Expectations

Course Week: Online synchronous meetings will take place as indicated in the class schedule.

Log-in Frequency: Students must check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor daily during the internship. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.

Participation: Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.

Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.

Technical Issues: Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.

Workload: Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities, and assignments due.

Instructor Support: Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content, or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.

Netiquette: The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

Accommodations: Online learners who require effective accommodations to ensure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

Assignments and/or Examinations

1. Participation (20%)

Being engaged in this course is essential to the teaching-learning process. Engagement involves attendance, timeliness, and active participation. Class attendance is both important and required (see Academic Policy 1.6

in the GMU Catalog). It is expected that you fully engage in all course activities and that you are fully prepared for each class. All work should be completed in a timely manner. See course schedule (pp. 6-8) for submission requirements and due dates.

Course participation will be evaluated using the following rubric:

2. Performance-Based Assessment Part II: Data-Based Instructional Planning (70%)

You will develop diagnostic plans to assess a K-12 learner’s literacy strengths and needs. Then, using the data gathered, you will develop instructional plans to support the learner’s literacy needs. You will develop and implement these instructional plans as well as ongoing assessment and intervention strategies under the direct supervision of the practicum supervisor. All plans must be submitted to your practicum supervisor via Blackboard by 8:00 pm on the evening prior to each diagnostic or instructional session. You will receive feedback no later than 10:00 pm on your plans, and you may be asked to revise your plan before implementing it, in which case you should plan to meet with your supervisor prior to meeting with your student to go over revisions. You may not engage with your learner unless your supervisor has approved your plan.

All diagnostic and instructional sessions will be conducted via Zoom. You must record each session. As you work virtually with your learner, you will be observed by your practicum supervisor and at times, classmates. Seminars will take place virtually via Zoom at the end of tutoring each day.

All final diagnostic and instructional plans along with 2 samples of student work must be submitted to Tk20 to fulfill the requirements of the PBA.

3. Instructional Reflections (10%)

After leading each diagnostic or instructional session, you will analyze the session and the data you collected during it in order to make adjustments for your future instructional plans. Brief, daily written reflections will be submitted with each session plan. Reflections must be of high quality and show growth over time.

Other Requirements

Assignment Guidelines

Assignments should follow current APA formatting. Proofread carefully and use formal, academic writing. Be sure to use APA format when providing citations for relevant research. (See Blackboard for resources.)

Graduate level writing is expected for all assignments in this course. If you find that you need support, the University Writing Center (<https://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>) is available to you. They offer one-to-one consultations at any stage of the writing process. You can schedule in-person or video appointments with writing tutors on Mason's Fairfax and Arlington campuses. You can also use their Online Writing Lab (OWL) to receive written feedback on drafts of your writing if you aren't able to meet during the Center's hours of operation.

The performance-based assessment (PBA) is designed to provide evidence that program candidates meet required program completion standards. Students may have one opportunity to revise PBA assignments in order to demonstrate proficiency with each of the associated standards. Successful completion of the performance-based assessment is required to move to the next course in your degree program. If you are concerned that you may be having difficulty meeting these requirements, please speak to your course instructor and your advisor.

Advising

Advising information is located on Blackboard, including timeline, program of study tracking, course sequencing, RVE registration information, graduation information, and program updates. To access, (a) login to Blackboard, (b) click the Organizations option in the main menu, and (c) go to the Literacy Program Advising and Information Organization to find all documents. You are responsible for regularly checking the advising organization to maintain your program of study and desired program completion timeline.

Grading

Satisfactory: Candidates successfully meets all internship requirements. Candidates complete a minimum of 20 contact hours with a learner who experiences difficulties with reading and writing. Candidates' course participation meets/exceeds expectations and their diagnostic and instructional plans demonstrate their overall proficiency with the professional standards.

No Credit: Candidates fail to successfully meet all internship requirements. Candidates complete less than 20 contact hours with a learner who experiences difficulties with reading and writing. Candidates' course participation is below expectations and their diagnostic and instructional plans fail to demonstrate their overall proficiency with the professional standards.

Literacy students must re-take any course in which they receive a grade of C or lower (or for EDRD 637, no credit), in order to be eligible for licensure (note that the grade of B- is not given). Incompletes must be cleared before moving to the next course in the instructional sequence.

EDRD 637 – Supervised Practicum Overview

The purpose of the practicum experience is to practice working with individual students and to broaden understandings of students' literacy needs in K-12 classrooms. As a part of the practicum, instructional plans will be developed, and ongoing assessment and intervention strategies will be implemented under the direct supervision of the course instructors. Documentation of work with the practicum student will be compiled into a case study.

The first few sessions will focus on becoming acquainted with the student and conducting preliminary assessments that will inform decisions made when developing instructional plans. The remaining instructional sessions will focus on providing literacy support for the practicum student based on the initial diagnosis and ongoing interactive assessment. Emphasis will be on providing a comprehensive literacy experience that further develops critical reading and writing skills by building on the student's strengths and addressing the student's needs as evidenced in initial and ongoing assessments.

