Course Description

Examines disability, past and present, in American culture through changes in historical, political, legal, and societal responses to people with disabilities. Analyzes the disability experience through social and behavioral science perspectives, including diversity, bioethical and human rights conceptualizations/constructs of disability. Offered by Graduate School of Education. May not be repeated for credit.

Advising Contact Information

Please make sure that you are being advised on a regular basis as to your status and progress through your program. Mason M.Ed. and Certificate teacher candidates/students should contact the Special Education Advising Office at (703) 993-3670 for assistance. All other teacher candidates/students should refer to their faculty advisor.

Course Delivery Method

Learning activities include the following:

1. Class lecture and discussion
2. Application activities

3. Small group activities and assignments
4. Video and other media supports
5. Research and presentation activities
6. Electronic supplements and activities via Blackboard

Learner Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Explain how individuals, groups, and institutions are affected by disability.
2. Demonstrate awareness of changes in social and cultural constructs relative to disability.
3. Use appropriate methods and resources to apply social and behavioral science concepts, terminology, principles and theories in the analysis of disability, both past and present.
4. Apply a disabilities empowerment framework to future environments and consider/identify future engagement in disability-related fields.
5. Identify and promote inclusive behavior in social, workplace, and higher education settings.

Professional Standards

This course is offered by George Mason University's Division of Special Education and disAbility Research in the College of Education and Human Development. The goal of the special education programs is to improve the lives, productivity, and education of persons with disabilities. Courses within the special education programs align with the standards established by the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), the major international special education professional organization, and the Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC). Upon completion of this course, students will have met the following professional standards: Not Applicable, since EDSE 203 is not a licensure course. This course meets university requirements for the undergraduate core in the area of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Performance-based Common Assignments (No Tk20 submission required)

1. Raising Awareness Project (*Designated Performance-Based Assessment; 30 points): As a culminating activity (and the designated performance-based assessment), this project offers an opportunity for students to draw upon the resources encountered in this course to advocate for disability awareness and inclusive actions for people with disabilities. This project will address key issues discussed throughout this course, such as: What are the important conversations and controversies that need to be addressed? How do we approach and discuss disability? What do people need to know to reduce barriers and increase opportunities for people with disabilities to experience inclusion?

Examples of ideas might include:

- A public service presentation that explores or explains an aspect of disability awareness and etiquette to a specific audience (e.g., college students, faculty/administration, community leaders, employers)
- An information guide that addresses a specific disability or innovation that promotes the inclusion of people with disabilities
- A multi-media presentation on a famous person, invention/innovation, or event that impacted attitudes and/or lives of people with disabilities
- An exploration of campus resources/supports for students/faculty with disabilities

Students will submit a proposal for the project to obtain prior approval. Students will submit their project to the instructor on the due date listed and deliver a presentation during an assigned class session to their peers and the instructor about their Raising Awareness Project. An assignment description and grading rubric will be posted on Blackboard and discussed in class.

Other Assignments

2. Personal Experience Paper (20 points): For this assignment, students will be expected to either (a) visit a program (school, GMU LIFE, recreation or community program) that serves children or adults with disabilities OR (b) interview a person with a disability or a family member of a person with a disability. OR (c) investigate the disability experience/resources on our campus (<https://accessibility.gmu.edu/services/>). Students will then write a paper that explains the setting/interview, synthesizes and describes the person's experience and connects it to course content, and describes a personal reaction. An assignment description and grading rubric will be posted on Blackboard and discussed in class.

