GRANTS AND COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS

Funded Projects: Active

Baker, P. H. (2014 – present). Principal investigator. Aspiring Special Education Leaders Academy (ASELA). Sponsored by the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) utilizing state funds to address leadership needs; $2,144,240 received to date.

The purpose of this funding is to assist school divisions and state-operated programs with succession planning by helping to prepare potential leaders for future administrative positions in special education. My role as PI is to support the delivery of each training event, present content as needed, and develop and manage the budget.

Regan, K., Baker, P. H., & Weiss, M. (2011 – present). Co-principal investigator. A distance model for an endorsement in special education: General Curriculum K-12. Sponsored by the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) utilizing federal flow-through of IDEA, Part B funds; $789,358 received to date.

The purpose of this funding originally was to provide tuition support for individuals seeking endorsement in one of two ways. Individuals could be part of the DCOP (Distance Cohort Outreach Program) accessing the program via video conference or face-to-face throughout regions 4, 5, 6, and 7 or be enrolled in the DCOP online, on-demand courses offered via distance technologies. Recently the purpose has evolved to focus on the use of technology to support a Dynamic Coaching Outreach Program utilizing bug-in-ear technology for real-time coaching of teachers in their classrooms. My role as Co-PI is to identify potential participants and to develop and manage the budget.

Regan, K., & Baker, P. H. (2011 – present). Co-principal investigator. Traineeships for the Endorsement of Special Education Personnel: General Curriculum K-12. Sponsored by the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) utilizing state funds to address teacher shortage; $1,102,046 received to date.

The purpose of this grant is to provide tuition support for the endorsement of provisionally licensed teachers employed by Virginia schools. Most of our recipients are located predominantly in Region 4 and access the program in cohorts offered in partnership with local school districts. Candidates in Regions 3 and 5 can access the program via distance technologies. My role as Co-PI is to recruit cohorts, to provide access pathways for remote students, and to develop and manage the budget.
