EDLE 620.601
Organizational Theory & Leadership Development
3 credits, Spring 2023
Meeting Day: Thursdays; 4:45-7:45 p.m.
Hybrid Classroom (Synchronous, Asynchronous, Face2Face)

Instructor: Regina D Biggs Ph.D.
Email: rbiggs@gmu.edu
Office Hours: Online - by appointment

Co-requisite(s): Application to the Education Leadership Program.

Course Description

EDLE 620: Organizational Theory and Leadership Development (3:3:0) Studies basic organizational theories and models of leadership and management. Emphasizes shared leadership in professional environments, communication skills, systems thinking, and personal and organizational change. Bridges theory to practical applications in educational settings.

General Goals: Organizational Theory and Leadership Development is intended to provide students with an opportunity to explore meanings of leadership in schools, leaders' role in school change and restructuring; and ways school leaders make sense of school organization. Students will explore both how organizations function and leadership choices within organizations, and they will have an opportunity to begin to develop a vision of their leadership practice and situate this practice within a perspective of how school organizations work.

Course Delivery Method

This course is delivered through a hybrid format featuring a combination of synchronous, asynchronous, and face2face sessions via the Blackboard learning management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard course site using your Mason email name (everything before "@masonlive.gmu.edu") and email password. The course incorporates a variety of instructional methods, including large-and small-group instruction, cooperative learning activities, Internet assignments, lectures, individual presentations, case studies, simulations, and written and verbal assignments.

Under no circumstances may students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or the Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technology Requirements

A Blackboard site is available to all students enrolled in the course at <http://mymason.gmu.edu>. You need to log on using your GMU username and password. To participate in this course, students will need the following resources:

- High-speed Internet access with standard, up-to-date browsers. To get a list of Blackboard's supported browsers, see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#supported-browsers
- To get a list of supported operating systems on different devices, see: https://help.blackboard.com/Learn/Student/Getting_Started/Browser_Support#tested-devices-and-operating-systems
- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students may be asked to create log-ins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of the course requirements.
- Students may use Kaltura, Jing, Camtasia, or Screencast-O-Matic to record videos and presentations consistent with assignment descriptions and instructions.
- The following software plug-ins for Pcs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download by clicking on the link next to each plug-in:
 - Adobe Acrobat Reader: <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>
 - Windows Media Player: <https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>
 - Apple QuickTime Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download/
- Email: All candidates are required to activate and monitor their GMU email accounts. Per university policy and in compliance with federal law, I will only communicate with candidates via their GMU email accounts. I will not respond to emails from other accounts (i.e., Gmail, Yahoo, work email, etc.). Any announcements concerning the course will be sent to your GMU email address. I will respond to emails within one business day of email receipt (i.e., excluding holidays and weekends).
- Video Conferencing: Students are encouraged to communicate with each other and the instructor using Blackboard Collaborate or Zoom for both group collaboration sessions and the instructor's virtual office hours.
- Microsoft Office: All students will require access to Microsoft Office. We will be using Word for this course. If you do not have access to this software, you must obtain it within the first two weeks of the course. Having the most recent software version is best but not required.
- Google Account: We will use Google Drive to organize our collaborative work this semester. Students will post work products on Blackboard Discussion Boards for class commentary and assessment. All students are required to have an active Gmail account to participate in these activities. This Gmail account should be distinct from your school email address, even if you have access to google through your school account (email should end in @gmail.com).

Online Expectations

- Log-in Frequency: Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials.
- Participation: Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which include viewing of all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Office hours- see Blackboard for hours and Calendly link
- Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues: Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload: Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities, and assignments due. Updates will be posted on the Bb site.
- Instructor Support: Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content, or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
- Confidentiality: By federal law, any materials that identify specific students (via their name, voice, or image) must not be shared with anyone not enrolled in this class.
 - Video recordings — whether made by instructors or students — of class meetings that include audio, visual, or textual information from other students are private and must not be shared outside the class
 - Live video conference meetings (e.g., Collaborate or Zoom) that include audio, textual, or visual information from other students must be viewed privately and not shared with others in your household or recorded and shared outside the class
- Netiquette: The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.
- Accommodations: Learners who require accommodations to ensure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services and provide the instructor with a Faculty Contact Sheet. Academic accommodations are initiated through Faculty Contact Sheets and are not retroactive.

Program Learning Objectives

The Education Leadership program is designed to prepare candidates for leadership and management positions in various educational settings. The program emphasizes understanding the complexities of change in schools, communities, and organizations. This first class is intended to introduce students to theory and practice in school leadership. Theories introduced in this class through readings, mixed media, and engagement activities will be used throughout the program to frame the candidate's thinking about leadership practice and decision-making.

Course Learning Objectives

1. Understand the meaning and significance of the education leader's personal vision and core beliefs in school organizations;
2. Explore and differentiate traditional and critical leadership and organizational theories and their relationship to the study and practice of education leadership; and
3. Engage multiple conceptual and theoretical tools and strategies for observing, describing, and analyzing leadership cases for organizational change and enhanced institutional performance

Course Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. Define, identify, and articulate the meaning and significance of the education leader's personal vision and core beliefs in school organizations.
2. Construct and articulate a vision of effective school leadership as supported by their personal values and core beliefs around leadership, teaching, and learning.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of traditional and critical leadership and organizational theories and their relationship to the field of education leadership.
4. Compare and contrast the theoretical assumptions and traditional organizational theories that inform Bolman & Deal's four-frame model for analyzing organizational behaviors and outcomes.
5. Develop leadership cases that reflect connections between leadership and organizational theory, research, and practice.
6. Analyze leadership cases and scenarios through the practice of framing and reframing.

