University Catalog Course Description

Introduces children's literature as a tool for working with children across a range of contexts, including early childhood and elementary classrooms. Explores multiple approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings with an eye towards format, genre, curricular connections, and overall utility.

Course Overview

This course broadly and deeply examines literature for children in preschool through Grade 6. The focus is on selecting and using appropriate books for children in a variety of diverse contexts including literature-based reading and content area instruction. In addition, students explore multiple instructional approaches and strategies for literature use in diverse settings.

This course fulfills the Mason Core Literature requirement and addresses the following learning outcomes:

- 1) Read for comprehension, detail and nuance.
- 3) Analyze the ways specific literary devices contribute to the meaning of texts.
- 4) Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which literary text is produced.

Course Delivery Method

This face-to-face course will be delivered using multiple instructional strategies and formats as well resources in our course Blackboard Learning site. Individual session formats may include lecture, small group/large group discussion and reflection, interactive workshop approaches, student-led presentations, and cooperative learning. Practical applications of literature are explored via group activities and discussion board forums in Blackboard.

You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email username and email password. The course site will be available on January 9, 2024. Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.

Learner Outcomes or Objectives

This course is designed to enable students to:

1. Read and comprehend the content of various kinds of children's books with attention to detail, nuance, and literary qualities and literary devices (INTASC 4) (Mason Core Literature Outcomes 1 and 3)
2. Plan for meeting the needs of diverse classroom populations including disabilities, SES, ethnicities and race, gender, and linguistic diversity. (INTASC 1, 2, 3)
3. Integrate children's literature across content areas (INTASC 1, 4, 5, 7)
4. Describe why learning communities and motivation are important and describe the major strategies for motivating students. (INTASC 1, 3, 5)
5. Identify genres in children's literature and collect, read, and categorize books based on these genres (INTASC 3,

- 4, 5, 7)
- Engage in book discussion to deepen knowledge about and appreciation of children's literature in conjunction with language arts content standards and the historical and cultural contexts within which the literature is situated (INTASC 4, 5, 8) (Mason Core Literature Outcome 4)
 - Plan for and use various instructional strategies including presentation, direct instruction, concept teaching, cooperative learning, problem-based learning, and classroom discussion and adapt each to meet the needs of diverse students. (INTASC 8)

Professional Standards Upon completion of this course, students will have met the following professional standards:

INTASC (The Interstate Teacher Assessment & Support Consortium):

- Standard #1: Learner Development. The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.
- Standard #2: Learning Differences. The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.
- Standard #3: Learning Environments. The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation.
- Standard #4: Content Knowledge. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.
- Standard #5: Application of Content. The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.
- Standard #7: Planning for Instruction. The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.
- Standard #8: Instructional Strategies. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Course Performance Evaluation

All assignments are to be completed and submitted via Blackboard by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Some work will also be shared in synchronous class sessions.

Gender identity and pronoun use: If you wish, please share your name and gender pronouns with me and how best to address you in class and via email. I use she/her/hers for myself and you may address me as Kelly or Mrs. Huggler in email and verbally.

Assignments and/or Evaluations:

Attendance and Participation 28 points)

This course is based on your active participation, exploration, and interaction with peers. Completion of all activities, assignments, and readings is essential for meaningful participation. See additional information in assignments and under Other Requirements in Syllabus.

Introduction video

DUE January 19th

Welcome to Children's Literature! Please create a short video introduction in our class Discussion Board and share a few things about yourself so we might get to know you a little better. Include where you are from, your major, hobbies/interests and why you are taking Children's literature. Be sure to also view your classmate's introductions and comment on 3 other classmate's videos.

Self as Reader (10 points)

DUE January 31st

Our reading identity is formed over time as we choose and experience books to read. Selections may be based on our interests, preferences, academics, and biases. What we read shapes our thinking, perceptions, beliefs, and responses. Books fill our needs, teach us, and impact who we become.

