Prerequisites

B or better in 525; B or better in EDCD 606 or B or better in EDCD 609

University Catalog Course Description

Provides an introduction to trauma and crisis counseling using theories and techniques from bioecological and multicultural-social justice perspectives. Covers assessments and interventions with individuals, families, and communities who have experienced trauma/crisis.

Course Overview

This course explores the nature and experience of trauma and related crises and natural disasters. Multiple theories are explored regarding the effects of traumatic impact on individuals, families, and communities. Theoretical constructs are analyzed, from an ecosystemic perspective, for their potential application in the area of trauma, crisis, and disaster; various examples of interventions and counseling techniques are examined for their usefulness in working with survivors of trauma and crises. The course is designed to provide students with an opportunity for incorporating theoretical and philosophical counseling positions and for beginning to practice the techniques of counseling individuals who have been traumatized as well as to intervene appropriately in crisis and disaster situations. The unique experiences of trauma/crisis among various populations are addressed from a multicultural-social justice perspective, including the experiences of childhood trauma, discrimination, and interpersonal violence.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered using a lecture format, group work, and asynchronous modules.

Course Objectives

This course is designed to enable students to do the following:

1. Develop an understanding of the impact of crisis, trauma, disaster, and systemic/environmental factors on diverse individuals, families, and communities across the lifespan (CACREP 2.F.3.g; 2.F.3.f; 5.C.2.f.);
2. Identify relevant assessment and treatment issues that pertain to survivors of trauma/crisis, are ethical and culturally relevant, and promote resilience/wellness across the lifespan (CACREP 2.F.3.i);
3. Develop an understanding of multiple theories of crisis intervention, disaster response, trauma-informed practices, and trauma recovery (CACREP 2.F.5.m)
4. Develop an understanding of the roles and responsibility of counselors within trauma counseling and crisis management (CACREP 2.F.1.c); and

5. Apply trauma and crisis counseling concepts to diverse populations and practice settings utilizing a multicultural-social justice framework.

Professional Standards

Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs (CACREP) 2016

Upon completion of this course, students will have met the following professional standards:

CACREP Standard	Course Objective Coverage	Course Activities
counselors' roles and responsibilities as members of interdisciplinary community outreach and emergency management response teams (CACREP 2.F.1.c)	This Standard is part of Course Objective #4; see course schedule for specific classes	Assigned readings that discuss this Standard include: chapters in Duffey & Haberstroh Fundamental Theories and Skills for Crisis Counseling . ### Recommended Readings

TBA

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor.

- Assignments

Community Care Activity & Discussion Board Post

As part of establishing systemic practices that facilitate self-care, we will begin and end each class meeting with a short (~5 minutes) community care practice. Students will sign up to facilitate one community care session during the semester. Creativity is encouraged! The practice can be anything that will bring relaxation, fun, mindfulness, centering, connectedness, calm, peacefulness, or joy to the class (e.g., breathing, meditation, guided imagery, music, art, chanting, singing, movement, humor). Please make sure to practice the activity several times before you lead the class.

In addition to facilitating the activity, you will post on Bb discussion board: (1) information about the activity (e.g., instructions, scripts, visual aids) and (2) a short narrative (about 2 paragraphs). The narrative can address: how the activity can be used for self/community care, why it would be helpful for self/community care, and your own reflections on using the activity. You must include at least one citation from course readings or another professional source.

Trauma and Crisis Counseling Reflection Paper

As you begin learning about trauma and crisis counseling in this course, reflect on any reactions you have to doing trauma/crisis counseling work or working with trauma/crisis survivors, including the following questions:

- What is your interest in this topic generally and specifically (e.g., types of traumatic events or counseling approaches)?
- What experience do you have with trauma and crisis counseling, either personally or professionally?
- What concerns do you have about providing trauma/crisis counseling and/or learning about these topics in class?

- What stands out to you from the readings so far?
- What thoughts do you have after completing the Life Events Checklist (LEC)? What are the strengths and limitations of the LEC?

The paper should be approximately 3 pages in length (double-spaced) and should adhere to APA format (current edition). To help frame your response, complete the readings for Classes 1 and 2 and the LEC prior to the writing the paper.

Traumatic Experience Article Review *Performance Based Assessment (PBA) & Key Assignment: Submit on Bb and VIA (CACREP Standards 1, 2)

Select an article from a peer-reviewed journal published in the last 5 years (preferably counseling journals) that addresses a type of traumatic experience that is of interest to you. Examples include survivors of a particular type of disaster, crisis, or traumatic event (e.g., a tsunami, school shooting), and you might also narrow down to a particular population of interest (e.g., women survivors of IPV, Native Americans experiencing intergenerational trauma).

