University Catalog Course Description

Introduces educational issues related to learning, schooling and teaching. Examines roles of teachers and nature of American schools and learners. Requires 15 hours of school-based field experience during the course. This course fulfills the Mason Core Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement.

Expanded Course Description: N/A

Course Overview

This course is designed to introduce students to the foundations of our system of American public education. Students will reflect critically upon and critique their own educational experiences and articulate their own beliefs and values about teaching, learning, and schooling. Students will also examine current and historical roles, expectations, stereotypes, and characterizations that define teaching as a profession.

This course fulfills the Mason Core Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement and addresses the following learning outcomes:

- 1. Explain how individuals, groups or institutions are influenced by contextual factors;
- 2. Demonstrate awareness of changes in social and cultural constructs;
- 3. Use appropriate methods and resources to apply social and behavioral science concepts, terminology, principles and theories in the analysis of significant human issues, past or present.

Course Delivery Method

This course includes a variety of teaching and learning approaches: whole and small group discussions, text-based/multi-media interaction with course materials, interactive and full-body engagement activities, individual and group reflective practices, collaborative learning groups, workshop approaches, online discussions and activities, and instructor-led and student-led lessons/activities.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

- 1. Explain how individuals, groups, and institutions are impacted by the educational system.
- 2. Demonstrate awareness of changes in social and cultural constructs related to teaching and learning.
- 3. Describe U.S. schools and some of the issues, challenges, and rewards of teaching and learning, and the roles that teachers play within them.
- 4. Identify the qualities and dispositions of effective teachers.
- 5. Use appropriate methods and resources to apply social and behavioral science concepts, principles, terminology, and theories to analyze from multiple perspectives the role of the teacher, goals of education and schools, and teacher effectiveness.
- 6. Discuss and critically reflect on the role of student ideas and learning needs in relationship to standards and curricula.
- 7. Reflect on professionalism, intellectualism, personal and professional growth, and potential to make meaningful contributions to the field of education.

Professional Standards Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC)

Students will be introduced to the INTASC professional standards:

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/).
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.

- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see https://ds.gmu.edu/).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- Support for submission of assignments to Tk20 should be directed to tk20help@gmu.edu or https://cehd.gmu.edu/aero/tk20. Questions or concerns regarding use of Blackboard should be directed to https://coursessupport.gmu.edu/.
- For information on student support resources on campus, see https://ctfe.gmu.edu/teaching/student-support-resources-on-campus

Assignment Guidelines and Rubrics:

Class Participation (15 points)

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you have the opportunity to offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers. Students are expected to be fully engaged and present to be successful in this course. This means attending all classes, arriving on time, fully engaging in class activities and discussions, and staying until the end of class. Students will keep a hand-written, ungraded journal/notebook for personal reflective purposes (jotting thoughts, ideas, wonders, drawings, etc.) and for various activities throughout class. Students will participate in Book Clubs throughout the course.

You will complete an exit ticket at the end of each class where you self-evaluate your participation. This will include completion of the rubric and a narrative explanation and reflection on the class using the following prompts:

- 1) Something I did well this week was...
- 2) A goal for next week is...
- 3) I need clarification on...

| | Unsatisfactory (0 pts) | Basic (1 pts) | Proficient (2 pts) | Distinguished (3 pts) |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------|---|---|--|
| Participati on/Attend ance | Absent from class. | The student is significantly late and/or is not prepared for class. The student does not actively participate in discussions. | The student is on time and generally prepared for class discussions. The student participates to an extent in group and class discussions. | The student is punctual and prepared for class. The student actively participates and supports the members of the learning group and the members of the class. |

Read-Talk-Write Reflections after Each Class (15 points)

You will have done the READing in preparation for class and done some TALKing in class. After class you will WRITE a REFLECTion. Prompts will be provided in class. Post your reflections on Blackboard.

Students will write an electronic journal submission/reflection after each class to be submitted on Blackboard by the date and time noted on the syllabus and journal section of Blackboard. These journal entries should demonstrate critical reflection on readings, class discussions/activities, and the development of ideas regarding self and developing philosophy in relation to teaching.

A prompt will be made available on Blackboard following each class period. Reflection must be posted by midnight the evening following each class period.

Approximate length of each entry: 200-300 words.

Due dates for each entry noted on syllabus.

