Explores multiple approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings with an eye towards format, genre, curricular connections, and overall utility.

Course Overview

This course broadly and deeply examines literature for children in preschool through Grade 6. The focus is on selecting and using appropriate books for children in a variety of diverse contexts including literature-based reading and content area instruction. In addition, students explore multiple instructional approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings.

This course fulfills the Mason Core Literature requirement and addresses the following learning outcomes:

- 1) Read for comprehension, detail and nuance
- 3) Analyze the ways specific literary devices contribute to the meaning of texts
- 4) Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which literary text is produced

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using both synchronous and asynchronous formats via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on May 31, 2020. This course will also use a combination of Zoom, Blackboard Collaborate and google slides for synchronous online course delivery. Synchronous class sessions will include small/large group discussions and tasks, lecture, and student-led activities. A detailed schedule is included below.

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

1. High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#supported-browsers

3. Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
4. Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate or other required web conferencing tool.
5. Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
6. The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:

Course Performance Evaluation

**All assignments are to be completed by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.

Assignment and/or Evaluations:

Self as Reader (10 points) – submitted via Blackboard

DUE June 4th

Our reading identity is formed over time as we choose and experience books to read. Selections may be based on our interests, preferences, academics, and biases. What we read shapes our thinking, perceptions, beliefs, and responses. Books fill our needs, teach us, and impact who we become.

- This assignment is designed to help us consider the powerful role literature can play in shaping young readers' identities by focusing on the young person we are most familiar with: ourselves.
- What book or books did you read as a child or young adolescent that helped you love reading? What made the book such a positive experience? Was there a particular character you identified with, a character you loved to hate, a book you didn't want to stop reading?
- Select one of the following activities from your reading life and write an essay:
  - Create a timeline of your history of reading- What reading experiences have been most influential in your life? How were you encouraged and discouraged to become a reader? What does the timeline reveal about your reading identity? What did you learn about yourself by creating your timeline?
  - Reread a book that you first read as a child or young adolescent. Begin your essay with 1-2 paragraph summary of the book, then develop your essay juxtaposing your identity and experience reading this book as a child or young adolescent with your identity and experience reading this book as an adult. What motivated you to read the book? What did you find most engaging about the book?
- Write a 3-4 page essay describing your timeline experiences or the book. Your essay should be personal, insightful, and should build a strong emotional response in your reader. This assignment is intended to be a personal and reflective piece rather than an academic or scholarly essay.

Book Analysis File (BAF) (30 points) – submitted via Blackboard

Due dates listed below

- You will create a bibliography of different genres of children's literature.
- You will include 1 book per genre:
  - Concept due June 5th
  - Traditional Literature: Fables/folklore due June 12th
  - *Biography/autobiography and Nonfiction/informational due June 12th (**in class)*
  - Historical fiction (chapter book) due June 19th
  - *Poetry due June 19th (**in class)*
  - *Fantasy/Science Fiction due June 22nd (**in class)*
  - *Post Modern Fantasy due June 24th (**in class)*
  - Contemporary realistic fiction (chapter book) due June 26th
- You will have a total of 8 genres and 8 books.
- Portions of this assignment will be submitted across the term.

Include the following information in your analysis for each book:

1. Author, publication year, title, publisher (APA format)
2. Format & length of book
3. Book summary and critical evaluation. Include information regarding the specific literary qualities employed in the book. Critique using criteria specific to the genre. Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the text is produced. This must be your own original work.

4. Book awards (if applicable)

Author Study (20 points) – submitted via Blackboard

DUE July 1st

- You will select and research a children’s author of picture books (who has written at least 5).
- You will closely read at least three of the author’s works and analyze them for themes, content, and connections to classroom use, comparing titles through a critical literacy lens in order to examine:
  - How the author’s craft has evolved over time
  - Variations of themes/content in the books
- Include a discussion of the contribution of the author’s use of specific literacy devices to contribute to the text’s meaning. Include a discussion of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the author’s work is produced, and how those contexts impact the potential for classroom use.
- You will submit a written paper (5-7 pages) describing findings, plus a bibliography of the books included in the analysis. In the case of author-illustrators such as Jan Brett, you will analyze illustrations and text together to note recurring motifs and artistic style along with themes, and content.

Other Requirements:

1. Ongoing Participation & Literature Circle (40%)

It is expected that you attend all synchronous and asynchronous online meetings outlined within the syllabus. Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service, and medical emergencies are exceptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent for any of these reasons, please make arrangements at least 48 hours in advance. In addition, you are expected to be on time to class unless 48 hours advance notice has been provided to the instructor.

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you have the opportunity to offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers; therefore, you are expected to contribute to synchronous and asynchronous online discussions and activities as well as genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. In addition, you are expected to be prepared for each class, which means having completed all assigned readings and tasks for that class.

Your participation includes completion of all synchronous and asynchronous application activities. You will reflect on and self-assess your participation following each class session. You will keep a participation journal where you will complete an exit ticket at the end of each class. This will include completion of the rubric and a narrative explanation and reflection on the class using the following prompts:

- 1) My level of participation this class was...
- 2) A goal for next class is...
- 3) A question I have is...

	Unsatisfactory (0 pts)	Basic (1 pts)	Proficient (2 pts)	Distinguished (3 pts)
Participation/ Attendance	Absent from class.	The student is significantly late and/or is not prepared for class. The student does not actively participate in discussions.	The student is on time and generally prepared for class discussions. The student participates to an extent in group and class discussions.	The student is punctual and prepared for class. The student actively participates and supports the members of the learning group and the members of the class.

As part of this class, you will participate in a literature circle with a group of peers in class (May 24th). You will select titles from historical fiction, contemporary realistic fiction, and modern fantasy genres. A list will be provided in class. You will work through the various roles and responsibilities typically enacted by upper elementary students. The object of this activity is to learn firsthand how literature can be shared among students in order to promote reading engagement and motivation, fluency, and comprehension with attention and discussion devoted to literary devices, aspects of author language use (writer’s craft), and contextual elements needed for comprehension.

2. Work Timeliness Expectations

All assignments are to be completed by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. All assignments must be submitted by 11:59 pm on the due date stated within the syllabus (see below) and should be submitted in the format indicated by the instructor in class.

All written papers are expected to be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and in 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial). APA format is expected. If you do not have a 7th Edition APA manual, the OWL at Purdue is an excellent resource. <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

Please Note: The GMU Writing Center offers online support via email. They will provide feedback on your writing within one hour. Graduate and professional writing can be difficult; I encourage you to take advantage of this service. http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/?page\_id=177

Note: I reserve the right to add, alter, or omit any assignment as necessary during the course of the semester. You will always receive advanced notice of any modifications.