The paper should be approximately 4-5 pages in length (double-spaced). In reviewing the article, you should refer to readings from the course and include at least two in text citations from these or other relevant readings. See the rubric for additional details. To ensure you cover all rubric requirements, these sub headers are recommended (following your summary of the article): Multiculturalism; Systemic factors and social justice; Usefulness in counseling; and Resilience and wellness

Skills Development Reflection Paper

As you complete this course, reflect on your progress in the course related to the development of counseling skills for crisis and trauma counseling. Skills can include intervention, rapport building, assessment, conceptualization, intervention, critical thinking, advocacy, and more. Integrate the feedback you've received (especially during practice sessions) and consider the following questions:

- What strengths have you noticed over the course the semester in your counseling skills?
- In what ways have you grown over the course of the semester in your counseling skills?
- What are the areas in which you are still growing or hope to grow in the future in your counseling skills?
- Which pieces of feedback have been most surprising or most meaningful to you?
- What would you like to tell your "former" self when you started the program or the semesters?
- What would you like your "future" self to remember on difficult days?

The paper should be approximately 3 pages in length (double-spaced) and should adhere to APA format.

Participation

Students in Counseling courses are expected to demonstrate a high level of participation consistent with graduate-level education. Students are expected to:

- be on time and present for the duration of the class
- demonstrate engagement (e.g., ask questions, share thoughts, participate in activities)
- be respectful and attentive

- give thoughtful feedback and demonstrate receptiveness to feedback (see Professional Dispositions)
- demonstrate preparedness for each class meeting (e.g., discussion board posts and contributions to discussions)
- Note: A large component of this class will be practice sessions. Your participation is especially critical to this process, so expect to be fully engaged in online classes with your camera on and in a private location. You will be expected to give meaningful feedback to your peers, as well as participate as a “counselor” and “client.”

The following rubric will be used to grade participation:

- 10: Attends all classes, arrives on time, and actively participates in most classes
- 9: Attends all classes, arrives on time, and moderately participates in most classes OR misses one class (unexcused), arrives on time, and actively participates in most classes
- 8: Attends all classes, arrives on-time, and moderately participates in most classes
- 7: Misses one class, arrives on-time, and moderately participates in most classes
- 6: Misses one class and/or several times late to class and/or low participation in most classes
- 5-below: Misses one class and/or chronic lateness and/or minimal participation in most classes.

- Other Requirements

Course Expectations

APA Format: Students in Counseling courses are expected to use APA style (7th ed.) for written papers.

Electronic Devices

Turn off and put away all electronic communication devices during class. Cell phones, pagers, and other communicative devices are not allowed in this class. Please keep them stowed away and out of sight. Laptops or tablets (e.g. iPads) are generally not permitted, but you may submit a request in writing if you wish to do so. Engaging in activities not related to the course (e.g. gaming, email, chat, text, etc.) will result in a significant deduction in your participation grade. Notify the instructor prior to class if you have an emergency situation that requires accommodation.

Attendance

In accordance with the policies of the Counseling Program, on-time attendance at every class meeting is expected. Late arrival to class may be considered an absence. Two or more unexcused absences may result in course failure. Attendance on the first day of class is required. Excused absences are permitted for illness, religious holidays, or emergency situations only; documentation is required for the absence to be considered excused. Work-related absences are not considered excused.

Course Requirements

Each student is expected to do the following: (1) attend each class, (2) complete all reading assignments before class, (3) arrive on time and stay for the entire class period, (4) participate in discussions and in-class work groups, (5) regularly check GMU email, and (6) submit or access documents via LMS as assigned.

Assignments

Assignments for the course are to be submitted electronically via LMS prior to the beginning of class on the date due unless otherwise noted. Late assignments will not be accepted. Assignments should not be emailed to the instructor without prior approval. Additional assignments and assessments may be added at the instructor's discretion.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is a violation of both the George Mason University code of honor and the expected professional dispositions of the Counseling Program. The GMU English Department has developed the following statement regarding plagiarism: <https://writingcenter.gmu.edu/writing-resources/citing-sources/plagiarism>

- Grading

Course Performance Evaluation Weighting

Course Assignment/Requirement	Points
Community Care Activity & Discussion Board Post	20
Trauma and Crisis Counseling Reflection Paper	15
Traumatic Experience Article Review	20
Skills Development Reflection Paper	15
Participation	30
Total	100

In accordance with the George Mason University Grading Policy, the following grades may be achieved: A [100-94]; A- [93-90]; B+ [89-87]; B [86-84]; B- [83-80]; C [79 - 70]; F [69 and below]

Use of Generative AI

Use of Generative AI tools should be used following the fundamental principles of Mason's Academic Standards. This includes being honest about the use of these tools for submitted work and including citations when using the work of others, whether individual people or Generative AI tools.

Use only with prior permission – Counseling students are allowed to use advanced automated tools (artificial intelligence or machine learning tools such as ChatGPT or Dall-E 2) on assignments in this course if instructor permission is obtained 7 days in advance of the assignment due date and if that use is properly documented and cited. Unless given permission to use those tools and citations provided, each student is expected to complete each assignment without substantive assistance from others, including automated tools.

Professional Dispositions (CEHD Student Guide)

Throughout study in the College of Education and Human Development, students are expected to demonstrate behaviors that reflect the positive dispositions of a professional. See <https://cehd.gmu.edu/current-students/cehd-student-guide>.

