COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is an examination of the theoretical underpinnings of leadership in sport organizations. Leader behaviors and characteristics, situational influences, the use of power, and the cognitive dimensions of leadership will be examined, as will the context of organizational studies. Effective planning and strategic management processes will be discussed.

COURSE DELIVERY METHOD

This course is delivered in a variety of formats, including face to face classroom lecture/discussion and on-line.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will be able to:

- 1. Identify theoretical concepts in management and decision-making.
- 2. Describe the strategic planning process.
- 3. Explain effective leadership practices in sport.
- 4. Interpret organizational behaviors, change, culture, and structures.
- 5. Compare prominent leadership theories.
- 6. Identify resource allocation and programming principles.
- 7. Recognize effective practices in the strategic management of sport, including change management.
- 8. Evaluate human resource management, conflict resolution, and negotiation.
- 9. Summarize the systems approach to management in sport organizations.

REQUIRED READINGS

Chelladurai, P. (2017). Managing organizations for sport & physical activity: A systems perspective (4th Ed). New York: Routledge.

Readings may include additional books emphasizing leadership and current articles in sport management journals (e.g. Journal of Sport Management, International Journal of Sport Management, Journal of Applied Sport Management, Sport Management Review, etc.)

COURSE EVALUATION

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

ASSIGNMENTS

Assignments will include written reviews of research articles, translation of articles for a practitioner audience, a small online group project, a mid-term exam, a final exam, a research project based on the synthesis of student-selected theoretical foundations, and an oral presentation of the project to the class. Attendance and participation in class discussions are required as well. Total points allotted are 300.

EVALUATION

| Article Reviews and translation- article reviews must include a summary of major components and be in APA format; translation for practitioners must include graphics, summary of key points, and recommendations for practice in sport.      | 60 points  |
|---|------------|
| Online group project- group will work collaboratively to synthesize leadership theories into a unified theory of leadership.  | 10 points  |
| Research Project Paper/PresentationPaper must be in APA format. Project will be evaluated based upon theoretical framework, clarity, and substantive content. Presentation will be based on content, effective speaking, and professionalism. | 90 points  |
| Mid Term- This evaluation will include true/false questions, multiple choice and short essay; the test will be based on content covered prior to giving it.   | 60 points  |
| Final Exam- This test will be a combination of short answer, short and long essay with some matching and multiple choice; there will be some content covered in the midterm but will primarily focus on content after the midterm.            | 80 points  |
| TOTAL   | 300 points |

Instructor Expectations:

- 1. All assigned reading for each class is expected to be done prior to coming to class.
- 2. All written assignments must be typed (computer word processing is recommended).
- 3. Regular attendance and participation is expected. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to obtain class materials from sources other than the instructor.
- 4. Students must abide by the Honor Code, guided by the spirit of academic integrity.

Class Attendance: It enhances your academic success to be in class; therefore, you should attend ALL scheduled class meetings in accordance with George Mason policy: Students are expected to attend the class periods of the courses for which they register. In-class participation is important not only to the individual student, but to the class as a whole. Because class participation may be a factor in grading, instructors may use absence, tardiness, or early departure as de facto evidence of nonparticipation. Students who miss an exam with an acceptable excuse may be penalized according to the individual instructor's grading policy, as stated in the course syllabus.

Participation: Respect the free exchange of thought in an academic environment and the participants therein. For example: a) do not have any sound emitting devices turned on; b) wait until the teacher/guest speaker has finished prior to gathering your belongings; and c) do not smoke, chew tobacco, eat, sleep, disrupt others by inappropriate talking, or disrespect the class schedule by being tardy. You are encouraged to a) feel free to openly and respectfully contribute your thoughts; b) listen actively to the comments of others; c) be punctual; d) ask any and all appropriate questions that you have; and e) maintain civility in your interpersonal communications. Class discussions will be conducted in a civil, informed fashion wherein disruptive students will be asked to leave the class. Your contributions are not only welcomed, they are essential.

Alternative Work: There is NO make-up work. Only those excused absences supported by documentation will be addressed at the instructor's discretion on an individual basis (e.g. a physician's note for an illness). Alternative work due to intercollegiate athletic competitions or other legitimate university activity must be arranged PRIOR to due date. A grade of '0' will be assigned to all missed work unless otherwise determined by the instructor.

The instructor is solely responsible for assigning grades. As such, the instructor reserves the right to assess student performance in each of the categories identified in the EVALUATION section of this syllabus. Student non-compliance with stated academic, honor, attendance, or participation expectations will result in a '0' for the associated evaluation.

Any circumstance arising that is not explicitly addressed in this syllabus or by George Mason University policy, is implicitly governed under the auspices of common sense and will be dealt with using the instructor's discretion.

GRADING: There will be NO extra credit!!!

Professional Dispositions

Students are expected to exhibit professional behaviors and dispositions at all times. See https://cehd.gmu.edu/students/polices-procedures/

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/).
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see https://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see https://ds.gmu.edu/).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