- This assignment is designed to help us consider the powerful role literature can play in shaping young readers' identities by focusing on the young person we are most familiar with: ourselves.
- What book or books did you read as a child or young adolescent that helped you love reading? What made the book/s such a positive experience? Was there a particular character you identified with, a character you loved to hate, a book you didn't want to stop reading?
- Select ONE of the following activities from your reading life and write an essay:
 - Create a timeline of your history of reading- What reading experiences have been most influential in your life? How were you encouraged and discouraged to become a reader? What does the timeline reveal about your reading identity? What did you learn about yourself by creating your timeline?
 - Reread a book that you first read as a child or young adolescent. Begin your essay with a 1-2 paragraph summary of the book, then develop your essay juxtaposing your identity and experience reading this book as a child or young adolescent with your identity and experience reading this book as an adult. What motivated you to read the book? What did you find most engaging about the book?
- Write a 3–4-page essay describing your timeline experiences or the book. Your essay should be personal, insightful, and should build a strong emotional response in your reader. This assignment is intended to be a personal and reflective piece rather than an academic or scholarly essay. Please cite texts mentioned.

Literature Circles and Reflections (10 points)

January 24th and January 31st

- As part of this class, you will participate in several literature circles with a group of peers in class during the semester and write reflections about the experience. Think of this as a book club meeting with friends!
- You will select a novel and work with a small group to conduct at least two literature circle discussions. Your group will set the reading schedule, norms for the group, and compose prompts to facilitate discussion.
- The purpose of this activity is to learn how literature can be shared among students to promote community, reading engagement and motivation, fluency, and comprehension with attention and discussion devoted to literary devices, aspects of writer's craft, contextual elements needed for comprehension, as well as to explore the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts within the text.

Picture Book Analysis File (BAF) (12 points) –

DUE various dates (see below)

- Throughout this course, you will curate a bibliography of different genres and formats of children’s literature, critically selecting the titles based on information and resources presented in class and during class discussions that might be used with elementary students.
- You will select 3 picture books from this list of six genres to look at closely and write a critical analysis of the text and illustrations. You will use the information learned to write about the criteria/elements for multicultural picture books and each genre. All students will complete a Picture Book Analysis of a Concept Book.
- Genres and due dates:
 - Concept books (Feb.7^h)- all students complete this one.
 - Biography/autobiography or Nonfiction/Informational (Feb.14th)
 - Contemporary Realistic Fiction (Feb.21st)
 - Historical fiction (February 28th)
 - Fantasy/Science Fiction/Post Modern Fantasy November 15th)

Include the following information in your analysis for each book:

1. Author and Illustrator information, publication year, title, publisher (APA format)
2. Author and/or illustrator background experiences that may have contributed to the book.
3. Format & length of book
4. Book awards (if applicable)
5. Book summary (1-2 paragraphs)
6. Critical analysis/evaluation. Include information regarding the specific literary qualities employed in the book. Use criteria specific to the genre. Identify and evaluate the contribution of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the text is produced as well as author/illustrator information and/or experiences that add to this context.
7. Provide analysis of the illustrations using the vocabulary of picture books and how they partner with the text to convey meaning.
8. This must be your own original work.

Author Study (15 points)

DUE: Presentation-Blackboard October 28th / Share & Survey Nov.1st

Your group will select and research a children’s author of books (who has written at least 5 books). Groups formed and author selected by October.

- You will select and closely read the author’s works and analyze them for themes, content, and connections to classroom use, comparing titles through a critical literacy lens to examine:
 - How the author’s craft has evolved over time
 - The author’s unique contribution to children’s literature
 - Variations of themes/content in the books
- Include: a discussion of the contribution of the author’s use of specific literacy devices to contribute to the text’s meaning and a discussion of the social, political, historical, and cultural contexts in which the author’s work is produced, and how those contexts impact the potential for classroom use.
- Your group will create a visually appealing presentation (about 10-12 min. long) describing findings, a biographical sketch, a brief read aloud of a favorite passage that exemplifies the author’s craft, plus a bibliography of the books included in the analysis. In the case of author-illustrators such as Mo Willems, you will analyze how illustrations and text work together to convey meaning, (noting artistic style, craft, techniques.)
- You will provide peer feedback on the presentations and complete a group contributions reflection (Group PIE Survey) as part of this assignment due Nov.8th.