3. Media Analysis Paper (20 points): Students will write an analysis of the portrayal/representation of disability in film, TV, print media, literature, or web-content. After reading or watching the selected content, students will write a paper to describe the content, analyze its portrayal of disability, synthesize the information with course content, and react to the media content. The analysis must link explicitly to class resources, readings (especially https://www.fordfoundation.org/media/4276/judyheumann_report_2019_final.pdf and /or guest speakers. Students must obtain prior approval from the instructor for the plan of analysis (Note: I am happy to help guide your decisions and make recommendations). An assignment description and grading rubric will be posted on Blackboard and discussed in class.
4. Blackboard Discussion Boards (15 points): Throughout the semester, there will be five Blackboard discussion boards. Students will provide a comprehensive response to the prompts and to at least 2 classmates' postings. Each discussion board will be worth 3 points, for a total of 15 possible points. To earn full credit, you must submit your postings by the due date and time (9 am of the due date), and no late submissions will be accepted. Your response should address the discussion board topic AND include a thoughtful reaction to at least 2 of your classmates' postings. An assignment description and grading rubric will be posted on Blackboard and discussed in class.
5. Professionalism (15 points): Attendance, punctuality, and active participation during each class session and assigned activity are expected. For each week, students will earn up to 1 Professionalism checkpoints for the following expectations:
 1. Attendance: Students are expected to attend all classes, arrive on time, and remain in class for the duration of each session. Refer to the Attendance Policy below for detailed expectations.
 2. Participation & Professional Behavior: Throughout all classes, students are expected to demonstrate professional and ethical behavior in the classroom, and complete all assignments (including those completed in class, out of class, or on Blackboard) with professional quality, integrity, and in a timely manner. Students are expected to read all assigned readings prior to class and to actively participate in discussions and activities during class sessions.

At the end of the course, the total Professionalism checks earned will be summed and divided by all possible checks (i.e., 1 check for each class week held).

Course Policies and Expectations

Attendance/Participation

Class attendance and professional participation at all sessions is very important because many of the activities in class are planned in such a way that they cannot necessarily be recreated outside of the class session.

Students are expected to (a) attend all classes during the course, (b) arrive on time, (c) remain in class for the duration of each session, (d) actively participate and demonstrate professional behavior in the classroom, and (e) complete all assignments with professional quality and on time. All assigned readings should be completed prior to class (Note: assigned readings may be added or removed as the semester progresses).

Students earn attendance and participation points each class (i.e., Professionalism described in the Assignments section above); these points can only be earned if the student is in attendance and actively participates in class activities. Please notify me in advance by email or phone if you will not be able to attend class. When absence from class is unavoidable, it is the student's responsibility to make arrangements to obtain notes, handouts, and/or lecture details from another student prior to the class meeting that follows the absence. Professionalism points missed cannot be made up.

Students must follow the university policy that all sound emitting devices shall be turned off during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor. The use of electronic devices that produce sound or interfere with the learning of others (e.g., cell phones) is prohibited during class. Please turn these devices off or to silent mode before the start of class. Do not read or send texts during class time. Computers may be used to take notes during class, but they may not be used for internet exploration, to send or receive emails, or other non-class activities during class time. Please be fully present in class ☺

Late Work

To successfully complete this course, students need to adhere to all due dates for readings and assignments. All assignments should be submitted on or before the assigned due date. To be considered on time, assignments must be submitted by the start of class on the due date, unless otherwise noted by the instructor. (Note that all Discussion Board assignments are due by 9 am on the due date.) On all assignments, full credit is available for those submitted on time. For every 24-hour period that an assignment is late, a 5% point deduction will occur. After one week from the due date (or until the last class session on 12/5, whichever comes first), assignments will not be accepted. Please contact the instructor in advance if there is a problem with submitting your work on time.

Other Requirements

Your GMU email address and the instructor's GMU email address are the only email addresses that will be used for communication in this course. Student email is accessed at <http://masonlive.gmu.edu>. All communications are sent to students via their Mason email accounts, and students are held responsible for this information. Blackboard must be accessed frequently, as all course information is housed on this platform.

Grading Scale

Letter Grade	% of Points
A	95-100%
A-	90-94%
B+	87-89%
B	83-86%
B-	80-82%
C+	77-79%
C	73-76%
C-	70-72%
D	60-69%
F	<60%

Course grades are calculated by summing the points earned on assignments and dividing by the total possible points. You can use the following self-monitoring chart to track your performance throughout the semester.

EDUC 203 Self-Monitoring Course Performance Use this self-monitoring tool to track your performance throughout the semester
Assignment	Points Earned by Student	Total Points Possible
A. Professionalism		15
B. Blackboard Discussion Boards (5 discussions, 3 points each)		15

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: <http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/>

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see <https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/>).
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>).
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see <http://ods.gmu.edu/>).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- Support for submission of assignments to Tk20 should be directed to tk20help@gmu.edu or <https://cehd.gmu.edu/aero/tk20>. Questions or concerns regarding use of Blackboard should be directed to <http://coursessupport.gmu.edu/>.
- For information on student support resources on campus, see <https://ctfe.gmu.edu/teaching/student-support-resources-on-campus>
