University Catalog Course Description

Focuses on individual health improvement by studying mental/emotional well-being, fitness, nutrition, drug abuse prevention, consumerism, safety and other topics.

Course Overview

The focus of this course is health for the 21st century. Through a variety of learning activities, students will be expected to master content in 10 content areas of personal health. Students will also be expected to apply strategies for change to improve personal health.

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using an asynchronous format via Mason's Learning Management system (LMS). You will log in to the course site using your Mason email name (everything before @gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on the first day of the session.

- To access your course in Canvas: <https://canvas.gmu.edu/login/canvas>.

Under no circumstances may students participate in online class sessions while operating motor vehicles.

Required Texts

Tunks, L. (2025). An Invitation to Health (21st ed.). Cengage Learning.

To enhance your learning experience and provide discounted access to the right course material, this course is part of an inclusive access model called First Day®. You can easily access the textbook for this course right from Canvas.

George Mason University will bill you at the discounted price as a course fee for this course.

You have the option to opt-out of this program in Canvas. However, it is NOT recommended that you opt-out, as the textbook is required for this course. If you choose to opt-out you will be responsible for purchasing your textbook.

We will cover all 20 chapters and the exams are based on the 21st edition.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed internet access with updated browsers.
 - Canvas supported browsers: <https://guides.instructure.com/a/7203291>

- Consistent and reliable access to GMU email and the course LMS, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Speakers and a microphone or a microphone-enabled headset for use with the synchronous web conferencing tools.
- Note that students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.

Expectations

- Course Week:
Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day, our week will start on Tuesday, and finish on the following Monday.
- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course Canvas site and their GMU three times per week for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials.
- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus and the Due Dates document on Canvas. It is the student’s responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session with suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words.

Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.

Course Performance Evaluation

Students are expected to submit all assignments on time in the manner outlined by the instructor.

- Assignments and/or Examinations

- Quizzes and Assignments

- The quizzes are designed to assist in mastering the concepts in the readings. The assignments are designed to introduce additional health resources.

- Discussion Boards

- A topic will be posted by the instructor for your response as well as comments and questions to your classmates' responses. The discussions will be graded based on your knowledge and understanding of the readings and your ability to relate the concepts to everyday experiences.

- Personal Change Plan (PCP)

- This semester project consists of the Agreement and Final Report.

- Exams

- Each exam will consist of 40 multiple choice questions.

- Exam 1—Chapters 1-7

- Exam 2—Chapters 8-14

- Exam 3—Chapters 15-20

- Grading

- Quizzes and Assignments—75 points

- Discussion Boards—15 points

- Personal Change Plan (PCP)—40 points

- Exam 1—40 points

- Exam 2—40 points

- Exam 3—40 points

- TOTAL—250 points

Late work- Quizzes and Exams will NOT reopen and will NOT be accepted after the due date.

Other work (Assignments, Discussion Boards, Personal Change Plan) submitted up to 48 hours after the due date, 50% will be deducted from the earned grade. After 48 hours, this work (Assignments, Discussion Boards, Personal Change Plan) will not be accepted. Extensions may be accepted with PRIOR approval from the instructor.