Rubric: Reflections

Education in the News assignment (10 points)

Part of becoming a professional educator is reading and seeking out new information in an effort to get smarter and become more aware of what's going on in the field of education. There are plenty of hot topics and debates happening in education all the time: teachers going on strike, guns and schools, the rise of charter schools, test-and-standards-driven culture, teacher evaluations tied to student performance, disappearing recess and play.

To facilitate our discussion, you will locate a news article that has to do with teaching, child development, learning... anything relevant to the field of education. You will form interest groups by topic. Your group will then plan and lead the class in a 15-minute interactive discussion or activity based on your chosen topic. Your group will also prepare a one-page handout of information for the class, including a list of references (minimum of three sources APA style), thoughts on the major issues being discussed, provocative questions, and potential solutions for consideration. Links to references will be made available ahead of time so students can complete the reading.

Rubric: Education in the News

Education in the Movies (15 points)

There are many great movies out there that deal with issues of teaching, learning, and schooling. Pick one and write a 3-page essay that highlights how the movie presents teaching. Outline how the movie presents teachers/teaching, students and learning. How does this compare to course material and what you are learning? Highlight critical issues. For example, you could watch the movie Dead Poet Society and discuss how Mr. Keating encouraged his students to think and live differently and the consequences of these actions on both students and teacher were enormous. Your essay should include discussion of important ideas as well as what you think about these issues - don't neglect to say how the ideas help you think differently about teaching, learning, and schooling. In other words, discuss some ideas from the movie but then discuss how these ideas affect you and your notions of teaching. Consider one of these movies or many others out there.

- Dead Poet Society (1989)
- Freedom Writers (2007)
- Mr. Holland's Opus (1995)
- To Sir. With Love (1967)
- The Breakfast Club
- Dangerous Minds (1995)
- Lean on Me (1989)
- Stand and Deliver (1988)
- Conrack
- Music of the Heart
- October Sky (1999)
- Front of the Class (2008)
- Up The Down Staircase (1967)

| Total | /15 |

Interview Teachers and/or Learners (15 points)

Interview two teachers and/or learners and write a 3-page review of what you learned. The way to proceed is to come up with a list of about 6-8 open-ended questions that will get the teacher/learners to talk about the kinds of things you want to know about. For example, you might consider learning about curriculum by asking your teacher: "So... Mr. or Mrs So-and-so, how do you decide what to teach in your class?" This will get them talking about all sorts of things and then you can just take good notes - or even record the interview. When you are done, write a 3-page analysis talking about what you learned about the processes of teaching, learning, and schooling in general. Don't tell what the teachers/learners do or said... tell what you learned about these things. That's what matters... your learning.

Ask important questions and follow-up with additional questions that dig at an essential issue or two. Avoid asking a series of disconnected questions that don't lead anywhere or fail to give you important insight. In your paper, try to make connections between what your teacher is saying and what you are learning in this class.

Preparing to enter the profession Portfolio (30 points)

The items in this portfolio will help you prepare to enter the education major of your choice. Additional information will be provided in class throughout the semester.

You will complete the following:

- Meet with licensure specialist (3 points)
- School-based experience reflections (9 points)
- Dispositions Self-Assessment (9 points)
- Why teach vision statement draft (9 points)

Meet with licensure specialist

• Attend a CEHD advising appointment with the endorsement advisor or undergraduate advisor.

School-based experience reflections

- During the semester you will do field work in different educational settings. The purposes of this fieldwork is to: (1) connect the goals of the course to classroom/school practice, (2) gain exposure to a variety of classroom/school communities, and (3) promote critical, self-reflection about teaching, learning and schools.
- Create a journal to log your thoughts during and after each classroom observation.

Always consider: What you observed

Why you think it is significant

How it will impact you as a future teacher/learner

Guiding questions will be provided.

Dispositions Self-Assessment

• Using the CEHD dispositions create a document that outlines your strengths and areas of improvement for each of the dispositions. Additional information will be provided in class.

Why teach vision statement draft

• One of the most important questions to ask yourself as you consider entering the education profession is "How will my students be different for having been in my class?" Expectations are so important in education and in order to clearly state those expectations as well as holding students responsible for meeting them you must spend some time "visioning" what your classroom and your teaching will look like. You will craft a draft of your vision statement using information provided in class.
