotes an unacceptable level of understanding and application of the basic elements of the course

EDCI 622
Guidelines for the Performance-Based Assessment:
Differentiated Unit Implementation Case Study

Each student will plan, implement, and reflect on a differentiated unit of study that utilizes strategies discussed in the course. The case study should include the following components:

- I. A unit plan that includes:
 - a. the learning goals and objectives for the unit and its alignment to grade level and/or content standards
 - b. pre- and post-assessments and materials/handouts used
 - c. a unit map outlining the lesson sequence
 - d. two complete lessons revised after instructor feedback, from Assignment C
 - e. detailed descriptions of additional unit lessons that includes, at minimum:
 - i. learning objectives and content standards addressed
 - ii. explanation of lesson component(s) differentiated and the strategy(ies) used to do this, as well as the rationale for their selection
 - iii. basic outline of lesson flow
 - iv. formative and/or summative assessments conducted to gauge student learning
 - f. description of the classroom setting, including class demographics and student learning profiles/levels
 - g. evidence of use of classroom setting (see “e” above) and pre-assessment data to direct unit and lesson design

- II. A reflection (5-6 pp.), including references to course readings and broader gifted education literature that answers the following questions:
 - a. What observations did you make as you designed and implemented this unit with your class? Be sure to include details and reference specific lessons, ways in which individual students responded, as well as intentional decisions you made in the planning process. How might this impact the way you would plan and implement this, and other, units in the future? (at least 3 pp.)
 - b. How has this course impacted the way you think about designing appropriate instruction for gifted and talented learners?
 - c. What questions do you still have about differentiating for the needs of gifted and talented learners?

This case study will be assessed based on the rubric included at the end of the syllabus, with the following criteria in mind:

- inclusion of all components (unit plan and reflection) listed above and the degree to which the outlined expectations for each have been addressed
- thoroughness, clarity, and degree to which unit plan addresses the needs of students in your specific classroom context
- evidence that the unit plan translates key principles of differentiation from current knowledge in the field to classroom practice
- thoughtfulness and depth of reflection response
- correct citation of references in the reflection, using APA-style (6th ed.)
