University Catalog Course Description: Introduces general methods of teaching and management in elementary schools with an emphasis on using the foundational principles of curriculum, instruction, assessment, and management to plan instruction for diverse learners.

Course Overview: This course examines methods of teaching children in PK-6 classrooms with an emphasis on understanding the overarching principles and interactions of curriculum, instruction, assessment, and management, as well as the components of highly effective lessons. Teacher candidates will explore multiple models of instructional planning to design and implement developmentally appropriate and engaging lessons. Teacher candidates will consider various models of management for creating a positive environment for learning.

Course Delivery Method: This course will be delivered primarily face to face via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. Some course activities will require additional free online tools such as Google, Flipgrid and Nearpod. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on Monday, January 9th, 2023.

This course will be delivered using multiple instructional strategies. Individual session formats vary and may include mini-lessons, small group/large group discussion, hands-on, interactive work, student presentations, and cooperative learning. Practical applications of theory are explored via group activities. Each week, asynchronous activities should be completed prior to our face-to-face class meetings. A detailed class schedule is included in the 'Class Schedule' section.

Please note: This course requires 15 hours of field observation. Additional details are in the ‘assignments’ section.

Assignment and/or Evaluations:

Morning Meeting Assignment (DUE March 9th; 15%)

Establishing a warm, safe, and culturally responsive classroom community, along with continuously reflecting on one’s teaching practice for the purposes of improvement, provide critical supports to students’ cognitive, social-emotional, physical, and language development. The purpose of this assignment is to help you both gain experience in planning and implementing all four components of Morning Meeting while increasing your reflective capacities as a form of teacher professional learning.

You will collaborate with your mentor teacher and/or peers to co-plan/co-lead one Morning Meeting lessons. This will involve the following four tasks:

- Part 1 - Planning: Your first task is to plan a 20-minute Morning Meeting lesson (using the GMU lesson planning template) that includes all of the following components: Greeting, Share, Activity, Message. You may plan with your mentor teacher and/or peers.

- Part 2 – Implementation: After you have planned the Morning Meeting, you need to implement the Morning Meeting. You may lead the Morning Meeting with your peer (if in a shared placement) and/or with your mentor teacher. You may also elect to lead the Morning Meeting on your own.

- Part 3 – Annotated Lesson Plan: After implementing your Morning Meeting, you will reflect upon your teaching experience by using the comments feature in your lesson plan document. These comments will serve as an initial reflection and help jumpstart your thinking around how the lesson went. Comments may be related to successes, growth areas, notes on what you might do differently were you to implement this lesson again, and any other pertinent noticings you had after lesson implementation. Note: While you may have co-planned and/or co-led the lesson with a peer, these comments should represent your own individual reflection on the lesson implementation and should be completed separately.

- Part 4 – Summative Reflection: After you have completed your individual initial reflections on the lesson, you will reflect on your Morning Meeting implementation with your peers at the same grade level or your placement group. Then, you will individually compose a summative reflection (on the lesson implementation that addresses all of the prompts below:
 - Why do you think certain aspects of the Morning Meeting went well?
 - Why do you think certain aspects of the Morning Meeting did not go as expected?
 - What changes might you make the next time you lead a Morning Meeting (try to go beyond changes you would make to this lesson specifically and consider how your approach, framing, management, etc. overall might be modified)?
 - What did you learn about how you interact with students at this age/grade level AND about leading and managing a large group of students?
 - What are some questions or ideas you would like to explore further?
 - You will submit Part 1, Part 3, and Part 4 to Blackboard. The GMU lesson planning template, as well as the rubric used to evaluate this assignment, will be provided in class.

The rubric used to evaluate this assignment will be provided in class.

