Expectations

- Course Week:
Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day, our week will start on Tuesday and finish on Monday.
Our course week will begin on the day that our synchronous meetings take place as indicated on the Schedule of Classes.
- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 5-6 times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

- Accommodations:
Online learners who require effective accommodations to insure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Required Resources

Go to the Behavior Analyst Certification Board website (www.bacb.com), and download the Task List as well as Professional and Ethical Compliance Code for Behavior Analysts. We will refer to these documents throughout this course and all other courses in this program. It is also recommended that students visit the GMU ABA course site to familiarize themselves with policies and procedures.

Additional Readings

Additional readings may be posted to Blackboard as the semester progresses. Students are responsible for all additional readings posted to Blackboard.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, VIA, hard copy).

Assignments and/or Examinations

In the Group Capstone project, you will get hands-on experience doing a Functional Behavior Assessment in a simulated environment. There are eight milestones in this project each due every week. You will be assigned to a group in Module 1. Note: students will work with the same group every week to complete this assignment.

You will need to email the instructor your Gmail account address at the beginning of Module 1 to access the template document.

There are two case scenarios for this project. However, you need to work on the case assigned to your group only. Every module contains a section titled “Case A” or “Case B”. You are ONLY required to click and submit the assigned case assignment.

Detailed instructions will be available in each module.

Conceptual Issues in Coercion Discussion. For this assignment, you are required to discuss the assigned readings within your groups. To know more information about the groups and assigned reading, navigate to ‘Conceptual Issues in Coercion Discussion’ in the left-hand navigation menu. Even though you will be split-up in groups, you will complete this assignment individually. The idea of splitting you into small groups is to aid your understanding of the concepts explored in class at the same time keep the discussions manageable. For all modules, one or two people from the group will be assigned as a group leader(s). You will work with the same group throughout the semester. Note: Only Group leader(s) are required to post the initial video response, however, all group members are required to respond and contribute to the discussion.

This exercise is to help you to coherently summarize the chapter. The expectation isn't for you to pose as an expert on the topic, but take this exercise as a practice on summarizing in your own words and leading discussions.

Unit Quizzes. There are three unit quizzes. Twenty questions in a multiple-choice format will be selected from a random pool. This pool is fully randomized so that both the presentation of the questions and the order of answers are different for each student. You will have forty minutes to answer the questions. Be advised that you will have only one attempt to take this quiz. To begin the quiz, click on the title of the activity.

Final Exam. The final exam is designed to test your knowledge regarding Behavioral assessment. Your performance on this exam will give you an Idea of how you might fare on the BACB certification exam, but is not a Direct replication of it. More information will be available on Blackboard.

Course Policies and Expectations

Attendance/Participation

The ability to use technology is key to this course. Students are expected to present via video and audio, create and upload documents, complete interactive activities, and navigate the online environment. In group work, students are expected to delegate work evenly, log in to Blackboard Collaborate at the time designated by the group, and participate via video and audio for the entire session. Group sessions should be recorded or otherwise documented. Optional synchronous sessions will be held at the discretion of the instructor for students needing additional support.

The Behavior Analyst Certification Board requires you to complete a minimum of 4.75 hours of instruction each week. This time does not include reading or posting to discussion boards - these are considered homework. Once you have completed all the readings and assignments, select the Mark Reviewed button at the bottom of each module. By marking this button, you are acknowledging that you've completed 4.75 hours of instruction each week.

Following instructions for formatting papers will expedite grading and feedback for all students. Students are responsible for following these guidelines for grading:

- All final drafts of assignments must be submitted through Blackboard, including final drafts of assignments.
- Drafts of assignments must be completed within the Google template provided by the instructor.
- Emailed and hard copies of assignments will not be graded unless approved in advance by the instructor, as these methods of submission lead to a high probability of lost student work.
- Detailed information about each assignment is posted on Blackboard. Failure to review all documents available often results in low performance.

Late Work

This class is NOT self-paced. All assignments (e.g., quizzes, activities, assignments, projects) must be submitted via Blackboard on or before the due date. In fairness to students who submit work on time, points will be deducted for late submissions (up to 10% per day). Assignments will not be accepted more than 1 week late unless prior arrangements with the instructor have been made. No work will be accepted after the final exam has closed.

Other Requirements

Communication with the Instructor

Please check the “About Your Instructor” section on Blackboard regarding communication policies and procedures. The instructor will return emails within 48 hours during the week, but there is no guarantee of a prompt response on weekends or during University holidays. It is critical that you activate your GMU email as this is the official method of communication in this course. Please use appropriate business email etiquette when emailing the instructor, as unprofessional communication will be returned to the student for edits. Be sure to check the syllabus, presentations, and post on the general student message board before emailing a question to the instructor. If a meeting is necessary, an appointment can be made. Meetings can be held in-person, through Blackboard Collaborate, by Phone, or by Google Hangout.