Professional Dispositions (PD) Assessment

Professional Dispositions Assessments are completed by instructors in all required courses. A developmental approach to PD Assessment is used, understanding that students are developing in their awareness, skills, and abilities throughout the course of the Counseling Program. In general, students in “basic or pre-practicum level” courses may demonstrate the disposition sometimes or inconsistently. Students in “intermediate or practicum level” courses should demonstrate the disposition more often or frequently. Students in “advanced or internship level” courses should demonstrate the dispositions always or almost always. The courses are assigned to levels as follows:

Course Level	Courses
Basic (Pre-Practicum)	Core: 602, 601, 525, 603, 609, 606, 604, 656 CMHC: 654, 652, 658 SC: 613, 611, 626
Intermediate (Practicum)	Core: 608, 660, 628, 619, 610, 797 CMHC: 750 SC: 751
Advanced (Internship)	CMHC: 792, 794 SC: 793, 795

Professional Dispositions assessments are scored as follows:

- 4: Consistently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition all or almost all of the time. This rank is considered exceptional, particularly for students who are at the beginning of their program. Students who are advanced in the program (i.e., in their last year of the program and enrolled in Internship I or II) should expect to achieve this rank.
- 3: Frequently Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition often or most of the time. It is expected that students in the middle of the program (i.e., usually the second year for full time or third year for part time students) will achieve this rank. This reflects that they have moved beyond the initial phase of counselor training and are developing well towards being a professional counselor.
- 2: Sometimes Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition sometimes or inconsistently. It is expected that students at the beginning of the program (i.e., first year for most students) will achieve this rank. Students at the beginning of the program are expected to be developing towards these professional dispositions as a part of their counselor training and preparation for their future as a professional counselor.
- 1: Seldom Evident – The student demonstrates the disposition rarely or not at all. In some instances, this may also indicate a harmful demonstration of professional disposition(s). Students at the beginning of their program may achieve this rank, which can be developmentally appropriate as they learn the expectations for students and future professional counselors. Should this occur, students should expect to meet with their advisor, who will assist them in addressing the area of concern.
- N/A: Not Applicable – An instructor or supervisor may use this to note that they did not have the opportunity to observe the disposition or that it was not relevant in the given context. This is most likely to occur at the beginning of the program when some dispositions may not be germane to the particular class.

Counseling Program Mission Statement

Mason's Counseling Program infuses values integral to the preparation of professional counselors—social justice, multiculturalism, internationalism, advocacy, and leadership—into its celebrated curriculum. Graduates are prepared to assume leadership roles; be proactive change agents; and become advocates for social, economic, and political justice. By working through interdisciplinary teams as well as infusing teaching, research, service, and professional practice, the Mason counseling program will prepare the next generation of counselors to serve the collective needs of individuals through local, national, and international contexts.

CEHD Commitments

The College of Education and Human Development is committed to fostering collaboration and community, promoting justice and equity, and advancing research-informed practice. Students are expected to adhere to, and contribute to, these commitments, the CEHD Mission, and Core Values of George Mason University. More information can be found here:

<https://cehd.gmu.edu/about/culture/>

GMU Policies and Resources for Students

Policies

- Students must adhere to Mason's Academic Standards (see <https://catalog.gmu.edu/policies/academic-standards/>)
- Students must follow the university policy for Responsible Use of Computing (see <https://universitypolicy.gmu.edu/policies/responsible-use-of-computing/>).
- Students are responsible for the content of university communications sent to their Mason email account and are required to activate their account and check it regularly. All communication from the university, college, school, and program will be sent to students solely through their Mason email account.
- Students with disabilities who seek accommodations in a course must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services. Approved accommodations will begin at the time the written letter from Disability Services is received by the instructor (see <https://ds.gmu.edu/>).
- Students must silence all sound emitting devices during class unless otherwise authorized by the instructor.

Campus Resources

- Support for submission of assignments to VIA should be directed to viahelp@gmu.edu or <https://cehd.gmu.edu/aero/assessments>.

Notice of mandatory reporting of sexual assault, sexual harassment, interpersonal violence, and stalking:

As a faculty member, I am designated as a “Non-Confidential Employee,” and must report all disclosures of sexual assault, sexual harassment, interpersonal violence, and stalking to Mason’s Title IX Coordinator per University Policy 1202. If you wish to speak with someone confidentially, please contact one of Mason’s confidential resources, such as Student Support and Advocacy Center \(SSAC\) at 703-380-1434 or Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\) at 703-993-2380. You may also seek assistance or support measures from Mason’s Title IX Coordinator by calling 703-993-8730, or emailing titleix@gmu.edu.

Appropriate content for practice counseling sessions

Practice counseling sessions are used to teach relationship building and to facilitate personal growth and development, rather than to explore serious mental health concerns. It is important to remember that student counselors-in-training are not licensed professional counselors and lack the expertise to handle serious mental health concerns. Information shared in practice counseling sessions that raises concerns regarding the safety of the student-client should be shared immediately with the course instructor. Student-clients should recognize that any disclosure that indicates a danger to themselves or others will be disclosed (as appropriate per CEHD policy) to the police and GMU Student Academic Affairs. Disclosures of sexual assault, interpersonal violence, and stalking must be reported to Mason’s Title IX Coordinator per University Policy 1202 (see above).