Lesson Planning and Implementation Assignment (Draft Due March 23rd; Final Due: April 13th; 25%)

A key portion of this class is understanding the basic principles of effective instructional planning and implementation. The purpose of this performance-based assessment is to provide you an opportunity to develop a research-supported lesson plan that effectively meets the needs of a specific population of students. In your lesson, you will purposefully plan instruction using your understanding of the developmental needs of students in your observation classroom. You will complete one instructional cycle (planning, instruction, assessment, reflection/future planning). This assignment includes the following elements:

This assignment has three components:

- 1) PART 1: Describing Your Students: For this part of the assignment, you will describe the context in which you will be teaching your lesson. This includes
 - a) A description of your school and general grade level expectations.
 - b) A description of your students' developmental characteristics and academic readiness (be sure to identify AND connect their developmental characteristics and academic readiness to readings from across multiple courses, such as Yardsticks from ELED 543).
 - c) A rationale for instructional decisions you made based on the information you have gathered about students in this classroom and school, identified in a) and b) above.
- 2) PART 2: Detailed Lesson Plan: Based on the information you have identified in Part 1, you will design a detailed lesson plan that aligns with one or more Virginia state standards. NOTE: It is recommended that you focus this assignment on a literacy lesson that incorporates a read aloud and gradual release application of literacy skill (Blooms questioning, elicitation thinking, comprehending, predicting, story elements, etc.) Draft of Parts 1 & 2 due March 24

The lesson should be written using the “GMU Lesson Planning Template” and include all of the following required components:

- Standards
 - Objectives (the KUDs)
 - Materials (be specific!!)
 - Total time and time per lesson part
 - Technology (if applicable)
 - Differentiation
 - Procedures (note: these should be scripted out):
 - Hook/Link (Opening)
 - Detailed Steps (Developmental Activities and Closing)
 - Checks for Understanding – should be incorporated throughout lesson, as well as copied and pasted into a summary list under the “Checks for Understanding” heading
 - Assessment
 - Accommodations and Modifications for students with disabilities and multilingual learners
- 3) Part 3 – Lesson Implementation: After designing your detailed lesson plan, you will implement (teach) the lesson. Your implementation of the lesson should be videorecorded for reflection in Part 4.
 - 4) Part 4 – Two-Phased Reflection: After implementing your lesson, you will upload a 5-10 minute sample of your videorecorded lesson to Kaltura. You will then complete two reflective activities. (1) Annotate the video in Kaltura using the comments feature, reflecting on the lesson and what you notice in your teaching in the video and (2) Write a summative reflection statement and goal-setting for future planning and instruction using the prompts in the lesson planning template.

The PBA will be evaluated based on adherence to the provided lesson plan format; consistency with instructional methods taught in the course; appropriate rationale provided; specification of objectives, as related to state and national standards; appropriate match between assessment of learning and learning objectives; coherence of writing and mechanics, and reflection on instructional practices. Careful attention should be paid to designing lessons that balance teacher instruction with student engagement in learning activities. Further, each plan should consider the needs of individual students and incorporate activities that address students' basic competencies and scaffold their understanding to more complex understandings. As elementary teacher candidates, your plans should also include evidence of open-ended questioning.

The rubric used to evaluate this assignment will be provided in class.

Planning, Instruction, and Management Inquiry (DUE May 4th; 15%)

Teaching involves a complex interaction of intentional planning, management, and implementation. The purpose of this assignment is to scaffold you into noticing (and reflecting upon) these aspects of teaching within our field experience classroom. Across the semester, you will engage in course and field experience activities that support exploration of the following inquiry: In what ways do planning, instruction, management, and knowledge of learners intersect in the elementary classroom?

This assignment involves three investigations, as well as a culminating synthesis of what you have learned from these investigations, to be conducted during your field experience hours. For each investigation, a guided observation and exploration document will be provided in class. The observation document will scaffold connections between course readings, activities, discussions, and your field work. The four components of this assignment will be:

- Investigation #1: Classroom Learning Environment
- Investigation #2: Elements of Lesson Planning
- Investigation #3: Classroom Management
- Final Synthesis: This final component of the assignment requires you to synthesize your investigations #1-3 from across the semester to reconsider the inquiry question: In what ways do planning, instruction, management, and knowledge of learners intersect in the elementary classroom?

