University Catalog Course Description

Introduces children's literature as a tool for working with children across a range of contexts, including early childhood and elementary classrooms. Explores multiple approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings with an eye towards format, genre, curricular connections, and overall utility.

Course Overview

This course broadly and deeply examines literature for children in preschool through Grade 6. The focus is on selecting and using appropriate books for children in a variety of diverse contexts including literature-based reading and content area instruction. In addition, students explore multiple instructional approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings.

This course fulfills the Mason Core Literature requirement and addresses the following learning outcomes:

- 1) Read for comprehension, detail and nuance
- 3) Analyze the ways specific literary devices contribute to the meaning of texts
- 4) Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which literary text is produced

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using both synchronous and asynchronous formats via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on January 22, 2020. This course will also use a combination of Zoom, Blackboard Collaborate and google slides for synchronous online course delivery. Synchronous class sessions will include small/large group discussions and tasks, lecture, and student-led activities. A detailed schedule is included below.

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

1. High-speed Internet access with standard up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#supported-browsers

2. To get a list of supported operating systems on different devices see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting\_Started/Browser\_Support#tested-devices-and-operating-systems
3. Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
4. Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate or other required web conferencing tool.
5. Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
6. The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:
  - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
  - Windows Media Player: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>
  - Apple Quick Time Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download/

Expectations

1. Course Week: Our course week will begin on the day that our synchronous meetings take place as indicated on the Schedule of Classes.
2. Log-in Frequency: Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials five times/week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
3. Participation: Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
4. Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
5. Technical Issues: Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
6. Workload: Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
7. Instructor Support: Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
8. Netiquette: The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.
9. Accommodations: Online learners who require effective accommodations to ensure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Assignment and/or Evaluations:

Attendance and Participation (20 points)

DUE Ongoing

This course is based on your active participation, exploration, and interaction with peers. Completion of all activities, assignments, and readings is essential for meaningful participation.

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you have the opportunity to offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers. To do this, it is expected that you attend all synchronous online meetings outlined within the syllabus. Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service, and medical emergencies are exceptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent for any of these reasons, please make arrangements with instructor at least 48 hours in advance. In addition, you are expected to be on time to synchronous class meetings, unless 48 hour advance notice has been provided to the instructor.

You are expected to contribute to synchronous and asynchronous online discussions and activities as well as genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. In addition, you are expected to be prepared for each class, which means having completed all assigned readings and tasks for that class.

Self as Reader (10 points)

DUE September 12th

Our reading identity is formed over time as we choose and experience books to read. Selections may be based on our interests, preferences, academics, and biases. What we read shapes our thinking, perceptions, beliefs, and responses. Books fill our needs, teach us, and impact who we become.

- This assignment is designed to help us consider the powerful role literature can play in shaping young readers' identities by focusing on the young person we are most familiar with: ourselves.
- What book or books did you read as a child or young adolescent that helped you love reading? What made the book such a positive experience? Was there a particular character you identified with, a character you loved to hate, a book you didn't want to stop reading?
- Select one of the following activities from your reading life and write an essay:
  - Create a timeline of your history of reading. What reading experiences have been most influential in your life? How were you encouraged and discouraged to become a reader? What does the timeline reveal about your reading identity? What did you learn about yourself by creating your timeline?
  - Reread a book that you first read as a child or young adolescent. Begin your essay with a 1-2 paragraph summary of the book, then develop your essay juxtaposing your identity and experience reading this book as a child or young adolescent with your identity and experience reading this book as an adult. What motivated you to read the book? What did you find most engaging about the book?
- Write a 3-4 page essay describing your timeline experiences or the book. Your essay should be personal, insightful, and should build a strong emotional response in your reader. This assignment is intended to be a personal and reflective piece rather than an academic or scholarly essay.

Literature Circle (10 points)*Starts September 27th

- As part of this class, you will participate in a literature circle with a group of peers in class over several weeks.
- You will select titles from historical fiction, contemporary realistic fiction, and modern fantasy genres. A suggested list may be provided in class.
- The objective of this activity is to learn firsthand how literature can be shared among students in order to promote reading engagement and motivation, fluency, and comprehension with attention and discussion devoted to literary devices, aspects of author language use (writer's craft), contextual elements needed for comprehension, as well as explore the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts within the text.

Midterm Exam (10 points)*DUE Oct. 12th

Online exam. Open notes. More information will be provided in class.

Text Set (10 points)*Group Google Doc DUE Nov. 7th; Final Set in Blackboard Nov. 21st; Class Share Nov. 22nd

Your group will assemble books from a variety of formats and genres to create a cohesive set of 8 texts that align with a social justice issue of your group's choice (Racism, Feminism, LGBTQIA, Specific Cultural Groups, Immigration, Poverty, Homelessness, Trauma. Other ideas are considered with approval).

- Your text set could be used to help diverse learners learn more about a social justice issue through a specific collection of topic-related books.
- You will justify your Text Set, including the following information:
  - An overview explaining how your selections support learning about the issue
  - APA format of each book (author, publication year, title, publisher)
  - Brief synopsis (one paragraph per text) and analysis of each text (two-three paragraphs per text)
    - Analysis should address literary elements employed in the texts as well as political, historical, and cultural influences.
- You will bring at least one of your books to discuss with your group on October 4th
- Your group Google Doc with at least one book per person must be shared with me at courtney.goldfinger@gmail.com by Sunday, Nov. 7th at 11:59 pm.
- The final Text Set with all 8 books will be uploaded to the Google Folder and to Blackboard Assignments by Sunday, Nov. 21st by 11:59 pm and shared in class on November 22nd.

Book Analysis File (BAF) and Book Talks (20) points)*DUE dates listed below

- You will create a bibliography of different genres of children's literature.
- You will include 1 book per genre. Portions of this assignment will be submitted across the term.
  - Concept due Sept. 26th
  - Traditional Literature: Fables/folklore due Oct. 3rd
  - Historical fiction (chapter book) due Oct. 10th

Include the following information in your analysis for each book:

1. Author and Illustrator information, publication year, title, publisher (APA 7 format)
2. Format & length of book
3. Book summary and critical evaluation. Include information regarding the specific literary qualities employed in the book. Critique using criteria specific to the genre. Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the text is produced and any author/illustrator information that adds to this context. This must be your own original work.
4. Book awards (if applicable)

- You will select and research a children’s author of picture books (who has written at least 5).
- You will closely read at least three of the author’s works and analyze them for themes, content, and connections to classroom use, comparing titles through a critical literacy lens in order to examine:
  - How the author’s craft has evolved over time
  - Variations of themes/content in the books
- Include a discussion of the contribution of the author’s use of specific literacy devices to contribute to the text’s meaning. Include a discussion of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the author’s work is produced, and how those contexts impact the potential for classroom use.
- You will submit a written paper (5-7 pages) describing findings, plus a bibliography of the books included in the analysis. In the case of author-illustrators such as Jan Brett, you will analyze illustrations and text together to note recurring motifs and artistic style along with themes, and content.
- You will share your author study in a brief presentation during class.
