

Kyle Wilson

Memorial Scholarship

Kyle Robert Wilson was raised in Prince William County, Virginia and graduated from Hylton High School where he excelled in baseball. Kyle went on to attend George Mason University earning a Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training in 2005. Kyle joined the Prince William County Department of Fire and Rescue on January 23, 2006. On April 16, 2007, Technician I Kyle Wilson died in the line of duty fighting a house fire in Prince William County.

While a student in the Athletic Training Education Program and as a professional firefighter, Kyle was passionate about helping others. He was loved and respected by family, friends, and colleagues alike for his intelligence, integrity, and fun loving attitude.

To honor his life and further his legacy, Kyle's family has established the Kyle Wilson Memorial Scholarship to financially assist a current George Mason University Athletic Training student. Reflecting Kyle's character the recipient will exhibit integrity, a passion for professional growth and physical fitness, and a commitment to the service of others. The scholarship is funded from donations collected at the annual Kyle Wilson Memorial Walk for Fitness. Each April at the Walk for Fitness, Prince William County and George Mason University communities come together to celebrate Kyle's passion for physical fitness and to recognize the recipient of the Kyle Wilson Memorial Scholarship.

To be eligible for this scholarship, students must be admitted to the professional phase of the Athletic Training Education Program and possess a minimum 3.0 overall grade point average.

If you are interested in applying for this scholarship, complete the application and submit all required materials to the Director of the Athletic Training Education Program.
