University Catalog Course Description
Provides advanced study on selected topic or emerging issue in American or international education. May be repeated for credit with GSE permission. Offered by School of Education. May be repeated within the degree.

Course Overview
In this Masters level course, students will explore the issues, concepts, and problems of practice related to what is called difficult history, the study of traumatic historical events and moments “that reverberate in the present and surface fundamental disagreements over who we are and what values we hold” (Gross & Terra, 2018). Difficult histories can be upsetting, infuriating, shameful, and painful for both learners and teachers encountering the narratives, artifacts, and legacies that help constitute their history. This course equips students with the abilities to (1) appraise the importance of teaching difficult histories; (2) evaluating curricular resources and pedagogical strategies to teach difficult histories; (3) support the teaching and learning of historical thinking skills with specific difficult history curriculum content; and (4) creating instructional materials for the teaching of difficult histories.

Course Delivery Method
This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using an asynchronous format via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on June 1, 2020.
Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard’s supported browsers see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_STARTED/Browser_SUPPORT#supported-browsers

To get a list of supported operation systems on different devices see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_STARTED/Browser_SUPPORT#tested-devices-and-operating-systems

- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
- The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:
  - Adobe Acrobat Reader: https://get.adobe.com/reader/

Expectations

- Course Week:
  Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day, our week will start on Monday and finish on Sunday. Our course week will begin on the day that our synchronous meetings take place as indicated on the Schedule of Classes, June 1, 2020.
- Log-in Frequency:
  Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least two times per week.
- Participation:
  Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
• Technical Competence:
  Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.

• Technical Issues:
  Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.

• Workload:
  Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.

• Instructor Support:
  Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues with the instructor via web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

• Netiquette:
  The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

• Accommodations:
  Online learners who require effective accommodations to insure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives
This course is designed to enable students to do the following:
1. appraise the importance of teaching difficult history
2. evaluate curricular resources and pedagogical strategies to teach difficult history

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time via the course Blackboard page.

- Assignments and/or Examinations
  1. Introductory Video Post (10 points)
     Students will record a 5-minute presentation introducing themselves to each other in the course. The video will be posted on Blackboard for other classmates to view.

  2. Curriculum Artifacts (7 x 10 points = 70 points)
     Students will create an artifact for Modules 2 through 8 that synthesizes the assigned content for that module. The artifact should explain how the content shapes the student’s pedagogical content knowledge and provides examples of ideas the student has for their future history teaching demonstrating their new knowledge.

  3. Final Reflective Video Post (20 points)
     Students will record a 10-minute presentation reflecting upon the course’s themes and synthesizing responses to prompts for this video post. The video will be posted on Blackboard for other classmates to view and provide feedback.

- Other Requirements
  1. Students are expected to read all assignments, actively participate in all course activities, and to treat one another with respect, both in class and on-line.

  2. Students can participate in a weekly synchronous “check-in discussion” session on Thursdays from 4:30 to 5:30 held on Blackboard Collaborate Ultra (posted office hour time)
