University Catalog Course Description

This course focuses on in-depth analysis and study of selected education policy issues. Review of various points of view on the issues is considered. Particular attention will be given to interactions and connections between selected education issues, and the similarities and differences in policy approaches at the K-12 and higher education levels.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online in a seminar/lecture format via Zoom. Our meeting room number is 981 8068 6817. The password is educ871. Readings and syllabus are available on Blackboard.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

1. Demonstrate a detailed and sophisticated understanding of major policy issues.
2. Analyze and describe the legal and political forces that influence decision making on these issues.
3. Understand and explain the intersections of various policy issues.
4. Understand and explain how and why different levels of education may approach these policy issues in a different manner.
5. Demonstrate ability to describe and analyze the research bases for major policy issues.
Required Texts

Additional Readings (Available on Blackboard)

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments via email prior to the beginning of the class session when the assignment is due.

Assignments and/or Examinations

Pre-Class Questions: Prior to class 2 and class 3, there will be two short questionnaires to assess students’ prior knowledge about descriptive and causal research. These questionnaires are diagnostic rather than evaluative. They will be graded for completion only.

Article Summaries: For classes 4-9, students will write a one-page (single-spaced) summary of the reading designated with an asterisk (*) in the syllabus. These summaries must answer six questions:

1. Research Question(s): What is/are the primary research question(s)?
2. Treatment: What is the “treatment”?
3. Treatment Group: Describe the group that receives the treatment
4. Comparison Group: Describe the comparison group
5. Internal Validity: Besides the treatment, what other differences might remain between the treatment and comparison groups?
6. External Validity: Is the study population unique in a way that makes it difficult to generalize the findings to other contexts?

Critical Literature Review: Students will choose an education policy research topic to review. With the guidance of the instructor, students will identify 10+ research articles and/or books relevant to their topic. Students will then compose a 10-15 page (double-spaced) paper in APA format that A) summarizes the strengths and weaknesses of the existing research, B) identifies unanswered questions that future researchers should pursue, and C) draws actionable implications for policymakers and practitioners.

Final Paper Presentation: On the last day of class, students will present the content of their final papers. Presentations should be 10-15 minutes long and organized around slides (PowerPoint or equivalent). If time allows, each student will lead a short Q&A session after their presentation.
Participation

Students are expected to:

1. Attend all classes and provide advance notice, if possible, if you must miss a class.
2. Read all assignments prior to class and bring copies (either electronic or hard copy) to class.
3. Actively participate in discussions of the readings and treat one another with respect.
4. Submit all assignments on time. Late work will be penalized by 2pts/day, unless prior arrangements are made.

Course Grades

- Pre-class questions: 5% (completion only)
- Article summaries: 30%
- Final paper: 30%
- Final paper presentation: 20%
