Expectations

- Course Week:
Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day, our week will start on Monday, and finish on Sunday at 11:59 pm.
- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course LMS site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least 3 times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.
- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

Learner Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, teacher candidates/students will be able to:

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor (e.g., LMS, VIA, hard copy).

Signature assessment. The sum of the two Verbal Behavior Instructional Projects will be the signature assessment for this course.

Please submit your Verbal Behavior Instructional Projects as outlined below.

Assignments and/or Examinations

Verbal Behavior Instructional Project

For this project you will apply what you have learned about assessment and intervention with verbal behavior targets. Using a completed ABLLS-R and a completed VB-MAPP, you will:

1. Fill in the ABLLS-R Skills Tracking grids and VB-MAPP grids correctly (10

- points per assessment)
2. Select six different targets for instruction across six different operants/domains (2 points per goal). For each target, you will:
 - a. Operationally define each goal (2 points per goal)
 - b. Select a research-based instructional procedure with a rationale (2 points per goal)
 - c. Select a data collection measure (1 point per goal)
 - d. Create a data collection form (1 point per goal)
 - e. Write step-by-step data collection procedures (2 points per goal)
 - f. Write step-by-step instructional procedures (2 points per goal)
 3. Include a reference list in APA 7 format (6 points)
 4. Submit as 3 documents- ABLLS-R grid, VB-MAPP grid, instructional grids with references (2 points)

Verbal Behavior Instructional Project Drafts. Beginning in Module 3, you will be assigned a portion of the VB Instructional Project to draft and submit prior to the next week's class session. Each draft submitted on time will be graded based on completeness rather than accuracy. Late drafts will not be accepted. You will be provided feedback on your drafts, which you will be expected to incorporate when putting together your final project.

Reaction Papers. There are two Reaction papers in Module 8. To complete these assignments:

1. Choose two of the videos or resources.
2. Write and submit a brief (about 2 pages) paper for each resource in which you:
 - a. Summarize the information.
 - b. Explain what was new to you.
 - c. Explain how you may incorporate this new information into your work.

Ensure that your spelling, grammar, and punctuation are correct. Submit your reaction paper through the links in the graded activities folders during the weeks for which they were assigned. (15 points possible per paper)

Discussion Board Items. Each week you will have a Discussion Board Item to which to respond. To respond to the Discussion Board Item, read the item, and then follow the instructions to complete the activity. Respond to your peers throughout the week- each discussion has specific instructions on what to include. Make sure to implement feedback from your instructor as well. (10 points per discussion)

Weekly Quizzes. There are several quizzes in each week of the course that check your knowledge of the assigned videos and reading materials. Each correct answer is worth one point toward your final grade. Total quiz availability time is equivalent to 1.5 min per question. (124 points total)

Verbal Operant Summary Table. Download or print this in Week 1. Write in the content of each of the cells during Weeks 1 and 2 as you work through the lessons. Double check all answers and correct, as needed. Upload as part of Week 2's assignments. (5 points)

Foxy Learning Modules. Foxy Learning is an online learning platform that includes open education resources. Throughout the course you will complete the following modules: 1) Introduction to Verbal Behavior and 2) Introduction to Relational Frame Theory. Throughout the two learning modules, there are 51 lessons. After you pass each lesson, you will take a screenshot which will be submitted in the corresponding assignment on the LMS. Each lesson is worth one point.

Course Policies and Expectations

Attendance/Participation

Given that this is an asynchronous course, we do not have course meetings. We do have recordings to be watched, discussion boards with discussions with your classmates to be completed, quizzes to be taken, drafts to be completed, and so forth, every week, it is essential that you plan - and follow through with that plan – to interact with the course at minimum three times per week. More will probably be needed for many students. It is strongly recommended that you distribute your work throughout the week, and don't let it wait until the weekend during which the grade earning assignments are due. Much of the content in this course will be new to you, will be difficult, and will require time and thought to “sink in.”

Late Work

Assignments are due at 11:59 pm on Monday at the end of the week for which they were assigned. Late work is not accepted.

Other Requirements

Given the possibility of computer or internet difficulties some students may experience from time to time, students must consider and identify alternative availability of computers and internet access (e.g., public libraries, their employer (if permissible by the employer), internet cafes, etc.) within the first week of this course to ensure that they will be able to complete their assignments in a timely manner.

Several assignments will require that you scan your work and upload it to the LMS. Given this, you will need to have access to a scanner that will permit you to scan a multiple page document into a single document and save it as a pdf file.

Many of our home printers do this. Scanners are also available at FedEx Office, Staples, and other, similar stores for your use. Some employers will also permit use of their scanners for this purpose. Scanned multiple page documents must be in pdf format and must include all pages for the document in a single pdf file. Uploads of multiple, single page pdfs, and uploads of jpg files will not be accepted.

Grading Scale (traditional rounding principles apply)

- 93-100% = A
- 90-92% = A-
- 87-89% = B+
- 83-86% = B
- 80-82% = B-
- 70-79% = C
- < 69% = F

Student Evaluations of Teaching:

The student evaluation of teaching, or SET, is an online course survey. You are strongly encouraged to complete this form for each course as this feedback helps instructors and administrators improve your class experiences. Towards the end of the course, you will receive email and LMS notifications when the evaluations open. Your anonymous and confidential feedback is only shared with instructors after final grades have been submitted.

Professional Dispositions

Throughout study in the College of Education and Human Development, students are expected to demonstrate behaviors that reflect the positive dispositions of a professional. See Student Guide (<https://cehd.gmu.edu/current-students/cehd-student-guide>).
