Special Project Rubric RMGT 490

The internship student will be able to develop and complete a special project in cooperation with their agency supervisor. The intent is to provide the agency and/or its clientele with a tangible and useful finished resource or service. The project provides the intern with an opportunity to demonstrate and improve their problem solving and communication skills. The project should be realistically and reasonably “doable” and be of interest to the intern.

Portfolio Rubric RMGT 490

The internship student will complete a portfolio which, at a minimum, encompasses the following areas that the intern has completed throughout their internship experience (additional information can be found in Appendix 10):

- Section A: Cover Sheet
- Section B: Agency Overview
- Section C: Overview of Internship Experience
- Section D: Special Project
- Section E: Report Section
- Section F: Final Presentation

In addition, the final portfolio should be submitted on time (due date to be determined each semester faculty supervisor) and should exemplify appropriate grammar and writing techniques. The final portfolio is a capstone project, which should reflect evidence of preparation, effort and depth of reflection. Final portfolio presentation to the Internship Coordinator should be clean, professional and orderly when submitted via Blackboard.
