University Catalog Course Description
Discusses the Counseling and Development program's mission statement of Social Justice, Multiculturalism, Internationalism, Advocacy and Leadership. Provides an overview of theories and models of social justice, advocacy, and leadership. Examines theories and models from a multicultural perspective and discusses within the context of counseling in school and community settings. Examines the role of counselors as change agents, leaders, and advocates.

Course Overview
This course is designed to specifically address the Counseling and Development program mission statement of Social Justice, Multiculturalism, Advocacy and Leadership. The course will provide an overview of theories and models of social justice, social change, advocacy and leadership. These theories and models will be examined from a multicultural perspective and discussed within the context of counseling in school and community settings. The new role of counselors as agents of change, leaders, and advocates will be examined. The course will focus on the applied aspects of new role of the counselors, and explore the individual, group, institutional, and systemic barriers confronting counselors in performing their role, such as, issues of power and authority, sexism, racism, discrimination, etc. The course will also provide strategies for counselors to be an effective change agents, leaders, and advocates for their clients in community and school settings.

Course Delivery Method
This course will be delivered using a lecture format.

1. Understand the role and process of the professional counselor advocating on behalf of the profession (2.F.1.d)
2. Identify advocacy processes needed to address institutional and social barriers that impede access, equity, and success for clients (2.F.1.e)
3. Understand the effects of power and privilege of counselors and clients (2.F.2.e)
4. Identify strategies for identifying and eliminating barriers, prejudices, and processes of intentional and unintentional oppression and discrimination (2.F.2.h)
5. Identify strategies to advocate for persons with mental health issues (5.C.3.e)

Required Texts
Articles uploaded on Blackboard

Course Performance Evaluation
Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, Tk20, hard copy).

Assignments and/or Examinations

a. Social Justice Advocacy Project (No more than two students can select the same SJ issue)
      In 2-3 pages you will reflect on events and life experiences that have shaped your cultural being. You want to explore experiences that are significant in shaping your worldview, cultural heritage and identity; and how these experiences have shaped your thinking, values, and behaviors. You should also interpret the cultural meaning of these experiences (cultural socialization) and the impact on your current functioning. Discuss how your experiences have led you to choose your social justice issue.
      Complete a 5-7 page research paper exploring the historical context of your chosen social justice issue. APA formatting.
      Develop a 1-page advocacy plan outlining how you intend to advocate for your population at the individual, community and systemic level.
   4. Self-care plan 10 pts.
      As social justice advocates, compassion fatigue is common so it is imperative for you to take care of yourself. Briefly outline how you intend to take care of yourself. Maximum 1 page.
      For this portion of the project you need to take “action” (Some ideas are outlined below):
      Level 1: Write a congressperson, interview an ally/advocate of your issue.
      Level 2: Participate in an event, a march, townhall or political talk. Complete a 2-3 page reflection discussing your experiences.
   6. Presentation 10 pts.
      During the presentation you will present your issue to your peers by proving the historical context, why you chose your social justice issue, briefly discuss your action steps, and how your peers can support this issue moving forward.
      At the end of the semester submit your entire project to Blackboard.

Grading

Grading will be based primarily upon the significance, thoroughness, accuracy, relatedness, logic and degree to which points made are effectively supported. Papers receiving an “A” grade will be outstanding in each area. Grammar and style will be taken into account when they detract from the presentation or understanding of the professional arguments made. As noted above, points/grade will be deducted from assignments that do not follow APA guidelines and/or exceed the page limit.

Professional Dispositions assessments are scored as follows:

- 4: Consistently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition all or almost all of the time. This rank is considered exceptional, particularly for students who are at the beginning of their program. Students who are advanced in the program (i.e., in their last year of the program and enrolled in Internship I or II) should except to achieve this rank.

- 3: Frequently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition often or most of the time. It is expected that students in the middle of the program (i.e., usually the second year for full time or third year for part time students) will achieve this rank. This reflects that they have moved beyond the initial phase of counselor training and are developing well towards being a professional counselor.

- 2: Sometimes Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition sometimes or inconsistently. It is expected that students at the beginning of the program (i.e., first year for most students) will achieve this rank. Students at the beginning of the program are expected to be developing towards these professional dispositions as a part of their counselor training and preparation for their future as a professional counselor.

- 1: Seldom Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition rarely or not at all. In some instances this may also indicate a harmful demonstration of professional disposition(s). Students at the beginning of their program may achieve this rank, which can be developmentally appropriate as they learn the expectations for students and future professional counselors. Should this occur, students should expect to meet with their advisor, who will assist them in addressing the area of concern.

N/A: Not Applicable – An instructor or supervisor may use this to note that they did not have the opportunity to observe the disposition or that it was not relevant in the given context. This is most likely to occur at the beginning of the program when some dispositions may not be germane to the particular class.

Class Schedule

Note: Faculty reserves the right to alter the schedule as necessary, with notification to students.

Counseling and Development Mission Statement

The Counseling Program is committed to preparing counselors who promote the social, psychological, physical, and spiritual health of individuals, families, communities, and organizations in order to contribute to the advancement of global well-being. The program strives for national and international excellence in implementing a counseling perspective which provides a foundation in basic counseling skills and focuses on social justice, multiculturalism, international, advocacy and leadership. It is our belief that a global perspective on development across the life span, and an understanding and appreciation of multiculturalism, diversity, and social justice are integral to the preparation of professional counselors, requiring that professional counselors are prepared to assume leadership roles, be proactive change agents and become advocates for social, economic and political justice. The program is committed to accomplish this mission by working through interdisciplinary teams as well as promote the interconnectedness of teaching, research, service and professional practice. Through this mission faculty will facilitate a continued tradition of international, national and regional leadership through the development of collaborative partnerships and projects, research, publications, presentations, consultation, and training.

Core Values Commitment
The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies
- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/).
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see https://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/).
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see https://ds.gmu.edu/).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