The guided exploration document for each investigation, as well the rubric used to evaluate this assignment, will be provided in class.

Classroom Management Plan (DUE May 11th; 15%)

You will develop an in-depth classroom management plan that serves as an overview of what a teacher does to prepare for the new school year. Your plan should include connections to readings and discussions from across the semester, with an emphasis on culturally responsive and anti-racist principles, and should include the following components:

- Part 1: An overview of your management philosophy (3-4 paragraphs)
 - Your evolving conception of your teacher identity
 - The principles you believe are most important in working with children

- The role of culturally responsive and anti-racist principles in your management philosophy
- How you see your identity, important principles in working with children, and role of CRT leading you to utilize key ideas from one or more of the four management models discussed in ELED 544, including your plans for proactive and reactive classroom management
- Part 2: A schematic diagram of your classroom
 - Include a detailed classroom map. This map should include clearly identified/labeled instructional spaces. Consider floor and wall spaces (i.e., don't forget to include a description of items you plan to include on the walls).
 - Provide a description of how your diagram is informed by each of the six features of classroom design.
- Part 3: A professional Welcome to the School Year letter to families
 - Introduce yourself and a bit about you.
 - Include your general beliefs about teaching/goals for the year.
 - Choose one grade level on which to focus and include a broad overview of key content for that grade level.
 - Close with methods for communication (i.e., newsletter, Twitter, Class Dojo, etc.) and methods for contacting you.
- Part 4: A description of 10 anticipated procedures and routines
 - Description should include what each will look/sound like.
 - Rationale for inclusion of each procedure or routine is included.
- Part 5: A description of your plan for developing classroom norms, rules, community, and relationships
 - Detail the process you will use to create classroom norms with students
 - Identify the classroom rules you will establish as a teacher
 - Describe ideas for building community within the classroom
 - Identify strategies for developing authentic relationships with students
- Part 6: A description of your plan for addressing misbehaviors
 - Identify multiple approaches for how you will address student misbehavior, including rationale for choosing to use those approaches with students
 - Include distinctions between minor misbehaviors, more significant/persistent misbehaviors, and serious behavioral challenges

The rubric used to evaluate this assignment will be provided in class.

Other Requirements:

Licensure Requirement: Praxis Subject Area Tests (10%)

To support timely completion of licensure requirements, you are expected to upload evidence of either registration for or test scores received for each of the required Praxis Subject Area Tests. Links and supporting resources will be provided as applicable.

Attendance and Participation (30%)

It is expected that you attend all face to face, synchronous and asynchronous online meetings outlined within the syllabus. Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service, and medical emergencies are exceptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent for any of these reasons, please make arrangements at least 48 hours in advance. In addition, you are expected to be on time to class unless 48 hours advance notice has been provided to the instructor.

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you have the opportunity to offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers; therefore, you are expected to contribute to face to face, synchronous and asynchronous online discussions and activities as well as genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. In addition, you are expected to be prepared for each class, which means having completed all assigned readings and tasks for that class.

Your participation includes completion of all face to face, synchronous and asynchronous application activities. This includes but is not limited to

- Contributions to whole group and small group discussions, including literature circles
- NearPod responses
- Lesson plan analyses
- Graphic organizers and activities associated with weekly content

Assignment Expectations:

All written papers are expected to be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and in 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial). APA format is expected. If you do not have a 7th Edition APA manual, the OWL at Purdue is an excellent resource.

<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

Please Note: The GMU Writing Center offers online support via email. They will provide feedback on your writing within one hour. Professional writing can be difficult; I encourage you to take advantage of this service. http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/?page_id=177

All assignments are to be completed by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. All assignments must be submitted on the due date stated within the syllabus (see below) and should be submitted in the format indicated by the instructor in class.

Note: I reserve the right to add, alter, or omit any assignment as necessary during the course of the semester. You will always receive advanced notice of any modifications.