Performance Based Assessments & Rubrics - Overview

This performance-based assessment (PBA) is required during EDRD 633/637. These courses are integrated, and candidates must take them concurrently as a practicum. The practicum consists of seminars in which candidates learn to administer and interpret assessments, followed by a schedule of at least 20 contact hours with an individual learner while supervised by a faculty member (the ratio of supervision is 5 to 8 candidates per supervisor). During and after the tutoring time period, seminars are also held in which candidates discuss intervention strategies, plan joint lessons (e.g., Readers' Theatre or photo journalism projects to connect school with the community) with other candidates and their tutees, discuss related research, and plan and execute parent/family communication. Time is also built in for numerous meetings between supervisors and individual candidates (both electronic and in person).

Please note that the numbers and letters in the rubrics relate to specific IRA standards, elements, and the recommended evidence.

Directions to Candidates

The overall purpose of the practicum is to provide a supervised clinical experience to broaden your understanding of students' literacy needs and ways to address those needs. As a part of the practicum, you will conduct a comprehensive assessment of the learners' strengths and needs (Part I: Diagnostic Report). Instructional plans will then be developed, and ongoing assessment and intervention strategies will be implemented under the direct supervision of the course instructors (Part II). At the end of the tutoring experience you will create the Summary Report (Part III).

You are also required to contact a family member of the student being tutored before the practicum begins. This contact is recorded on the communication log and is discussed in your diagnostic report, as well. This contact will help ensure full participation of the tutored students and will also provide information from the family to assist you in getting to know the learner and understand his/her literacy strengths/needs. This contact will also serve to welcome the child and family to begin building a strong school/home connection. You will then write plans and conduct tutoring sessions. Additionally, at the end of the tutoring sessions you will write an Instructional Summary Report and discuss it with the student and parent/guardian in a conference (if possible).

Part I: Procedures for the Diagnostic Report

Prior to your work with the student, class sessions will address research related to assessment and prepare you to give the Informal Reading Inventory (IRI) specified in your syllabus, as well as other assessments.

Once the tutoring begins, during the first three to four sessions, you will focus on becoming acquainted with the student and conducting preliminary assessments that will inform decisions made when developing instructional plans. All diagnostic sessions will be audiotaped. In addition to the selected Informal Reading Inventory, you will also analyze (a) a writing sample (create your own rubric or use one prevalent in local schools, such as the 6 Trait Writing rubric, or the Virginia SOL writing analysis format); (b) a published Reading/Writing Attitude/Interest Inventory/Survey instrument that is appropriate to the age of your student; and (c) at least 1 other assessment of your choice appropriate for your student. Please note that in some cases, alternate or additional assessments may be used, based on consultation with your instructor. For example, if you are working with a young reader, you may wish to use Marie Clay's Concepts of Print Test and/or a measure of phonological awareness. You will submit this diagnostic report to Tk20 (in EDRD 633) for grading.

Rubric for Part I: Diagnostic Report (EDRD 633)

Provides partial evidence of using multiple data sources to analyze individual readers' performance and to plan instruction and intervention.	Provides little or no evidence of using multiple data sources to analyze individual readers' performance and to plan instruction and intervention.

Part II: Instructional Plans

To guide your work with a student and to keep the practicum supervisor informed of your activities and goals, you are required to write instructional plans for each diagnostic or instructional session with your practicum student. The initial basis for these plans will be the "recommendations" section that you wrote in your Diagnostic Report (see above). For your lessons (after the assessment phase), you will develop routines around the following strands (addressing both reading and writing), as appropriate to the learner: (1) writing as meaningful communication, (2) word work or skill development (e.g., concepts of print/phonemic awareness/phonics, word recognition, vocabulary building), (3) fluency development, and (4) comprehension instruction using expository or narrative text strategies. These strands and your instructional routines must be clear in the lesson structure. See Bb for additional information about instructional plans. You also must use technology in at least 2 lessons, including teaching the student to use a new technology tool in a creative way (e.g., computer software, Smart Board, etc.). One lesson may include a low-level technology program (e.g., overheads, Word product, online games, Kidspiration) while one should include a high-level technology program (e.g., Smartboard, MovieMaker, Photostory). Each instructional plan will be read by your practicum supervisor before your lesson and comments will be provided (you may be asked to revise before teaching). Plans should be typed and comprised of no more than 3 single-spaced pages. At the end of the course you will post all of your instructional plans to Tk20 (in EDRD 637) as well as two samples of the student's work that show his/her growth.

Rubric for Part II: Planning and Instruction (EDRD 637)

IRA Standard/ Element	Exceeds Expectations (4)	Meets Expectations (3)	Approaching Expectations (2)	Below Expectations (1)

At the end of the practicum, you will write a summary report (see examples on Bb) and you will conduct a meeting with the parent/guardian (if possible) and student to discuss progress made in the practicum and recommendations for continued literacy development in both home and school. Parents/guardians will be advised that they may share the report with the child's teacher, but this is their choice. You will submit this summary report to your practicum supervisor for feedback and then to Tk20 (in EDRD 633) for grading.