National Standards and Virginia Competencies

Each M.Ed. licensure course includes at least one Performance-Based Assessment (PBA) as required by the program. The PBA for this course is the Reframing Paper. The course addresses a variety of the NELP Standards, focusing primarily on the following: Standards 1.1, 1.2, 3.3, 4.3, 4.4, and corresponding components of the Virginia Standards for School Leaders:

The Education Leadership program is designed to prepare candidates for leadership and management positions in a variety of educational settings. The program emphasizes an understanding of the complexities of change in schools, communities, and organizations. This is the first class in the licensure sequence in Education Leadership and is therefore intended to introduce students to theory and practice in school leadership. Theory introduced in this class will be used throughout the program to frame candidates' thinking about leadership practice and decision-making.

The NELP standards for building-level leadership preparation address the most critical knowledge and skill areas for beginning building-level educational leaders. These standards align with national leadership practice standards and research on effective leadership practice, input from key stakeholder communities, and the four Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) principles—(A) The Learner and Learning, (B) Content, (C) Instructional Practice, and (D) Professional Responsibility. The Education Leadership Department began the transition to NELP standards in the fall of 2020, and students beginning his/her program on or after that time will be following the NELP standards.

NELP Standard Component 1.1 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to collaboratively evaluate, develop, and communicate a school mission and vision designed to reflect a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community.

NELP Standard Component 1.2 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to lead improvement processes that include data use, design, implementation, and evaluation.

NELP Standard Component 3.3 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to evaluate, cultivate, and advocate for equitable, inclusive, and culturally responsive instruction and behavior support practices among teachers and staff.

NELP Standard Component 4.3 Program completers understand and can demonstrate the capacity to evaluate, develop, and implement formal and informal culturally responsive and accessible assessments that support data-informed instructional improvement and student learning and well-being.

NELP Standard Component 4.4 Program completers understand and demonstrate the capacity to collaboratively evaluate, develop, and implement the school's curriculum, instruction, technology, data systems, and assessment practices in a coherent, equitable, and systematic manner.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time as outlined by the instructor (e.g., Blackboard, VIA, hard copy).

Expectations for Written Work

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education & Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles: <http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/>.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- George Mason University takes pride in the diversity of our university community. We aim to create an environment at Mason, in our classrooms and beyond, that is inclusive, inspirational, and focused on the needs of those we serve. Please view the Mason Diversity Statement for more information.
- Mason is an Honor Code university. The principle of academic integrity is taken very seriously, and violations are treated gravely. Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see <http://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/>).
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing [see <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>].
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with the George Mason University Office of Disability Services (ODS). Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see <http://ds.gmu.edu>).

- Students are invited to share their name and gender pronouns with the instructor and how best to address you in class and via email. I use she/her for myself, and you may address me as “Regina Biggs” or “Dr./Professor Biggs.”
- Students must follow the university policy stating that all sound-emitting devices shall be silenced during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- Support for submission of assignments to VIA should be directed to viahelp@gmu.edu or <https://cehd.gmu.edu/aero/assessments>. Other reminders:

GMU Add/Drop Policy: The last day to drop this class without any penalty is provided on the GMU academic calendar page <http://registrar.gmu.edu/calendar/>. It is the student’s responsibility to check to verify that they are properly enrolled, as no credit will be awarded to students who are not.

Plagiarism: Students must avoid plagiarizing the work of others. Specifically, when referencing a source or author, students must give appropriate source documentation; and when using direct quotes, students must use quotations, provide page numbers, and ensure that credit is given to the author of quoted material. If a candidate’s work contains plagiarism, the candidate will receive no credit for the assignment.

Copyright: Copyright rules also apply to users of the Internet who cite from Internet sources. Information and graphics accessed electronically must also be cited, giving credit to the sources. This material includes but is not limited to email (don't cite or forward someone else's email without permission), newsgroup material, and information from Web sites, including graphics. Even if you give credit, you must get permission from the original source to put any graphic that you did not create on your web page unless the materials are made available through a fair use claim or consistent with the TEACH Act.

Academic Integrity & Inclusivity: This course embodies the perspective that we all have differing perspectives and ideas, and we each deserve the opportunity to share our thoughts. Therefore, we will conduct our discussions with respect for those differences, meaning we each have the freedom to express our ideas, but we should also do so, keeping in mind that our colleagues deserve to hear differing thoughts in a respectful manner, i.e., we may disagree without being disagreeable. <http://integrity.gmu.edu/>

Diversity, Religious Holiday: Please refer to George Mason University's calendar of religious holidays and observations <https://ulife.gmu.edu/religious-holiday-calendar/>. It is the student's responsibility to speak to the instructor in advance should their religious observances impact their participation in class activities and assignments.

Student Privacy Policy: George Mason University strives to fully comply with FERPA by protecting the privacy of student records and judiciously evaluating requests for the release of information from those records. Please see George Mason University's student privacy policy <https://registrar.gmu.edu/students/privacy/>

Other Concerns: If you have concerns or issues relating to the content or conduct of the class, please talk with me directly. Although the specifics of these conversations are entirely confidential, they may provide me with useful suggestions that may be shared indirectly with the class to improve the learning experience for all students. As a matter of policy, I do not respond to anonymous emails.