Text Set (15 points)

DUE: Final Set-Blackboard Nov.8th Share and Surveys Nov.15th

Your group will assemble books from a variety of formats and genres to create a cohesive set of at least 5 texts that align with a social justice issue of your group’s choice. Past topics have included: Racism, Feminism, LGBTQIA, Specific Cultural Groups, Immigration, Poverty, Homelessness, Trauma, and Disabilities. Other ideas are considered with approval. Groups formed, topics selected, and group folder set up by October 18th.

- Your text set could be used to help diverse learners learn more about a social justice issue through a specific collection of topic-related books.
- You will justify your Text Set, including the following information:

- An overview explaining how your selections support learning about the issue
- APA format of each book (author, publication year, title, publisher)
- A brief synopsis (one paragraph per text) and analysis of each text (two-three paragraphs per text)
 - Analysis should address literary and illustrative elements employed in the texts and political, historical, and cultural influences.
- How the books address VA Dept. of Education standards of learning
- The final Text Set with at least 5 books or 1 per person for groups larger than 5, will be uploaded to Blackboard Assignments by November 8th, 11:59 pm and shared in class as a group presentation on November 15th or November 29th.
- Your assignment due November 15th or November 29th.

Final Picture Book Analysis and exam (10 points) (OBJ)

DUE: Dec.6th

Online exam. Open notes. More information will be provided in class.

Other Requirements:

Attendance and Participation Expectations

This course operates with the assumption that knowledge is socially constructed, and the most meaningful learning opportunities are those where you can offer and explore diverse perspectives with peers. To do this, you must attend all classes as outlined in the syllabus and arrive on time. Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service, and medical emergencies are exceptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent or arriving late for any of these reasons, please plan with the instructor at least 48 hours (about 2 days) in advance.

You are expected to contribute to in person and online discussions and activities as well as genuinely listen to peers as they do the same. In addition, you are expected to be prepared for each class, completing all assigned readings and tasks for that class.

Your participation includes completion of all application activities. These activities may include class discussion, written reflections, Discussion Board (Blackboard) responses, posting short videos (maybe introductions, book talks, book reviews) as well as group work and research with classmates outside class time.

Work Timeliness Expectations

All assignments are to be completed by the date listed in the syllabus. Written work will not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. All assignments must be submitted by 11:59 pm on the due date stated within the syllabus (see below) and should be submitted in the format indicated by the instructor in class.

APA Format

All written papers are expected to be double-spaced, with 1” margins, and in 12-point font (Times New Roman, Calibri, or Arial). If you do not have a 7th Edition APA manual, the Purdue OWL website is an excellent resource. <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

Please Note: The GMU Writing Center offers online support via email. They will provide feedback on your writing within one hour. Graduate and professional writing can be difficult; I encourage you to take advantage of this service. http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/?page_id=177

Note: I reserve the right to add, alter, or omit any assignment as necessary during the semester. You will always receive advanced notice of any modifications.

Core Values Commitment

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to collaboration, ethical leadership, innovation, research-based practice, and social justice. Students are expected to adhere to these principles:

<http://cehd.gmu.edu/values/>.

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to the guidelines of the Mason Honor Code (see <https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/honor-code-system/>).
 - Attendance – Slide 14
 - In accordance with the GMU Attendance Policies (University Catalog, 2023-2024), “Students are expected to attend the class periods of the courses for which they are registered. In-class participation is important not only to the individual student, but also to the class as a whole. Because class participation may be a factor in grading, instructors may use absence, tardiness, early departure, or failure to engage in online classes as de facto evidence of nonparticipation.”
 - If you must be absent from class, inform the instructor prior to the beginning of the class session. Missed classes (or portions of classes) will result in loss of participation points. Unless there are extenuating circumstances that have been shared with the instructor, more than two missed classes will result in a failing grade and you must retake the course.
 - Absence from class to observe a religious holiday, to serve jury duty, or to participate in required military service are exemptions to the above policy. If you anticipate being absent for any of these reasons, please make arrangements at least 48 hours in advance.
 - In addition, you are expected to be on time to class each week unless 48 hours advance notice has been provided to the instructor.
 - AI policy – Slide 15
 - Use of Generative-AI tools should be used following the fundamental principles of the Honor Code. This includes being honest about the use of these tools for submitted work and including citations when using the work of others, whether individual people or Generative-AI tools.

- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see <http://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>)
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see <https://ds.gmu.edu/>).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.
